

Luton's lament

TWO rapid-fire goals in the second-half gave Sheffield United their eighth win in nine matches. They drew the other one and will not go down.

But Luton have now lost four in a row and may not be so fortunate as last season, when they won their last game at Derby to survive.

Luton led early on through Lars Elstrup's stooping header — his 17th goal of the season. But Ian Bryson equalised after an error by
