BARCLAYS LEAGUE DIVISION ONE

Returning to the right conditions

MANAGER'S VIEWPOINT BY DAVID PLEAT

Telcome to our friends from Cambridge United, a club who have done very well in recent seasons and are striving, like ourselves, to clear a path to safety.

A particular welcome to Brian Owen who worked solidly and professionally as our physio and is now assisting Ian Atkins.

The last weeks of a season can be more than difficult, changing ground conditions and tired limbs can cause irritating performances. Last week Bobby Gould was quoted, 'too many people criticise from the stands without knowing what it is like on the pitch'. A rather strong statement. Most spectators do understand the difficulties, but there are varying degrees of encouragement that can be applied to players who are undergoing problems.

We welcome our new groundsman and, after giving him our initial sympathies, we shall work solidly with him to help try and recover and create a good grass surface. If we have a reputation for playing passing football and wish to retain it then we need the right conditions.

Partly the pitch and partly the proximity of the executive boxes has been the main reason why some players have been forced to clear heartily into the local residents gardens and alleyways. Against Swindon seven balls went astray but it did not merit further criticism in a couple of tabloids. Had it been on any other ground the balls would not have disappeared. We need two safety nets! Coupled with the tradition of allowing hat-trick scorers to take the match ball we are now around thirty balls light this season, so it with some pleasure that I thank Mr Andy Mitchell of Mitchell Sports, South Normanton, Derby for sending us a brand new ball re-placing the one given to Mark Pembridge. We appreciate the gesture and thank our seasons ball sponsors.

Further generosity last week was accepted from those splendid people from The Bobbers Travel Club who kindly raised £2,000 which they handed to Andy McDade for the benefit of club medical equipment. We need more of this type of support. We may be unable to buy but we need good conditions for the current staff. Our club does not receive any financial support from other supporters organisations and our commercial income desperately needs boosting. There is a recession and lotteries are down, but that should be the signal for us to encourage and work harder to attract more support.

"THE LAST WEEKS OF A SEASON CAN BE MORE THAN DIFFICULT."

Philip Gray rounds a Swindon defender, only to be penalised, during our 0-0 draw on March 17.

One of the most philanthropic supporters is Mr Cliff Bassett of Universal Salvage Auctions. Hopefully his company will continue to sponsor us next season. His support for my local Herald columns has meant sponsorship monies of over £500 going to charities. His support, and the good faith of all our sponsors, are both needed and appreciated.

Before kick off this afternoon Darren Salton will make a brief appearance on the pitch as his way of thanking those many supporters whose thoughts, letter and cards surrounded him whilst on a Life Support Machine in November. His courage and your prayers got Darren through and we trust that eventually we will see him pursuing his young career.

Last week produced much discussion and telephoning regarding players but at the time of writing we have not lost any of our future possible assets, but neither of course are we able to increst and rearrange our forces. It is a difficult time and we have to hope that the wheel of fortune is turning, however slowly it may seem.

Magpies prove the doubters wrong

NEWS ON ONE

rewcastle United provided the perfect answer to those who doubted their ability to remain Division One's top side, with an emphatic 4-0 victory against Notts County last Saturday.

The win followed their 2-1 defeat at fellow promotion chasers Swindon Town, and also marked the arrival to St James' Park of striker Andrew Cole, their £1.75 million signing from Bristol City.

'It was a brilliant feeling scoring in front of those fans," said Cole after the game. "I hope it is the first of many, but there are so many good players here that I know my place in the side cannot be taken for granted."

David Kelly (2) and Robert Lee were Newcastle's other scorers in front of a capacity crowd of 30,029. The victory kept the Magpies five points clear of nearest rivals West Ham United, who stepped up the pressure with a 2-0 victory over Tranmere Rovers at Upton

The absence of goalscorers John Aldridge and Clive Allen through injury left a goalscoring void at Upton Park, and the Hammers had two second-half penalties by Julian Dicks to thank for the victory. The game also saw the arrival of David Speedie, on loan from Southampton, in West Ham colours. It is hoped he will spark the United forward line into action in Allen's absence and manager Billy Bonds was pleased with his contribution after his opening game.

"I was very pleased with David's commitment on the field today," he said. "We hope he can keep the team buzzing, and I'm sure he'll have our fans on his side."

Glenn Hoddle's Swindon Town slipped to fourth place with a 2-1 defeat at unpredictable Derby County on Sunday. The Robins had lost only once in their previous ten league games and victory would have taken the club within five points of secondplaced West Ham United.

As it turned out, Portsmouth moved into third spot with a 1-0 victory at home to Charlton Athletic. Guy Whittingham rang the Pompey chimes for the 37th time this season with a superb diving header, but the victory has left the club with severe injury problems. Kit Symons, Chris Burns, Lee Russell, Stuart Doling and Micky Ross are all ruled out this and weekend Danish midfielder Bjorn Kristiansen, on loan from Newcastle, will face a suspension following his sendingoff against the Addicks.

At the other end of the table, John Taylor came to Bristol Rovers' rescue against the Town, just 48 hours after his proposed move to Pompey was put on ice. His equaliser left new manager John Ward delighted and hopeful that the striker will now stay to help the Pirates escape the drop. "I have spoken with John and told him that I would be delighted if he stayed. I believe I have a lot to offer him here at Bristol."

Southend also revived their hopes of playing Division One football next season with an exciting 3-3 draw with Millwall at Roots Hall. The Shrimpers were 3-1 down at one stage, but fought back with two goals from Steve Tilson to salvage a point. Millwall also had captain Colin Cooper sent off for a foul on Stan Collymore, who scored Southend's opening goal.

"Collymore's goal was a great strike," said opposing manager Mick McCarthy. Nottingham Forest officials Ron Fenton and Alan Hill must also have been impressed, watching in the stands along with only 3,840 other spectators - the lowest First Divison crowd this season.

We welcome our latest Community Scheme guests

Today's guests, Denbigh Road Junior School of Denbigh Road, Luton are here courtesy of our community scheme sponsored by Universal Salvage Auctions, (USA), the league leaders in motor salvage auctions, and associate sponsors Kenning Car and Van Rental.

"The children were told three or four weeks ago that they had been invited along to a live football match and are very exicited and very much looking forward to their VIP day out," Headmistress said Margaret Quow.

"Unfortunately, we don't have our own football team, as the

We only have a tarmac playground. If we want to use a local playing field for games we all have to get ready and go for a long walk to get there," continued Mrs Quow.

"During the summer term we organise a six-a-side tournament when the children can make up their own mixed teams. It turns out to be quite a big event as we have 420 pupils at Denbigh Road Junior.

Members of Ramridge Rangers F.C. are pictured with Gary Hooper before our match with Swindon Town on March 17.

ur last two home performances have been scrappy 0-0 affairs, but we are not just facing the opposition, but also a hard pitch as well.

I know our supporters will not be satisfied with successive 0-0 draws at home and believe me, we are not too pleased ourselves, but I felt in both games - against Swindon and Bristol Rovers - we had the bulk of the play but just could not create enough clear-cut chances to take maximum points.

A major factor creating this problem in both games was the pitch. It was extremely hard and did not suit our passing game. It has made the ball difficult to control and that is why against Swindon - a game in which both teams are known for their passing ability – we had seven balls flying over the Executive Boxes into Dunstable Road!

The game against Bristol Rovers was even harder because Rovers' players were not only playing for points, but also their places. Nevertheless, we saw that game as two points dropped rather than two points gained.

It is imperitive that we get back to winning ways this afternoon after a difficult trip to Millwall in midweek. Cambridge have been doing quite well lately and will come to us in confident mood. We are determined to put that 3-3 draw at the Abbey earlier in the season behind us and take maximum points today, something we should have done last time.

Enjoy the game!

Old friends help United's bid to stave off relegation

CAMBRIDGE UNITED F.C. 1992-93

- After hitting the heights in the old First Division last season, Cambridge United have struggled to repeat the performance this term. Managerial and playing staff changes have led to disruptions both on and off the pitch, which has not helped their cause. Three straight defeats at the start of the season, at Tranmere (0-2), Birmingham (0-3) and at home to Swindon Town (1-4) set the tone for the strug-· gles which lay ahead.
- However, following the departure of manager John Beck in December and the arrival of new boss Ian Atkins, the side now appears to have settled down and the results have improved. Recent victories against Brentford (1-0), Swindon (1-0), Wolves (2-1) and a creditable draw against Millwall have improved their situation and they now find themselves alongside the Town in the league table, aiming to escape from the threat of the relegation zone.
- Their connection with the Hatters does not end there. Top- scorer this season for United is Steve Claridge. He appears to be hitting the goal trail again with his former club after struggling to reach top form at Kenilworth Road. Also guiding Cambridge United this season as assistant manager is former Town physiotherapist Brian Owen. We give them both a warm welcome on their first visit back to Kenilworth Road.
- A football revival in Cambridge began soon after World War II when Abbey United (formed 1919) decided to turn professional and in 1949 changed their name to Cambridge United F.C. They competed in the United Counties League, before graduating to the Eastern Counties League in 1951 and the Southern League in 1958. United are one of the Football League's newest members, making their first appearance in 1970. They have since gone on to win the Division Four championship in 1976/77 and the Third Division crown in 1990/91.

UNITED ON PARADE

JOHN VAUGHAN (goalkeeper) - John began his career at West Ham United before joining Fulham for £20,000 in 1986. He made 44 appearances for the Craven Cottage club before joining Cambridge in August 1988 and has missed only a handful of games

ANDY FENSOME (defender) – Right-back Andy started his career at Norwich but had to be content with reserve team football. He spent a while at nonleague Bury Town before joining United in ALAN KIMBLE (defender) – Alan began his career at Charlton Athletic, but made only a handfull of appearances in 1985. After a brief loan spell at Exeter City, he joined United in 1986 and has established himself as first-choice left-back at The Abbey.

MICK HEATHCOTE (defender) – Mick began his career at Middlesbrough but made his Football League debut after joining neighbours Sunderland. However, he established himself at Shrewsbury Town before joining United for £150,000 in 1991. Mick operates at centre-half or right-back.

DANNY O'SHEA (defender) – Danny began his career as an apprentice at Highbury, but joined Exeter City after making six first team appearances. He joined Southend United for £5,000 in 1985 and spent four seasons at Roots Hall. Two years later he joined United on a free transfer and played an integral part in the club's rise from the Fourth Division.

TONY DENNIS (midfield) – Tony had spells with Exeter, Bideford, Taunton and Slough before joining Cambridge United for £15,000 in February 1989. A tough tackling midfielder, he has been a regular in the United side since last season.

CHRIS LEADBITTER (midfield) – A former Grimsby Town apprentice, Chris played regular league football once he had moved to Hereford United. He joined Cambridge in August 1988 and has been a versatile member of the squad, being able to play in most positions.

GARY CLAYTON (midfield) – Gary was bought from Doncaster Rovers in 1987 for £10,000, having previously played for Rotherham, Gainsborough and Burton Albion. During his non-league days, Gary represented England at semi-professional level. JOHN FRANCIS (midfield) – John joined Cambridge in August 1992 from Burnley. Another player who started his career at non-league level, he played for Emley before moving to Sheffield United. Unable to gain a regular place at Bramall Lane, he joined Burnley, whom he helped to the Fourth Division title last season.

STEVE CLARIDGE (forward) – Steve began his career at Portsmouth, but dropped into non-league football with Weymouth. He resurrected his league career with Aldershot and made 62 appearances, before joining Cambridge for £75,000 in 1990. He joined the Hatters last July, but 15 appearances later he found himself back at the Abbey Stadium.

STEVE BUTLER (forward) - Steve made a name for himself as a prolific goalscorer with Maidstone United before joining Watford in 1991. Following the signings of Furlong and Charlery, Steve found himself surplus to requirements at Vicarage Road and joined Cambridge for an undisclosed fee in December 1992.

GARY ROWETT (forward) – A former YTS trainee, Gary signed professional forms for United in July 1991. He made an immediate impact in the side, scoring on his debut at Millwall in September 1991.
MICHAEL CHEETHAM (forward) – A former member of the British Army Signal Regiment, Michael was bought out of the forces in 1988. After being unable to secure a first team spot at Portman Road, Michael joined United on a three month loan which resulted in a permanent transfer.

MEET THE BOSS

orn in Birmingham in 1957. Ian Atkins started his playing career at Shrewsbury Town in 1975, making over 270 appearances for Gay Meadow club. He then had a spell with Sunderland before joining Everton and played during the season the Blues won the League Championship and the European Cup Winners' Cup. He moved on to Ipswich Town in 1985, before returning to Birmingham, to play for City, where he made over 100 appearances.

Ian then embarked on his first job in management with a player/manager role at Colchester United, but the lure of the Midlands took him back to St Andrews to join up with Terry Cooper as his assistant. Ian took over at the Abbey Stadium in December 1992 following the departure of John Beck.

Debut appearance the climax to a fine season for David

PLAYER INTERVIEW WITH DAVID GREENE

9-year-old defender David Greene made his Town debut at Grimsby Town earlier this month. Although the Hatters lost the match, for David, it was an experience he wants to sample again.

David had previously made two nonplaying substitute appearances for the Town earlier in the season at Cambridge and Peterborough, but admits he was surprised to be called up for action at Grimsby Town. Illness to Trevor Peake paved the way for the Luton-born Eire under-21 international to make his mark in the first-team.

"I didn't even have time to be nervous," he stated. "I only knew that I was playing about an hour-and-a-half before the match, so I didn't have time to really think about the game. Once I had a warm up on the pitch, I felt ready for action."

The Hatters struggled to match their high-flying neighbours and found it difficult to impose themselves on the game. The Grimsby forward line looked particularly sharp, which David was expecting.

He said: "I think the speed of the game is the biggest difference between reserve and first-team football. Grimsby's forwards were fast and I had to be alert at all times. Nevertheless, I think I coped adequately enough in the first-half."

As the game progressed, David inevitably found it increasingly difficult to cope with the pace and developed cramp. He was eventually substituted and was disappointed with the way the second period went.

"I was not particularly pleased with my second-half performance," he continued. "Once I got cramp I struggled and would have liked to have lasted the whole match.

"Looking back though, I really enjoyed being involved and hope I get my opportunity again soon. Saying that though, John Dreyer and Trevor Peake have had an outstanding season so I know my opportunities this season will be limited. I must continue to work hard at my game and hope that when my chance does come along again, I can keep it and stay in the team."

David's progress is a fine example to other youngsters at the club hoping to make the grade. Last season he was a regular in Terry Westley's youth side and six months later he has sampled first team football. However, he admits that playing international footbll has also progressed his career.

He said: "Without doubt playing for Ireland has improved my game. The standard at under-21 level is good and technically some of the opposition I have come up against has been excellent. Playing against Spain was a recent example of this.

"Being selected regularly for international duty has definitely given me confidence which is a big part of my game."

Schoolboy's dream appearance at Wembley

AROUND THE TOWN

CONGRATULATIONS ANDREW

We extend our congratulations to Town schoolboy and Hitchin Boys School pupil Andrew Fortiadis, who represented the England Schoolboys Under-15 side in their recent televised game with Scotland at Wembley Stadium.

Andrew, who had only passed a fitness test shortly before the game, came on as a secondhalf substitute and made an immediate impact, creating a couple of good chances.

"It was a great experience for Andrew," said youth development officer Paul Lowe. "He was playing slightly out of position on the left when he came on, but had several shots in a short spell. I would to like thank Andy McDade for helping Andrew through his hamstring injury beforehand and Julian James and Marvin Johnson for giving him a fitness test prior to the game."

LOOK AFTER THE STARS OF THE FUTURE

We are looking for long/short term accommodation for YTS players for the 1993/94 season and also temporary accommodation for schoolboy trialists during the school holidays (Easter, Christmas, Summer).

We would prefer offers to come from the Warden Hills/Barton Hills area of Luton and landladies would receive payment for the players staying. We must emphasise that family atmosphere, friendship and a relaxed environment are of utmost importance.

Please contact: Paul Lowe, Youth Development Officer, Luton Town FC, 1 Maple Road, Luton, Beds, LU4 8AW or telephone (0582) 411622.

PHILIP EQUALS GOALSCORING RECORD

With the Town drawing 0-0 with Swindon Town last Wednesday night. March 17, our leading goalscorer Philip Gray failed to break a record of goals scored in consecutive matches. His goal at Grimsby Town on March 13 was his sixth goal in consecutive games, which equalled a record shared by Jesse Pye in 1952 and Joe Payne in 1936.

WELCOME DARREN

Today we welcome defender Darren Salton back to Kenilworth Road for his first visit to the club since his car accident in November. Darren is now recovering well and we send him warm congratulations following the announcement of his engagement to Luton girl Sarah Barnes.

Ioan spell extended at Kenilworth Road Iasi Thursday (March 18). The new deal left manager David Pleat delighted. He said: "The extension gives Kerry the chance to resume his fruitful partnership with Philip Gray." On the Chris Brooks, who joined the club last sum mer from Ilkeston Town.

Previous encounters fail to capture the imagination

aving only entered the Football League in 1970, it is hardly surprising that Cambridge United are paying only their fifth visit to Kenilworth Road this afternoon.

The first league clash took place here on September 23, 1978 and a crowd of 10,801 saw Brian Stein give us an early lead, only for ex-Town player Alan Biley to level the score from the penalty spot in the second-half.

Equally uninspiring was the return game at the Abbey the following February when the two defences dominated with a 0-0 scoreline the only likely result.

Cambridge were the first visitors to Kenilworth Road in 1979/80 and a goal from David Moss secured a breakthrough but that man Biley again saw to it that United returned with a point. This time the return marked a change in the Town's fortunes with a win finally being recorded.

The Town were leading the Division Two table by the following November, but the trip to Cambridge was seen as a test in view of the way the previous meetings had ended. We need not have worried, however, as goals from Bob Hatton after 58 minutes and another from David Moss three minutes later from the penalty spot set up an important win.

Biley maintained his record by netting a consolation just before the end.

We eventually missed out on promotion by a whisker that season, but by the time of our next meeting with Cambridge, Division One was furthest from our thoughts as we were struggling at the wrong end of the table. A dismal run of results meant that avoiding defeat was vital but returning with a win achieved, for a large part of the game, with only ten men proved to be the turning point in the season.

Moss gave the Town the lead after 20 minutes, from the spot again after he had been tripped, but Cambridge equalised shortly afterwards when George Reilly scrambled the ball over the line. Surprisingly, we went ahead shortly after half-time when Clive Goodyear was perfectly placed to head home a freekick from Moss for his first-ever league goal.

Back came Cambridge for a second equaliser and after one onslaught, Luton goalkeeper Jake Findlay was so badly winded following a strong challenge by Reilly that he had to be carried off despite a hold up of over six minutes.

Mal Donaghy took over in goal and as the substitute had already been used, we had to face the final 25 minutes with only 10 men. As so often happens in these situations, the ten men played like 12 and Donaghy had only one shot to stop before Stein caught the Cambridge rearguard on the break to lob a third Luton goal in the final minute.

The home game in March 1982 saw a ten-man Cambridge defence keep out everything the Town could throw at them and with the minutes ticking away another stalemate looked the likely outcome. Justice was done, however, when a rocket shot from skipper Brian Horton secured a vital win.

The final game in the series took place at Cambridge a month later when over 4,000 Town supporters swelled the crowd to a best of the season 8,815. The match itself was a disappointment with the Town never allowed to get into their stride. The game ended 1-1 with the only bright spot being Wayne Turner's first league goal.

Helping the most important people in football

Football is much more than a game of 90 minutes. Every day clubs throughout Britain are providing recreational and sporting opportunities for their local communities.

Much of this has been achieved with the help of the Football Trust. As part of its commitment to Football, The Trust has granted £4M to set up the National Football and Community Development Scheme.

Bringing club and community together, Trust-backed initiatives have provided a variety of local amenities, including:

- Artificial pitches for local teams
- Coaching for youngsters
- Support for women's football
- Facilities for people with disabilities
 The Football Trust is helping the game at all levels.

Match Report

Luton Town 0 Millwall 4 Southern Junior Floodlight Cup semi-final, Monday, March 22, 1993.

The Town's youth side held out for a long time against a strong Millwall side, but finally succumbed to the young Lions on a heavy pitch. Coach Terry Westley was obviously disappointed at the outcome. "The first goal was vital," he said. "We needed to get on the scoresheet first, which would have changed the outcome of the match. Once they took a 2-0 lead, the game looked false as we chased the game and left ourselves exposed. But full credit must go to Millwall who looked very strong. Hopefully our players will have learned from the game."

Team: Watkins, Philp, Rioch, Power, McLaren, Skelton, Woolgar, Ryan, hartson, Butler, Woodsford. Subs: Simpson, Campbell.

Luton Town 3 Ipswich Town 2 Neville Ovenden Football Combination, Tuesday, March 16, 1993.

Our reserve team extended their unbeaten run to four games with a 3-2 victory over Ipswich Town. The game left coach Wayne Turner pleased with his side, especially the performance of Tony Thorpe. "Tony was a constant threat with his forward runs from midfield and deserved his two goals," he said. "Apart from five 'mad' minutes after half-time, when we allowed Ipswich to score two soft goals, we were always in control of the game."

Team: Petterson, Philp, Rioch, Harvey, Campbell, Linton, Ryan, Thorpe 2, Hartson, Benjamin 1, Gentle. Subs: Murray, Flain.

HAVE YOU VISITED THE "HATTERS" YET?

If you are a season ticket holder and have not yet done so, why not pay it a visit either before or after the game today, for a bar snack and a drink?

WELCOME TO OUR SPECIAL FRIENDS

Today the club has joined forces with one of our executive box holders, British Gas, to bring a group of young people with learning and physical disabilities from the Lea Manor Youth Centre to the game.

The club are delighted to have as a guest in one of our executive boxes, Mr Leonard Chapman who, at the ripe old age of 101, must be our oldest supporter. He has been a Luton fan since the early 1930's when he moved to the town We hope you all have an enjoyable day..

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Today we welcome David Forsey, who is celebrating his 10th birthday with family and friends in executive box 25. We also welcome John McLoughlin who is celebrating his seventh birthday with his family in executive box 4.

Anachem supply Laboratory Equipment to companies and universities involved in biomedical research. Their guests today include customers from the University of Cambridge and Biotechnology companies from the surrounding area. As many of these customers are involved in genetic research, we should ask them to clone a few star players.

We also welcome Mr and Mrs Goodwin of F&T Goodwin Ltd and their guests.

Both of the above companies are valued, regular sponsors of our matches and we thank them for their continued support and hope that they have a very enjoyable day with us.

SORRY M'LUD

Our apologies go to Simpkins Solicitors of Baldock and Sandy for the technicolour production error which meant they were not highlighted as Des Linton's sponsor in our last match day magazine.

TOWN CARD BRINGS A SMILE

Dear Sir.

I would like to thank Mr Pleat and the Luton Town squad for signing a 'get well' card for my son-in-law Steve Whitehead. He was surprised and delighted to receive the card and the team's recent good run has been an added bonus.

Luton Town has now gained a new follower as I will also be rooting for you from now on!

Wendy Mead, 27 Denmark Close, Corby, Northants NN18 9EH.

PRAISE INDEED FOR THE HATTERS

Dear Sir,

On attending the match at Luton on March 17, I felt I had to write and congratulate your club on the hospitality that was shown to Swindon supporters which included the stewards, police, and Luton supporters. May I also mention the cleanliness of your toilets - a real feather in your caps.

I have travelled to all away matches over the past two years and may I say how pleasant it was to be treated as a human being and not like an animal.

So thanks to everyone connected with Luton Town and I sincerely hope I will pay another visit to the club in the near future.

Olive Holden, 16 Medina Way, Swindon, Wilts SN2 6NW.
