● HAPPY RETURN: Paul Telfer back in league action, two days after his 21st birthday and nine months after being sidelined by a foot fracture.

GOALS MAKE IT A NICE CHANGE!

Numbers game lands a double for Phil Gray

STRIKER Phil Gray changed his shirt and his luck and Luton Town took full advantage of it for a much-needed second win of the season at Peterborough.

It was their first-ever league win at London Road, and all the sweeter for a team and a manager in danger of being dragged into a crisis of no-confidence as a further relegation started to look a distinct possibility.

The league table shows there is still a long way to go.

But the overdue change in luck lifted Town heads and ought now to put everyone in the right frame of mind to dispose of Southend at Kenilworth Road on Saturday.

Gray's two goals, both expertly taken, should also do him a power of good after a run of nine games without one.

And it was a day when the Town earned their luck. They had the run of the ball, but they also turned in a real grafting performance and the return of Paul Telfer after nine months on the injured list was a real bonus.

The biggest lucky break of all came in the 35th minute, when Peterborough should have had a penalty to give them a chance to go 2-1 ahead.

Referee Paul Danson was one of the few in the ground who thought otherwise.

Within three minutes a good header and a touch of luck had put the Town ahead again, and the Posh were reduced to scruffy football for much of the rest of the game.

I made David Preece the major contender with Gray for man of the match honours, with Steve Claridge not far behind.

At times the defence looked suspect and green, but the home side failed to find the extra touch of quality needed to convert their chances, and for all their bouts of occasional pressure Andy Petterson did not have a difficult save to make until ten minutes from time, when he broke Peterborough's hearts with a stunning stop from a cracking drive by Tony Adcock.

For a visiting fan, it was nice to hear the other side complaining about 'If only...'

Peterborough ought to have had at least one goal in a sharp opening spell.

Wasted

Adcock got round Darren Salton on the by-line and pulled back a good low cross. Two shots were blocked, and the third, by overlapping right back Noel Blake, was driven wastefully wide.

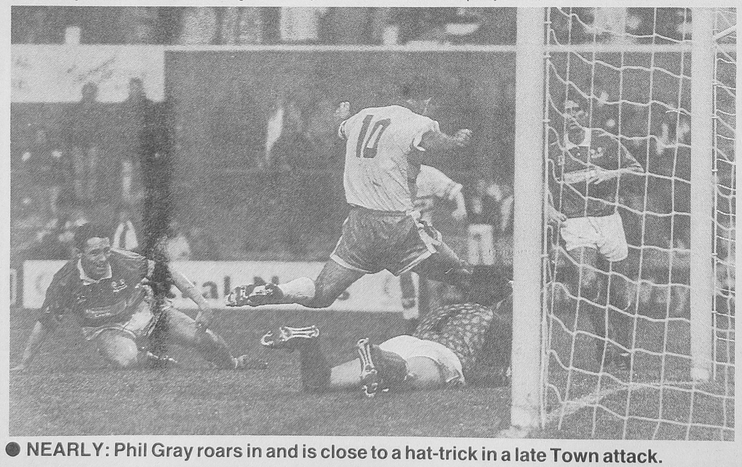
Both defences looked square and flat-footed at times, but Salton, John James, Marvin Johnson and Des Linton were all hard workers, refusing to be flustered by frantic attacking.

Gap

Peterborough have had to sell by order of the boardroom after picking up £650,000 for fullback Dave Robinson and striker Ken Charlery, they found £80,000 to buy Tony Philliskirk from Bolton.

He and Adcock often looked menacing, but after their early threat Peterborough were stunned by an excellent opening goal in the tenth minute.



● NEARLY: Phil Gray roars in and is close to a hat-trick in a late Town attack.

THE FULL MATCH DETAILS

TOWN: Petterson; Linton, Salton, James, Johnson; Telfer, Matthew Kamara, Preece (Oakes 80 mins); Claridge, Gray. Other sub: Greene.

PETERBOROUGH: Bennett; Luke, Howarth, Welsh, Robinson; Barnes (Iorfa 48 mins), Cooper, Halsall, Sterling; Adcock, Phillikirk. Other sub: Bradshaw.

THE GOALS: Phil Gray for the Town, tenth minute, 25-yard lob to catch the keeper off his line, from David Preece's perfect through-ball over the top; Gary Cooper for Peterborough, 26 minutes, from 20-yard free kick for hands by Darren Salton; Paul Telfer, 38 minutes, on his comeback game, header going in off a defender, a post and the back of the keeper's head, from a left wing cross by Preece; Gray again, far post header, 40th minute, from Steve Claridge's cross from the right; Tony Adcock for Peterborough, 70 minutes, header to convert the rebound after Tony Phillikirk's header had been tipped on to the bar by Andy Petterson.

OTHER STRIKES: Town two saved and seven wide; Peterborough nine saved, five wide and one hit the bar and led to a goal. Corners: 7-4 to the Town.

REFEREE: Paul Danson, Leicester. Not bad, but the Town were lucky when he was probably the only one in the stadium who did not think it was a foul when Petterson downed Phillikirk as he was clear on a run for goal. A penalty then would probably have made it 2-1 to Peterborough and the result could have been vastly different.

BOOKED: Darren Salton, for hands to stop Phillikirk getting through, but conceding the free kick from which Peterborough equalised; Damien Matthew for a foul on Lee Howarth.

ATTENDANCE: 7,125, boosted by a big Luton following.

ENTERTAINMENT: An awayday to enjoy, with, for a change, the Town getting the run of the ball and the lucky breaks, but all working hard enough to deserve it.

BONUS: Paul Telfer made his comeback after being out for nine months, did well, and marked the occasion with only the second league goal of his career, three days after his 21st birthday.

● KILLER: Phil Gray heads his second of the match to put the Town 3-1 up.

Preece weighted a pass beautifully into the stride of Gray, and he raced through a huge gap in the inside left channel and carefully lobbed the ball into the net from nearly 30 yards as keeper Ian Bennett tried to close him down.

The inevitable response by the home side led to an expensive yellow card in the 26th minute.

Salton was back-tracking with Phillikirk as a through-ball was lofted over the top, and had got a yard out of position.

As the two tangled the defender stuck out an arm to stop the ball dropping clear.

Home fans bayed for a red card, but the ref settled for a yellow and a free kick from which Gary Cooper fired the equaliser.

The balance seemed to be swinging towards Peterborough after that.

Claims

Another over-the-top pass led to the penalty claims which I thought were justified.

Salton let the ball go over him, and Petterson, in a near-helpless one to one situation, charged out as Phillikirk bore down on goal.

The striker tumbled over the keeper and few could believe it when the ref gave a goal kick.

Perhaps he was scared to give a penalty and a red card which the letter of the law demanded.

That decision gave the Town a renewed surge of confidence, and three minutes later a remarkable goal left Peterborough deep in despair and disbelief.

Deflected

Telfer met it with a powerful header and the ball was deflected by a defender on to a post.

The goalkeeper, who had dived in vain, got an inadvertent last touch as he lay prostrate: the ball rebounded into the net off the back of his head.

Two minutes later it was 3-1 as Claridge, again full of running, got down the right and crossed accurately to the far post.

The Posh defence was nowhere, and Gray took full toll with a strong downward header into the corner.

Both sides had their moments in the second half, but Peterborough were kept out until the 70th minute, when Phillskirk's header was finger-tipped on to the bar by Petterson and Adcock converted the rebound.

For about ten minutes the Town looked a little rocky, but the super-save from Adcock ended that spell, and the nearest to a goal came at the other end, when Gray was just wide with a hat-trick attempt.

Battle

But he had already done his job, as had the rest of the Town side.

And in the important midefield area, the Town battled through better than the home side.

Preece captialised on the space and freedom to be the ballplayer while Damien Matthew also produced some shrewd passes. Chris Kamara, although more subdued, did his spoiling jobvery effectively.

Telfer inevitably looked a little rusty, but his important goal, two days after his 21st birthday was a lovely bonus.

And perhaps the Posh were beaten by the numbers game.

Little Preece hardly looks right in the No. 9 shirt, but Peterborough rarely knew who should be marking him, and Gray, in the No. 10, was the centre-forward they forgot when it mattered most, and he made them pay dearly.

Managers' viewpoints

CHRIS Turner, the former Town player who is now the Peterborough manager, had no doubt about the turning point of Saturday's match.

He was certain his team should have had a penalty to give them the chance to go 2-1 up when Andy Petterson brought down Tony Phillskirk after he had broken clear.

"The referee and linesman must have been the only people in the ground who didn't see it as a penalty," he said.

Town boss David Pleat did not argue strongly about that, but when it was suggested his team had been lucky he said that if the penalty incident was fotunate it only balanced the bad luck they had when Peterborough scored their equaliser.

It followed a handball by Darren Salton, which earned him a yellow card and conceded a free kick from which Gary Cooper netted.

"Salton was pushed in that incident, and that was why he handled," said the Luton manager. "He was unlucky because the referee didn't spot it. So we might have deserved a bit of good fortune later."

He admitted: "Today we had the run of the ball, but there was a lot of gritty hard work by the team.

"Phil Gray and Steve Claridge were bright and breezy, and from the start we stretched Peterborough.

"The goals gave us a bit of confidence and freed us to play our passing game.

"We defended well and had a lot of determination.

"And I was thrilled to see Paul Telfer back, and so pleased for him."

David Preece echoed that sentiment, and believes that the 21-year-old's return to fitness will give a better balance to midfield.

"We deserved to win," he said. 'We have been creating chances in the past without scoring goals. Phil Gray was due the two he got today."
