We must stay calm to succeed

MANAGER'S VIEWPOINT BY DAVID PLEAT

Welcome to West Ham United: their players, supporters and officials. Tonight's game promises some excitement. We were all very deflated to lose a late goal in our last home game with Wolverhampton Wanderers.

John Dreyer claims that he was fouled by Bull which led to his clear run at goal, and a disappointing finish for our efforts on the night when some neat football took us into good positions.

Mike Stowell was outstanding on occasions for the visitors but we are not looking as though we can score goals from other areas than Phil Gray. Prior to this game we must be looking to emphasise the need to get players into goal-scoring positions coming from deep. The improvement of all the teams in the lower reaches means that there is a tremendous end of season challenge. I have said before: it is the teams that keep most calm that will win through.

Prior to the Swindon game we had lost only five starts out of the last 22 games, a record which would have helped us make significant progress up the league had we not drawn on so many frustrating occasions. The positive signs as we enter the last lap is that we are relatively injury free. We hope to continue Kerry Dixon's loan and there is only one possible suspension ahead.

We have recently inter-changed our small squad in order to give one or two different players a break. Scott Oakes has been suffering with a shin complaint and he is finding it uncomfortable getting through 90 minutes.

Because of the finances at the club it has not been possible to engage in the normal end-of-season contractual negotiations with several players. It is vital that we are able to secure the players we wish to stay, as we attempt to stabilise our situation. Being positive, there are only around half-a-dozen fewer teams in the league who have lost less games than ourselves. We must, in the last four games, transfer these tight games into narrow wins. Only then will we be able to semi-enjoy a couple of summer months ahead.

It will be a busy time, the youth team go to Den Haag on May 21 for an under-20 tournament and on May 28, the under-19's compete at Brest in France. We will also be competing in the Evening Standard 5-a-side on May 10. This is a re-arranged date because of re-scheduling of a couple of Football League matches. I am hoping it is not going to be a summer of defending our club at tribunal's. I cannot foresee, at the moment, the possibility of any players coming in, but I am still desperately hopeful that our Board can rearrange affairs so that we are able to boost our squad.

In recent weeks we have secured on contracts, five younger players who I believe could be part of our club's future. Three of these players have already represented their country at youth level: Aaron Skelton (England), John Hartson (Wales) and David Green (Republic of Ireland); Jamie Campbell and Martin Williams have also resigned.

Enjoy tonight's game. We need your support, get behind ~~the~~ team.

Junior Hatters re-launch for season 1993-94

JUNIOR HATTERS RE-LAUNCH BY GARY HOOPER

At a press launch held at Kenilworth Road, the Junior Hatters club for junior Luton Town supporters was re-launched for season 1993-94.

"From the start of the 1993/94 season, each junior membership card that is purchased will make every young supporter a Junior Hatter's Club member," said Community Liaison Officer Gary Hooper.

He continued: "It is hoped that by providing a modern, forward-thinking and interesting club for its younger members, Luton Town Football Club will be demonstrating to its supporters a commitment to the future.

"The youngsters of today will become the adult supporters of tomorrow."

Membership to the club will only cost the initial £2.00 for your card and membership of the Junior Hatters will offer:-

- A credit card-style membership card which will enable the holder to receive special discount offers from the club and from local retail shopping outlets.

- A membership package upon joining the Junior Hatters in 1993/94.

- A bi-monthly newsletter which will have details of forthcoming events, quizzes, player interviews and details of other promotional events.

- The chance to play for the Junior Hatters football team at home and away matches.

- An opportunity to be a mascot at home matches.

- A birthday card from the club.

- The opportunity to go to a new "Saturday Club" before home matches and have coaching, amusements, video games, pre-match lunch and tickets to the match.

- Player evenings and an annual Junior Hatters Christmas Party.

A new committee has been formed which will provide a varied programme of activities for the enjoyment of all, thus making the Junior Hatters club a busy and better organisation for its younger supporters.

"As part of this new commitment, Luton Town are pleased to offer all children under 11 a special offer for the new season," continued Gary. "Any child under 11 can purchase a season ticket for £25.00 in the Kenilworth Stand's new junior/family seating area. However, applications must be in by August 1, 1993 as there is limited availability.

To coincide with this special offer, there will be the opening of Luton Town's new Junior/Family Room under the Kenilworth Road stand, providing new facilities for the club's juniors through Jewson's Fund and the Football Trust.

"These new improvements will only enhance the club's commitment to a family-spirited club, following the launch earlier this year of our Community Programme," ended Gary.

If you require further information, please contact Gary Hooper on (0582) 411622.

Hillborough School re-visit our community scheme

Tonight's guests, Hillborough Junior School from Luton are here courtesy of our community scheme sponsored by Universal Salvage Auctions (USA), the league leaders in motor salvage auctions, and associate sponsors Kenning Car and Van Rental.

On behalf of Luton Town Football Club, Universal Salvage Auctions and Kenning, we hope you have a very enjoyable evening.

Hillborough Junior School was the very first school to enter our community scheme shortly before Gary Hooper, the Community Liaison Officer, was appointed earlier this season. "We put our names down again, for this match earlier in the season before it was realised how popular the scheme would become," said headmaster John Williams. "Since Gary has taken over the running, it has grown from strength to strength."

John continued: "The response to the scheme has been tremendous. When I originally became involved with the Club in setting up the scheme, I don't think anybody realised that it would take off so well.

"The Luton Town versus West Ham games are always very exciting matches, they hold very lucky memories. The first match I took my twin sons to was a Luton/West Ham game, which we won 4-0 at home. Let's hope this luck keeps up.

"All the children are between the ages of seven and 11 and are very excited about this evening's three matches. We wish them all the best of luck.

Hillborough School will also be one of the first to make use of the new 'Learning Through Football' initiative, being launched by Gary Hooper later this month. The courses will take place at Kenilworth Road and children will be taught a wide range of topics with each lesson revolving around football. For further information please contact Gary Hooper at the Club.

■ This evening we welcome the directors, management, players and supporters of West Ham United to Kenilworth Road.

■ It has been decided that our last home reserve games of the season will be played here at Kenilworth Road. As regular supporters will know, we have had the use of Leighton Town's ground for most of this season's fixtures. This was due to the problems with our own pitch earlier in the season and the necessity to reduce the number of games being played on it.

■ I would like to take this opportunity of thanking the directors and management of Leighton Town for the help, assistance and hospitality extended to us during our visits to Leighton. It has been much appreciated and has helped us over a difficult period.

Drawn games must be replaced by victories

CAPTAINS' LOG BY TREVOR PEAKE

Our results last week showed that although we are not losing, teams below us are continuing to pick up points. It is therefore important that we start turning one point into three to make sure we do not get drawn into trouble.

The game against Watford was always going to be a tight affair. Derby games always are. No-one likes to give anything away and both defences were in mean mood. It was 100 miles-per-hour football, which did not suit our style of football. Nevertheless, we came away undefeated, which I suppose we must have been reasonably satisfied with.

The game against Wolves last Wednesday was a different story. We were bitterly disappointed not to have taken all the points. In the first-half we looked comfortable and created enough chances to have won by two or three.

We more than deserved to take the lead when we did, but our concentration seemed to wander for a while and we were caught out a couple of times by their quicksilver forwards. When they did break through for their goal, John Dreyer was certain that he was fouled by Steve Bull. Even so, we should have won the game. We were disappointed.

Tonight's game is another in a line of difficult fixtures for the side. West Ham have proved that they are one of the strongest and most consistent teams this season. Hopefully, we have caught them at a bad time with injuries and suspensions and we can use that to our advantage.

West Ham are sure to bring a vociferous crowd with them tonight. Let's here the same from our supporters. Your loud support helped against Wolves. Let's here the same tonight.

Trevor makes a run into the heart of the opposing defence at Watford earlier in the month.

Enjoy the game.

Hammers hoping for repeat performance

WEST HAM UNITED F.C. 1992-93

■ West Ham United visit Kenilworth Road this evening, looking to consolidate their second-place position in the First Division table. They have shown grit and determination this season - alongside the flair which the Hammers are known for - which has seen the side remain a constant threat to Newcastle United's grip on the championship.

■ This season has been another chapter in the recent turbulent history of West Ham. They have flirted with the old First and Second Divisions on a number of occasions during the last ten years and will be hoping that history repeats itself like 1991. That was the last time the Hammers were pushing for promotion to the top-flight and despite a nail-biting finish, were promoted in second place behind Oldham Athletic. Many of the players who were prominent in that campaign are still regulars in the Hammers' squad and manager Mr Bonds will be hoping that the side's experiences on that occasion will help the side through the testing, final phases of this season.

■ However, a spate of injuries and suspensions in recent weeks has made their task more difficult than had been anticipated. The character of the side has also come into question, but the resolve appears to be there. This was highlighted in the recent match at Birmingham City, where two goals in the final three minutes secured a 2-1 victory. "Defeat would have made our challenge an uphill battle," said coach Harry Redknapp. "We have to consider every option now in the light of our injuries and suspensions. It's not about how we play from now on, but grinding out results."

■ West Ham United were originally formed as Thames Ironworks F.C. in 1895 by employees of this shipbuilding yard. Short of funds, the club was wound up in June 1900 and re-launched a month later as West Ham United. In 1920 the Hammers were finally elected to the Football League and drew their first match, in Division Two, 1-1 with Lincoln City. West Ham have won the F.A. Cup on three occasions, in 1964, 1975 and 1980; the European Cup Winners' Cup in 1965 and the Division Two title in 1958 and 1981.

HAMMERS ON PARADE

LUDEK MIKLOSKO (goalkeeper) - Czechoslovakian international goalkeeper, Ludek joined West Ham from Banik Ostrava for £300,000 in December 1989. 'Ludo' was voted Hammers' Player of the Year last season.

KENNY BROWN (defender) - The son of former Hatter Ken Brown, Kenny signed a full contract with West Ham for £175,000 in 1991. He started his career with Norwich City in 1986, before establishing himself in the right-back position at Plymouth Argyle.

JULIAN DICKS (defender) - Julian joined the Hammers from Birmingham City for £300,000 in 1988. A tenacious tackler, he has represented England at 'B' level against Czechoslovakia and the CIS last March and April.

STEVE POTTS (defender) - Steve made his Hammers debut in 1985 and has since gone on to make over 200 appearances for the east London club. A versatile player, he can perform at centre-back, right-back or in midfield.

TONY GALE (defender) - Tony rose through the junior ranks at Fulham, making his debut v Charlton in 1977. He became an England under-21 international before joining West Ham for £200,000 in 1984. Tony's Football League appearance record is well beyond the 500 mark.

COLIN FOSTER (defender) - Colin began his career at Leyton Orient, where he made over 170 appearances, before joining Nottingham Forest. After three full seasons at the City Ground, he joined the Hammers for £750,000 in September 1989.

MARTIN ALLEN (midfield) - Now in his fourth season at Upton Park after his £600,000 move from QPR, Martin started his career at Loftus Road in 1980. He made his league debut against the Hatters in 1985 and went on to make 135 appearances for Rangers before his transfer. Martin is a former England schoolboy international.

IAN BISHOP (midfield) - Ian started his career at Everton, but made his league debut on loan at Crewe in 1984. His career took off at Bournemouth, before Manchester City signed him for £750,000 in 1988. He joined the Hammers the following season as part of the deal which took Mark Ward to City.

PETER BUTLER (midfield) - Peter joined West Ham United from Southend United for £170,000 in August 1992. He began his career with Huddersfield Town and had limited opportunities with Cambridge United (loan) and Bury before establishing himself back at Cambridge. He joined Southend in 1988.

DAVID SPEEDIE (forward) - Southampton striker David is currently enjoying a loan period at Upton Park. A much-travelled striker, he has seen service with a variety of clubs, including Chelsea, Liverpool and Blackburn. David is a Scottish international.

TREVOR MORLEY (forward) - Trevor has made impressive strides at Upton Park this season and is currently the club's leading goalscorer. He started his career as a prolific striker at Northampton, before moving on to Manchester City in 1988. Two years later he was on his way to West Ham as part of the Ward/Bishop deal.

KEVIN KEEN (forward) - A former England schoolboy international, Kevin is now in his seventh season at Upton Park. He made his debut against Liverpool in 1986 but took a couple of seasons before he became a regular in the Hammers' line-up. Some fans may remember that his father, Mike, used to play for the Town.

MARK ROBSON (forward) - Mark started his career at Exeter City, where he made his debut in 1986. After only one season in Division Four he was snapped up by Tottenham Hotspur, where he only made a limited number of appearances. He joined the Hammers last year.

MEET THE BOSS

Billy Bonds started his footballing career with Charlton Athletic in 1964. He made an immediate impact in the Valiants defence and three years later joined the Hammers for £50,000.

At Upton Park he became a folkhero, collecting FA Cup winners' medals in 1975 and 1980 after succeeding the late Bobby Moore as Hammers' captain in 1973.

Over 500 appearances after making his West Ham debut, Billy decided to hang up his boots at Upton Park at the age of 41. He was rewarded with two testimonials, but remained at Upton Park by becoming first-team manager. He took over from Lou Macari in 1990 and gained promotion in his first season in charge. After relegation from the old First Division last season, it looks like 'Bonzo' will be returning to the top-flight - ably assisted by Harry Redknapp - again in August.

PLAYER INTERVIEW WITH PAUL TELFER

Paul Telfer has established himself this season as a regular in the Town's midfield. However, in recent weeks he has been filling in at right-back and is more than happy to operate from there.

An illness to Julian James during our match with Bristol Rovers gave Paul his first taste of life as a defender. He slotted in to the position well and used his impressive passing ability to good use. Although Paul sees himself as a midfielder, he is happy with his form at right-back.

"I don't mind playing there at all, as long as it helps the team out," stated Paul. "I had no qualms about switching back in that game against Bristol Rovers and settled down pretty quickly. With John and Trevor at the back, they gave me the confidence and encouragement I needed."

Following the Town's defeat at Millwall, and with Julian out through suspension, Paul reclaimed his place at right-back during the Town's 2-0 victory at Cambridge. That result emphasised the grit and determination in the side at present and Paul turned in a competent performance.

"The advantage of playing in defence over playing in midfield is that you can see everything ahead of you. You can see everything that is happening. The only trouble I have is that I am over-eager to join up in attack, but Trevor and John put the reins on me to make sure I don't do it too often!"

Paul's defensive duties continued at Vicarage Road in the 0-0 derby clash against Watford earlier this month. He again turned in a stable performance and now appears to have established himself in defence as the season enters a critical stage.

"We face a tricky run to the end of the season, with some difficult away games and, like I said earlier, I'm happy to remain in defence if it will help the team out."

"I have confidence in my ability in the position and it has also given the manager the option of playing Chris Kamara in the midfield ahead of me. If selected I am sure he will give the side the experience, encouragement and determination which will be needed."

"Our most difficult games appear to be away from home, but we have shown that our away form is pretty good and we have gone to difficult places and have won. We are confident and we will stay up."

Hatters versus Hammers clashes down the years

BACK TRACKING BY ROGER WASH

Although matches between the two sides go back to the turn of the century in the Southern League, it was not until 1937 that we first met for Football League points.

Fresh up from Division Three, the Town entertained West Ham on 23rd October 1937 when a downpour turned the game into a farce although the crowd of 17,757 saw both sides score twice. Albert Dawes and Ted Vinall, with his first goal for the club, scored for the Town.

The return fixture was a poignant occasion marking the final game in Luton colours of Joe Payne. He failed to bow out in a blaze of glory as the clash finished scoreless.

Payne's heir apparent,

Hugh Billington, made his debut for the Town in the game at Kenilworth Road the following season, which was lost 2-1. Bill Redfern scored the only goal in the return although West Ham were down to ten men for the second-half in the days before substitutes.

After the war and leading up to our eventual promotion in 1955 the matches were fairly even with neither side gaining the upper hand but two major milestones were recorded along the way. Bob Morton, who was to become the Town's appearance record holder, made his debut at Upton Park in 1948-1949 while Gordon Turner our record goalscorer recorded his first goals for the club in the home fixture in 1951-1952.

The latter game was remarkable in as much that the Town beat West Ham 6-1 on Boxing Day 1952, having lost 3-0 at Upton Park the previous day. The Hammers team was the same on both occasions.

Although West Ham followed us into Division One in 1958, the meetings were short-lived as we were relegated two years later. The Hammers actually took the dubious distinction of being our final visitors in 1959-1960 as we "signed off".

The next meetings were instantly forgettable clashes during our brief stay in Division One in 1974-1975 and it was not until the latter end of that decade that regular fixtures became the norm. In 1978-79 West Ham achieved the "double" at our expense although the 4-1 home reversal still rankles with those who were there as the scoreline certainly bore no resemblance to the pattern of play.

Revenge was ours two years later as West Ham stormed to promotion losing only four games along the way. Two of those defeats were against ourselves with the first coming on the opening day of the season at Upton Park as David Moss scored two late penalties to take the shine off the occasion. It will be remembered that the Hammers paraded the FA Cup around the pitch before the start of the game and then proceeded to give the Town the runaround for an hour.

The return, three months later, saw the Town take an early 2-0 lead through goals from Brian Stein only for the visitors to storm back and level the score shortly after half-time. The winner came five minutes from the end via the trusty boot of David Moss to send the crowd of 17,031 home happy.

Match Report

Millwall 2 Luton Town 1
Neville Ovenden Football Combination,
Monday, March 29, 1993.

The Town's reserve side lost their second successive match at the Den against a very experienced and high-flying Millwall team. The result was a gallant effort by the side and left coach Wayne Turner relatively pleased. "Millwall had the experience with new loan signings Tommy Gaynor (Nottingham Forest) and Danny Wallace (Manchester United) in their side," he said. "An even first-half sprung to life when Wallace netted for Millwall, but we equalised when Tony Thorpe ran on to score an outstanding goal. Despite some fine brave defending by Greene and Skelton, and some fine saves by Sommer, Kerr sealed the game with a late goal."

Team: Sommer, Linton, Harvey, Thorpe 1, Greene, Skelton, Murray, Campbell J, Hartson, Benjamin, Flain. Subs: Ryan, Rioch.

Luton Town 0 Crystal Palace 0
Neville Ovenden Football Combination,
Monday, April 5, 1993.

Another game against London opposition saw the Town draw a closely-fought game with the Eagles. "We started very brightly, with patient and precise build-up play," said Turner. "In the second-half it became a battle with us playing against the wind, but we defended strongly and deserved our clean sheet." Team: Sommer, Linton, Rioch, Thorpe, Greene, Campbell J, Ryan, Harvey, Benjamin, Flain, Gentle. Subs: Hartson, Murray.

A 'MARVELLOUS' DONATION FOR CANCER RESEARCH

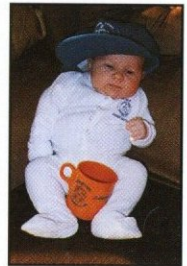

Dear Sir,
 May I, on behalf of everyone at the Imperial Cancer Research Fund, thank Luton Town Football Club and its supporters for the marvellous donation of £939.78 that was raised in memory of Bobby Moore. It really was very kind of you to organise a collection and to get the Luton Lions involved.

I am pleased to say that, to date, approximately £115,000 has been raised throughout the UK from our Appeal. Such generosity will certainly play a vital role in ICRF's fight against cancer.

Jane Barrington, Area Appeals Manager, Imperial Cancer Research Fund.

POTENTIAL HAMMER BECOMES A HATTER

Dear Sir,
 Please find enclosed a photograph of Jordan Grindal from Letchworth, aged eight weeks. Jordan was born on November 10, the son of an avid West Ham fan, but he became a Junior Hatter on December 3, thanks to the hot bed of Town support amongst his dad's mates!

As you can see, he's got his Town hat, Hatters babygrow and Junior Hatters mug in this shot taken at Christmas.

Mrs Grindal, 10 Chaucer Way, Hitchin, Herts, SG4 0NU.
