

(5) Before transler: Programme 15: Last season: 28 COCA COLA CUP

Laten lost on penalties
APPEARANCES: Two each by Sommer, James, Greene

PLAYERS are as mystified as fans by the strange nhi nomenon that is taking over Kenilworth Road. Once more I aton Town, with one of the best away records in football, dd mar a-

There were a few jeers and boos, and

Mr Foakes decided otherwise to Mitchell Thomas and Procee, at the ste end of the field, was lining up the shi fit open target when Mark Shail felled his

LUTON TOWN 0

BRISTOL CITY 1

TERRY WEST EY Kids flock to Kenilworth Club for Junior Hatters is

Pennity area with beden Telder went close a copie of times, but the Train yet not getting round the bull's often as they needed to all

Home malaise a com-pleat mystery!

REPORTS By BRIAN SWAIN PICTURES BY GARETH OWEN

ENDSLEIGH LEAGUE FIRST DIVISION

SOMMER TIME BLUES! Juerger How they stand

The big match facts

e TOWN: Sommer; Telfer, James, Peake, Johnson, Thomas (Hughes, 63 mins); Oakes, Waddock, Preece; Marshall, Dixon (Hartson 72 Scott; Bent (Partridge 71 mins), Simpson, Edwards, Tinnion; Bryan, Baird, Other subs McAree and goalkesper Kita. THE GOAL: Izn Beird, 55 mins, close-range gitter juergen Sommer falled to hold a shot by Junior Pars. Junior Bent.

a CITHER ATTEMPTS: Town six saved and 1 wide; City two saved and five wide. Corners: 13-3 @ REFEREE: Peter Foakes, Clacton: at least he PIETREE! Peter Foakes, Clarcton: at least the wine over-handed, failing to give penalties at each end of the field in the first three minutes.

 BOOKED: No-one, for only the second time in ten league games so far this season.
 ATTENDANCE: 6533, very hot of the needed to pay the blast. And give fart floor is below and accounted for the City fans, and Jumor below as accounted for the City fans, and Jumor leaf the City total was accounted for by City sans, and Junior Hatters who were let in free.

• ENTERTAINMENT: Wrecked yet again by the result, and by an attack firing blanks for the third consecutive home game. Luten fans appreciate and like the attractive passing football on view.

"First and foremost I game without trying and without scoring'. "But we have to kick ourselves for having so much of the play and failing to make it

Osman loves

playing Town

had an open gool when I was fouled. It was a definite penalty, but they got away with that SOT HE BALL . . . City's covering someoutes another form attack, with Paul Tester, on the left and also pictured inset, and form Dixon hoping to find a way through. Dwight Marshall is the man hidden by a bulky defender, with Julian James on the overlap hoping for a sniff of goal.

OUTNUMBERED AGAIN . . . Four Bristol City men converge on Luton striker Dwight Marshall Loan star Waddock set to stay for another month

DAVID Pleat was yesterday expecting of midfielder Gary Waddock. Waddock, 32, is delighted at the prospect of staying longer with his fifth rague ciub. He said: "I was pleased to come to I used for the chance to play first team "I wasn't cetting into the Bristol me being in the reserves. "I want to play league football, and being at Luton also brings me nearer transfer made permanent because I like

"I am sorry we have lost the three dominated teams, and the pressure will Youthful looking team!

learn, with some good football but

Saturday (Ham) at Luton Rigby

MORE than 600 children ity match free the atmosphere in the main stand, and the club says it

