GRAY ON THE SPOT TO SAVE VITAL POINT

Match details

Luton Town 2 Barnsley 2

LUTON TOWN: Chamberlain; James, Peake, Dreyer, Johnson; Oakes, Telfer, Preece, Hughes (Williams 80 mins); Gray, Dixon. Other sub, not used: Rees.

BARNSLEY: Watson; Robinson, Fleming, Davis, Taggart, Archdeacon; O'Connell, Redfearn; Currie, Biggins, Rammell. Subs: Liddell and Pearson, not used.

THE GOALS: 1-0, 10 minutes: Kerry Dixon, simple close-range header after Paul Telfer's long throw bounced into the goal area; 1-1, 49 minutes: Brendan O'Connell header at the far post after David Currie crossed from the left wing; 1-2, 75 minutes: Currie close-range header, after Gerry Taggart headed the ball back across the face of the goal from Neil Redfearn's left-wing corner; 2-2, 82 mins: Phil Gray penalty, after Redfearn instinctively handled a header into the box by John Dreyer.

OTHER ATTEMPTS: Town six saved and eight wide; Barnsley three saved and four wide. Corners: 13-5 to the Town.

REFEREE: Allan Gunn, Sussex. One of the best, and looked it. Always in control, with both sets of players helping him.

BOOKED: Neil Redfearn for dissent.

ATTENDANCE: 7,595, fourth highest of the day in the First Division.

ENTERTAINMENT: Pretty good, with the result about right. The Town were stunning in the first 15 minutes, but Barnsley came back into it in the second half.

DREAM OVER: The club record is still seven consecutive clean sheets in the league, achieved by two squads, of 1923 and 1993. The two goals in 26 minutes by Barnsley followed 11hrs 13mins of league football in which the Town did not concede a goal.

THE record-chasers of Luton Town were happy to see the dream fade away and settle for the second-best result against Barnsley.

Looking for an eighth consecutive clean sheet, they nearly suffered the indignity of their fifth home defeat of the season instead.

But a late penalty by Phil Gray brought justice, with even the visitors admitting that the draw was fair to both sides.

And that was despite the fact that Barnsley grabbed the lead with 15 minutes to go on a cold and windy day when ball control was difficult.

Deserved

The Town deserved their point, and it looked all the more important as news came through that all the teams below them had also dropped points.

A see-saw match made for good entertainment, with the Town delighting their fans with early brilliance, and then fustratintg them with signs that the old wobbles at home can still be induced.

Perhaps the goal of a new defensive record was too big a burden to bare indefinitely.

The defence has learned that it has got to be good, because so many matches have been decided by narrow margins.

The Town's attacking deserved more than it got against a resilient side who came to Luton fresh from their team of the week performance in winning 4-0 at Millwall.

Barnsley were never allowed to look capable of matching that at Kenilworth Road, although the Town defence was not as solid as it had been in the seven previous games.

Skipper Trevor Peake was not quite able to reach the high standard he had achieved during that run.

That underlines how important has been his contribution to the climb away from the relegation places.

Barnsley played five at the back and looked for the chance to counter-attack with speed.

It was a policy which rarely looked like succeeding in the first half, when some of the Town's passing football was a delight.

The Town opened at a tremendous pace. Within 30 seconds of the start Paul Telfer rifled in a drive just over the bar from an astute lay-off by Gray.

On the right wing Scott Oakes threatened to provide the sort of service that might cash in on the luxury of fielding a pair of quality attackers in Gray and Kerry Dixon.

Fullback Marvin Johnson has come on a bundle this season, and his marauding down the left made up for Ceri Hughes having an off day with his passing and crossing.

While Telfer got through loads of work, it was again David Preece who was the Town's man of the match.

Dixon looked more comfortable, and quicker, than in his first game, and Gray must surely benefit if the pair can be kept together.

The Northern Ireland striker almost gave the Town a lead in the fouth minute, when a cracking move swept from one end of the field to the other.

It started with Alec Chamberlain passing the ball out of his area and ended with Telfer slotting a pass into Gray's path.

As the goalkeeper came racing out Gray lobbed him beautifully, but the picture goal did not quite develop — the ball floated agonisingly wide of the post.

But Barnsley were being pushed back by the consistency of the Town attacking, and a goal had to come.

It was a bit of a freak when it did.

Telfer delivered a long throw from the right and Barnsley men stood around watching. After the ball bounced once Dixon was left on his own to head in from close range.

Five minutes later it should have been 2-0 when Hughes got round Brendan O'Connell and fed Dixon, at close range but angled. He knocked the ball across the face of the goal and Gray could not make the easy contact needed to turn it in. Oakes finally produced a shot, but it was deflected off a defender for a corner.

The only worrying moment at the other end came when Peake let the ball-run past him. Andy Rammell was in the clear but Chamberlain came out fast to deny him.

Barnsley were given a roasting by their manager at half-time, and came out looking much more determined.

Striker Rammell was dropped into midfield to even up the balance in that department, and the Town had to fall back.

Four minutes after the break David Currie went down the left wing, took Peake out, and crossed to beyond the far post.

O'Connell outjumped the cover to score with an angled header.

Suddenly the Town lost their poise, and the fans sensed that there was a real danger of defeat.

Barnsley looked the more confident, but the Town fought their way out of that spell.

Rammell made a marvellous headed save when Julian James got upfield and hit a good drive.

A lovely run and pass by Preece put Gray through with only the keeper in his way, but Watson made an excellent stop, and the keeper then pulled off another fine save to flip a drive by Telfer over the bar.

But Town confidence took another knock in the 75th minute when the defence was caught out at a set piece.

Neil Redfearn hit a left wing corner beyond the goal, Gerry Taggart headed the ball back, and Currie headed Barnsley into the lead.

Penalty

Earlier in the season that sort of blow might have finished the Town, but they got the break they deserved with eight minutes to go.

Redfearn, worried by the presence of Martin Williams, the sub for Hughes, instinctively put up a hand as he went for a high ball which had been headed back almost from the by-line by John Dreyer, who had another excellent game. Gray expertly despatched the penalty.

● OPENING THE ACCOUNT: Kerry Dixon heads his first Luton Town goal to give them the lead against Barnsley.

No record, and the pressure comes off

SKIPPER TREVOR Peake admitted that the Town had been 'a bit jittery at the back'' throughout the game against Barnsley, and wondered if talk of a new club record was partly to blame.

"People were talking about going for the eighth clean sheet to set a new reord, and the pressure was starting to build up,'' he said.

''We knew that it had to end sometime. We have got it out of the way, and hopefully we can now go for another seven or eight games without conceding a goal.

''It might be tempting fate, but thankfully our run without defeat didn't end. Barnsley were a good side, and in the end we were happy to settle for a point.''

Barnsley's Wayne Biggins, who had a much quieter game than he did when he scored twice against the Town at Oakwell, in a 3-0 win, shared that view.

''We were a bit fortunate to go in only one down at half time,'' he said.

''The manager gave us a kick up the backside, and we reorganised and got better in the second half.

''I thought the result was right for both sides.''

Barnsley boss Mel Machin declined an invitation to the Pressroom, and when David Pleat appeared he made it clear that he was under orders to watch what he said.

''I can talk about the football, but nothing else,'' he said, as the scribes tried to guide the conversation into a discussion on the events of the previous 48 hours, when Phil Gray might or might not have become a Chelsea player.

''We played marvellously early on,'' said the Town boss. ''We could have gone two up, but I could see possibilities in little spells.

''And it would have been most unjust if we had lost.

''We have done well. We nearly got mugged for the second time this week!''

He added that he was pleased that every player was fighting for his colleagues, and if they continued to do that the Town would be all right.
