

Gunn's revenge silences Luton

BRYAN GUNN, the Norwich goalkeeper, gained revenge over Luton when he produced an outstanding second-half performance to increase further the relegation worries of Jim Ryan's side.

In September, Gunn conceded a hat-trick from Elstrup, the Luton striker. This time, he produced a series of high-class saves to frustrate Luton, and earn Norwich their first League win for two months.

Tim Sherwood collected the only goal of the game in the 21st minute, sidefooting the ball into the corner of the net after Fleck presented him with the chance from 15 yards.

Luton	0
Norwich	1
John Ley 90/91

Gunn produced the first of at least six fine saves when he blocked a shot from Black, shortly before the interval, and soon after the break he continued to frustrate Luton.

Gunn denied Preece and then Elstrup, the goalkeeper putting out a hand to deflect his far-post shot. Harvey, a second-half substitute for Luton, was thwarted by the goalkeeper and then Dowie saw another chance saved.

Luton, barracked by their own supporters, continued to threaten as time ran out, and Beaumont was unfortunate with an overhead kick that went narrowly wide. Elstrup and Pembridge also saw late efforts just miss the target while Gunn prevented an own goal. Polston tried to back-flick the ball to safety, but Gunn had to leap acrobatically to his left to hold the ball.

Luton were almost caught out again with five minutes remaining, when Sherwood should have collected his second goal on a break, but Chamberlain did well to save with his legs.