As manager, this is my first F.A Cup-tie under lights here at The Dell and I still have the memories and feelings of what a terrific place it is for night Cup football.

With a prize at the end of it of a glamour visit to Tottenham, I'm sure you are going to see a game that will bring out everything that is best in floodlit Cup football.

I've always said this is a wonderful tournament and if our game against Luton at Kenilworth Road was a yardstick then you're in for another treat (and, finally, a result one way or the other!).

Welcome to Luton, David Pleat, and their directors, players and fans. They've been a good Cup side over recent years.

I'm writing these notes after another steady display by the team against Manchester City. But we're all very, very frustrated and disappointed that we didn't get the result we deserved against City.

I spoke long and hard to our players after the game not on the subject of ability or football prowess but on the lines of trying to put old heads on young shoulders.

I think this was the reason for us not winning. Experience is a big thing in football and the point I was trying to get over to the players is that at times, such as the final 15 minutes on Saturday, you've got to play with your brains in winding the clock down and making sure you win.

I told them that I can live with the loss of those points provided that the naivety shown in losing the last goal doesn't happen again.

That had nothing to do with actual football. It was a tactical situation. It's the same in life. Young people have to learn very quickly from their mistakes.

But we are still unbeaten after a long time, eight matches in fact.

Tonight there has to be a result. I'm sure you'll give us your usual superb backing as we all try to clinch that glamour tie at Spurs.

Enjoy the game. Get home safely.

THE MILLION POUND PLAYERS

Last year more than 40 transfer deals of £1 million or more took place involving British clubs.

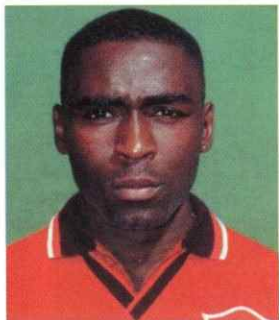

In fact, just over £130 million was spent on players in 1994 - almost £25m more than in 1993 and around £56m. higher than in 1992, with Everton's two managers (Walker and Royle) splashing out the most on new recruits - a massive £12.3m.

Kevin Keegan of Newcastle United spent £11.25m, Chairman Alan Sugar allowed Tottenham Hotspur to splash out £8.6m, Trevor Francis of Sheffield Wednesday forked out £7.7m, Wolves, from the Endsleigh Insurance First Division, laid out almost £6.2m, Kenny Dalglish's Blackburn Rovers £5.3m, Chelsea spent over £4.3m, Coventry bought players for close on £4m and Leeds United recruited £3.65m worth of talent.

Only four Premiership clubs - Crystal Palace, Queens Park Rangers, Manchester United and Southampton - failed to break through the £2m mark in their spending, while David Sullivan-owned Birmingham City (from Division Two of the E.I.L.) bought players totalling £2.3m - Blues being the 20th highest spenders in the land.

One player - Ian Taylor - was involved in two £1 m. transactions, moving first from Port Vale to Sheffield Wednesday and then from Hillsborough to Aston Villa (his current club).

Chris Sutton was the most expensive player in 1994 - leaving Premiership Norwich City for Blackburn Rovers for £5 m. which was then a new record since beaten with Andy Cole's switch from Newcastle United to Old Trafford.

The Hatters

POTTED HISTORY

Luton Town Football Club was formed in 1885 and became founder members of the Southern League in 1894, but by 1900 with poor results on the field and debts mounting because of the high costs of travel, it was decided not to stand for re-election but instead to rejoin the Southern League.

The club remained in the Southern League until 1920 when that section became Division Three of the Football League and Town narrowly missed promotion during the 1935/36 season. In that season Joe Payne scored 10 goals in his first game as a centre-forward, in a 12-0 win over Bristol Rovers.

Luton won the Championship next season, in style. Payne created another record with 55 League goals. In 1955 promotion to Division One was won on goal average. The next landmark came in 1958/59 with the first visit to Wembley in the FA Cup final. An attendance record of 30,069 was also set at the 6th round replay against Blackpool.

The final against Nottingham Forest was a disappointment, with Luton losing 2-1 and it probably marked the turning point in the club's fortunes. Within 12 months they were relegated to Division Three and relegation to Division Four came two years later, completing a six-year tumble from Wembley finalists and Division One to Division Four.

Promotion back to the top sphere eventually came in 1974, but an abysmal start in 1974/75 could not be put right by a storming finish, and the team were relegated.

After two near misses, the Division Two championship was won in 1981/82, setting another points record with only four defeats.

The club celebrated their centenary by installing an artificial surface at Kenilworth Road in the summer of 1985 which enabled the local community to make use of the facilities for many different sports.

The stadium also received a complete face-lift in 1986 together with the introduction of a "members only" scheme which dispensed with the need for fences and thus provided improved spectator facilities.

The stance on "members only" saw the Town barred from entering the Littlewoods Cup in 1986/87 but as if with a grim resolution to avenge the injustice, a highest-ever league placing of seventh was achieved that season with the Cup being won the following year, beating Arsenal in the last minute. The club's success in the Littlewoods Cup competition was repeated in 1988/89 with yet another Wembley appearance. This time the Town lost 3-1 to Nottingham Forest.

With their "members only" system and artificial surface banished, Luton entered season 1991-92 with fresh hope under David Pleat, who had rejoined the club during the summer. However they struggled all season and were finally relegated to the new First Division.

It proved to be a struggle for Pleat's young side as they came to terms with their new surroundings, but after finishing the season in 20th place, they had the platform to reach greater heights in 1993-94, and indeed embarked on a memorable F.A Cup run which took them to a Wembley semi-final against Chelsea.

LUTON TOWN

DAVID PLEAT (MANAGER)

It was at Kenilworth Road that David Pleat made a name for himself both as a player and manager. He began his playing career at Nottingham Forest but played only half-a-dozen first-team games before joining Luton in 1964. After an injury-plagued spell at Kenilworth Road he was transferred to Shrewsbury in 1967, and later played for Exeter and Peterborough before retiring in 1971. In 1974 he returned to Luton as reserve team coach. He was appointed manager in 1978, in succession to Harry Haslam, and guided Luton into Division One four years later.

In 1986 he joined Tottenham, leading them to an FA Cup final appearance before his appointment as Leicester boss in December 1987. He remained at Filbert Street until January 1991, and returned to Luton in June of that year for his third spell at the club. He took Luton to the semi-finals of the FA Cup last season.

The Luton board allowed him to discuss a possible return to Spurs in November 1994, but he turned down a general manager's role at White Hart Lane, preferring to keep day-to-day involvement with the team at Kenilworth Road.

AN INTRODUCTION TO LITTLEWOODS POOLS

Littlewoods Pools is the first sponsor of The FA Cup since the competition started in 1871, and it would be hard to find a company that has a longer or closer association with football.

Sir John Moores started Littlewoods Pools in 1923, the same year that the first FA Cup Final was played at Wembley Stadium. He began by handing out coupons outside Old Trafford, home of the present cup holders, Manchester United. The week's dividends amounted to £2 12s Od. Littlewoods is now the largest football pool with jackpots of over £2.5 million.

Having financially supported the national game for over thirty years, Littlewoods Pools is appropriate as the first sponsor of the oldest and greatest club cup competition in the world. For its part, The FA has acknowledged the company as the game's biggest financial supporter after you, the fans.

Currently, football at all levels receives over £45 million from the pools each year. As the leading pools company, Littlewoods has contributed the lion's share. In fact, Littlewoods alone has paid over £113 million to football in the last three years.

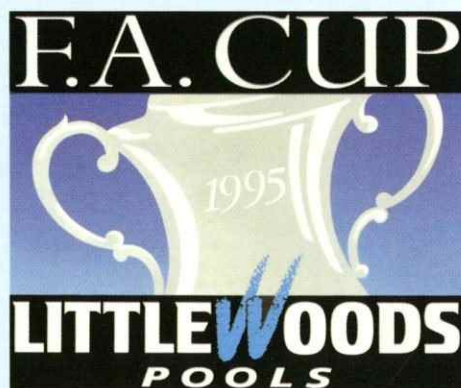

The Football Trust, which is the main beneficiary of these payments, was the brainchild of the late Mr Cecil Moores, one of Littlewoods' founders. The Trust has played a key role in ensuring that stadia have been improved in line with the recommendations laid down in The Taylor Report on ground safety.

Fans and football also benefit in many other areas from the funds provided by the pools - nearly £6 million went towards closed circuit TV, and in particular families, supporters with disabilities and female football fans.

The Football Association was only prepared to accept sponsorship from an appropriate company, and the direct financial contribution Littlewoods is making means that a close relationship is essential.

Fans across the country can celebrate the mutual benefits for football and Littlewoods that this historic agreement signifies.

SAINTS-LUTON TOWN POT-POURRI

PAST ENCOUNTERS

Prior to tonight Saints and Luton had met each other three times in the F.A. Cup - first time round eighty years ago in 1914-15, then in 1987-88 and, of course, last month at Kenilworth Road.

In a first round tie in the last season before the Great War a crowd of 11,145 here at The Dell saw Saints win 3-0 with goals from Andrews (2, 1 penalty) and Kimpton.

The spot-kick came after 15 minutes, then Andrews scored his second before half-time after completely baffling the Luton defence with a clever back-heeler which was followed by a splendid close range shot, and Kimpton rounded things off with a second-half header. Saints reached round four that term before losing 4-0 to Hull City after a replay.

In 1987-88 Luton took the honours, winning a 4th round tie 2-1 at Kenilworth Road. Saints scored first on 71 minutes through Colin Clarke but two strikes in 90 seconds by Ian Allinson and Brian Stein (83/84 mins) put the Hatters through before a 10,000 plus crowd.

Wimbledon then ended Luton's Wembley dreams in the semi-final.

And as we know the recent third meeting ended all square 1-1.

LEAGUE CUP CLASH

In March 1991, Luton knocked Saints out of the League Cup in the quarter-final, winning a replay 2-1 after extra-time at The Dell after the teams had drawn the first contest 1-1. Ricky Hill (Luton) and Glenn Cockerill scored at Kenilworth Road (11,785 were present) and here at The Dell, Danny Wallace (Saints) and Mick Harford and Hill again hit the target before 18,872 fans.

LEAGUE RECORD

Saints' record in the Football League against Luton reads as follows:

P. 54 W.21 D.17 L.16 F.94 A. 100

Both Saints and Luton have registered emphatic wins over the last six years or so. In January 1989 Luton won 6-1 at Kenilworth Road and the following season Saints won 6-3 here at The Dell, when Paul Rideout (2), Rod Wallace (2), Matt Le Tissier and Alan Shearer were on target.

Saints also beat Luton 4-3 away in 1990-91 when Le Tissier and Rod Wallace scored two goals apiece.

MANAGED BOTH CLUBS

George Kay has been on charge of both clubs. The former Bolton, Belfast Distillery, West Ham United and Stockport centre-half joined Luton as player/coach in 1928 and became manager in 1929. He moved to The Dell as team manager in 1931 and left after five years to boss Liverpool. He played in the 1923 F.A. Cup Final for the Hammers and then led Liverpool to Wembley for the F.A. Cup Final v. Arsenal in 1950.

PLAYER AND MANAGER

Chris Nicholl started his Football League career as a player with Luton in the 1960s. After a good spell with Aston Villa, he then starred in Saints' defence (1977-83, making 268 appearances) and later spent six years as manager at The Dell (1985-91). Chris is now in charge at Walsall.

Ted Liddle was a centre-half with Saints in 1905-06 and in the 1930s he managed Luton Town.

SCORED FOR BOTH CLUBS

Two ace goalscorers - Ron Davies and Kerry Dixon - are among the many players who have served with both clubs down the years. Davies - capped 29 times by Wales - scored 275 goals in 549 League games while serving with Chester, Luton, Norwich City, Saints, Portsmouth, Manchester United and Millwall. He was at The Dell from 1966 to 1973.

Dixon, who has eight England caps to his name and is still going strong with the Hatters, has so far netted 216 goals in 527 League outings for Reading, Chelsea, Saints, and Luton.

Among the other players who have been with both clubs are Paul Allen (currently on loan from Saints to Stoke City); Scottish U/23 goalkeeper Sandy Davie (Luton 1968-72, Saints 1970-72); forward Paul Gilchrist (on loan to Luton in 1969, with Saints 1972); forward Les Harfield (Saints 1968-72, Luton 1972-73); Alex McDonald (Saints 1901, Luton 1910); centre-half Forbes Phillipson-Masters (Saints 1972-74, Luton 1979) and Auggie Scott (Luton 1938-47, Saints 1947-51).

* Manny Andruszewski had a trial with Luton before joining Saints in 1982; John Bradley was a guest for Luton in wartime and played for Saints either side of the hostilities; George Shipley played in midfield for Saints (1975-77) and later had a trial with Luton, and Bobby Wearle made 48 appearances for Saints (1928-30) after having been rejected by Luton (1922-23).

DEBUTANTS

Among the Saints debutants v. Luton Town have been Bill Fursby (1894-95), Bob McLean (1906) and Des Mitchell (1951).

Steve Moran is running on to a perfectly-weighted through ball.....

But is it perfect? He's well clear of the defence, but might the advancing keeper beat him to it?

No ! Steve wins.

And shoots.

And scores.

Exciting and explosive! So exciting that it explodes me from my sleep. It's six-o-something on the morning of January 21 and I've been dreaming about the Saints again. If you're a dedicated follower of A Touch of Frost, you'll recall the advice, from that week's episode, that it's a nasty, embarrassing habit to reveal one's dreams. But you can't shame me that easily. I take it for granted that every fan dreams about his or her team. My recurrent Saints dream involves getting to The Dell and finding the team full of names I've never heard of. The Youth policy gone crazy or what?

This dream is different. It's in the present. Keeper unknown. But definitely Steve Moran. Reliving past glories. All very well, but it's Saturday morning and present glories might be on offer at The Dell - West Ham and Neil Shipperley's home debut are due.

The dream remained vivid over breakfast. Was it an omen? For Moran, read Shipperley?

I could insist that I'm not the superstitious kind, yet I know that won't sound convincing. To be a football fan is to be riddled with superstitions. But I've never believed in psychic phenomena and the interpretation of dreams - despite a chilling dream, almost 20 years ago, which forecast the funeral of somebody who was unexpectedly dying that night.

Those denials notwithstanding, the resurrection of Steve Moran was on my mind as we drove down the flooded A36. Relief came at 1.05pm, when Sport on Five announced that the game was off. So, two cheers for referee Burge. One for making a decision for which I heard not a word of abuse (hardly likely approaching the Alderbury by-pass, I admit; but no mean feat for today's beleaguered fraternity of refs). The other for ridding me of any lingering doubts that I'd been dreaming, indirectly, a Shipperley goal.

I expect Shipperley goals to belong, for quite a while, mainly to the land of dreams. That is not to cast the slightest aspersion on the Saints management or on their 20-year-old signing. The fact that, by the end of last season, he had scored only five league goals in 27 games tells me next to nothing about his potential. Is it greater or less than that of John Hartson (6 for 34 at the same stage) whom the Echo recently described as 'the next Alan Shearer'?

Steve Moran

Today's results, news & views

Kerry Dixon

('assists' as they say in the USA and Fantasy Leagues) counts for little at that age. You have to be putting it in the onion bag. Which is why I was so mightily unimpressed by Saints' signing, in the 1992 close season, of Kerry Dixon - then 31 and with a league strike-rate, for 1991-92, of 5:35. And which is why I shed no tears when he moved on - with a rate of 2:9 - to Luton.

Recently reminiscing about these Luton/Saints strikers with the editor of the Luton fanzine, Mad as a Hatter!, I was reminded of the Luton No 9 who left Kenilworth Road at the age of 21, to arrive at The Dell, via Carrow Road, three years later - in 1966.

Ron Davies - 134 league goals in 240 games for Saints. A target for Neil Shipperley? Now there's a dream for us. For Ron Davies was truly the stuff that dreams are made of.

Who knows? Remember this. Having scored a hat-trick on his full debut, Shearer played a further 76 league games before he was 21 - for just seven goals. Steve Moran was precocious: he scored 18 league goals in 1980-81, the season in which he celebrated his 20th birthday. Shearer's precociousness lay, of course, in his ability to lead the line, long before he discovered his fire-power. Shipperley's second-half performance at Luton, lifted by a nicely-taken first goal, was leadership of a weighty order - in both senses of the word. And fewer Heaney runs will go to waste now that he has somebody who can keep up with him.

If we should not expect too many goals of a 'striker' under 21, what allowances should we make as 30 looms and passes? What strike-rate should we have been expecting, as his 30th birthday approached, of former Luton striker, Iain Dowie? Let's face it, pointing to lay-offs

EURO CORNER

NO ITALIAN SOCCER

For the first time in some fifty years (certainly since the last War) there was no competitive football played in Italy over this last weekend, following the tragic death of a Genoa supporter during the Serie A game with AC Milan the previous Sunday. Even the Pope, speaking from his platform at the Vatican, declared that "Violence in football must be stopped."

Ruud Gullit, who plays for Genoa's city rivals Sampdoria, remarked; "This must be the start of a peaceful revolution. Violence is a cancer which is present not only in soccer but throughout society."

ANOTHER 'OP' FOR BAGGIO

Roberto Baggio has undergone surgery on his right knee to determine why he is still unable to play two months after being injured. His club, Juventus, said the keyhole operation confirmed that the pain Baggio was suffering has been caused by unhealed scars from a previous operation. Officials from the Turin club did not say, however, when Baggio would be fit to start training. He has not played a competitive match since the Juventus-Padova contest back in November.

ALL SQUARE

It's all square after the first leg of this season's European Super Cup encounter between Arsenal and AC Milan. The teams drew 0-0 at Highbury last Wednesday before a crowd of over 38,000.

A slimline Paul Merson made an emotional return to the Gunners; line-up after his recent cocaine problems.

The second leg takes place in Milan tonight, with perhaps the Italians now favourites to take the trophy.

GOING DUTCH

Another Dutchman is set to join Wolves following the arrival at Molineux before Christmas of rugged international defender, John De Wolf. The Midlands are now all set to sign Rob Maas from Feyenoord, who has been on trial with the First Division club for the past two weeks. The asking price is around £350,000.

EURO'S TOPSCORER IS STAYING PUT

Who was the top European scorer last season with 43 goals?

No....it wasn't Alan Shearer, Andy Cole, Romario, Weber, Sirakov or Stoichkov. In fact, it was a player from the Welsh Konica League - one David Taylor of Portmadog, who is still producing the goods for the club now managed by the former Manchester United, Everton, Stoke, Chelsea, West Brom, Brighton, Wrexham and Welsh international midfielder Mickey Thomas.

Said Taylor: "No-one's come in for me, so I've stayed with Portmadog. Why not? I've got a good job outside football and enjoy playing in the Welsh League. I'm happy with life and that's the main reason why I've not moved away from Portmadog."

PORTO GOING FOR GLORY

Bobby Robson's FC Porto easily beat Beira Mar 3-0 to stay ahead of Sporting Lisbon and Benfica at the top of the Portuguese League.

Porto now have 34 points from 19 games, but Benfica kept up the pressure with a 3-1 win over Madeira Uniao.

AJAX BOMBING ALONG

Ajax of Amsterdam are now three points clear in the Dutch League after last Sunday's 3-1 win over NAC Breda. Dutch teenage sensation Patrick Kluivert blasted in two more goals to take his seasonal tally to 15 (the Division's top scorer). Frank Rijkaard was booked and also gave away a penalty and he misses next week's crunch match against Feyenoord.

The terrible floods in Holland caused the postponement of three games, those between NEC Nijmegen and Feyenoord, Go Ahead Eagles and Twente Enschede, and Groningen v. Utrecht.

REAL STILL LEAD

Real Madrid still top the Spanish First Division - a point ahead of Deportivo La Coruna who were held to a 0-0 draw at home by Athletic Bilbao.

CAPTAIN'S CORNER

Tonight's Cup-tie should be well worth watching because I can't see it being much different to our first meeting with Luton.

That was a good, open match with both sides missing chances. All our lads are confident of doing really well in this competition and if ever there was an incentive to win tonight it's the prospect of going to Tottenham in round 5.

When you're drawn away it's always better to be playing a team who you've already beaten on their own patch. That's the way to look at it.

Having said that, you have to take things one at a time and we're all aware that Luton's away record this season is much better than at home.

Yes, they're a decent side. We'll be on our guard.

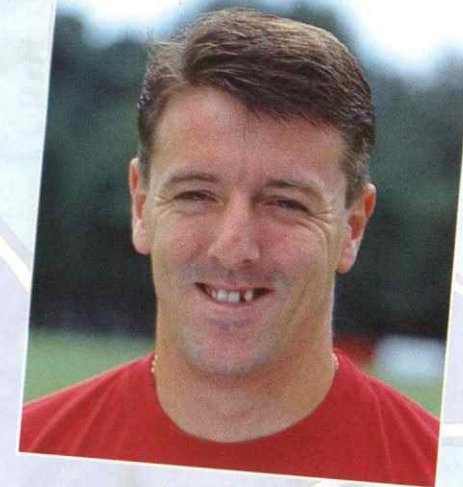

David Preece, with that sweet left foot, makes things tick in midfield and we'll have to keep a close watch on Dwight Marshall, who's lightning quick out on the wing.

Then there's Kerry Dixon. He led the line quite well in that first match and he'll get a warm reception back here at The Dell.

Really, last Saturday's match with Manchester City was like our Luton trip in that we had chances to finish them off after taking the lead.

I have to admit, though, that there was a large slice of luck with both our goals.

Tony Coton was very casual going for Simon Charlton's cross, but if the ball had already gone behind on its way over then that evened things up. There was no way the ball was in when Jeff Kenna cleared against City earlier this season.

For our second goal, I mishit a cross and the ball finished up inside the near post. Perhaps the lad on the line should have got his body in the way instead of trying to volley clear.

We were all convinced we were going to win when Bruce pulled off that great save near the end. But you never know in this game.

Incidentally, it's well done to Jeff Kenna on his call-up to the full Republic of Ireland squad. Good to see a proper Irishman there for a change!

Jeff's been one of the most consistent fullbacks in the Premiership for the past couple of seasons. Let's hope he plays against England next Wednesday.

SAINTS RESERVES

Dave Merrington

Saints Reserves, who have played only once in the past month, will be hoping to get back to winning ways in Saturday's Combination match against Norwich at The Dell.

High-riding Saints' progress has been checked by a return of one point from their last three matches.

The scheduled match against Portsmouth at Fratton Park 48 hours ago became Saints' third postponement in less than three weeks.

"It's all been rather frustrating," says coach Dave Merrington, "but there are two ways of looking at it. We've lost our continuity, but have been given more time to get players fit again."

Frankie Bennett, the speedy striker, is back in training after undergoing his second hernia operation this season. Peter Whiston is likely to be sidelined for another five weeks following knee surgery, but fellow-central defender Derek Allan is training again along with Matthew Robinson.

"The development of players like David Hughes and Paul Tisdale has been a big bonus," says Dave Merrington. "They've shown they can go into the first team and play. That means healthy competition for places.

"Injuries and suspensions in the senior squad have left our Combination team thin at times, slightly overloaded with youngsters. Our priority, though, is to have players correctly prepared to step into the Premiership side.

"All in all, I've been pleased with the Reserves team this season. We've had some smashing matches and been around the top of the table throughout.

SAINTS YOUTH

Ray Graydon

Matthew Oakley scored for Saints Youth in Saturday's 1-1 home draw with Luton in the South-East Counties League.

The goal came on 71 minutes, Oakley rattling the ball in when it was played back to put Saints in front with his fourth goal of the season.

But Luton levelled just five minutes later. Goalkeeper Darryl Flahavan handled outside the box in a defensive mix-up and Luton scored direct from the freekick.

"We were better than them all round and played some excellent football," says coach Ray Graydon. "The lads were very disappointed not to win, but they haven't yet acquired the knack of holding onto a lead and going on to win."

Saints should have pocketed both points. Simon Care, Andy Williams and Steve Basham all missed goalscoring chances.

The two Phillips, Danny and Sam, returned to the Saints line-up after illness.

Saints Team: Flahavan, Blamey, Hooks, Oakley, D. Phillips, Spedding, Basham, Carr, S.Phillips(Jansen), Care(Piper), Williams.

A 17-strong Saints Youth squad leave for Italy on Sunday for a top tournament at Viareggio, near Pisa.

Twenty-four clubs from seven countries are competing, with two sides qualifying from each of the four-team groups. Saints' tough group includes AC Milan and Napoli.

"DORIEN" MEETS THE SAINTS

Lesley Joseph, known to millions as "Dorien" in television's "Birds of a Feather," brought a dash of showbiz wit and glamour to a Saints training session the other day.

"I'd like to take Matty home with me," she giggled, "but his wife might not care for that and, anyway, I don't have a spare £10million!"

"You can keep showbiz, I'd happily keep the lads' changing-room tidy for them!"

Known on TV for her admiration of the male species, the bubbly Lesley Joseph was taking time out from appearing as Fairy Bow Bells in "Dick Whittington" which has had a highly-successful run at The Mayflower in Southampton Dressed in Saints kit, she enthusiastically joined in with Alan Ball and the lads on the training ground. Now, she's definitely a convert to footballers!

MATT POPS IN ON PETER'S FAREWELL!

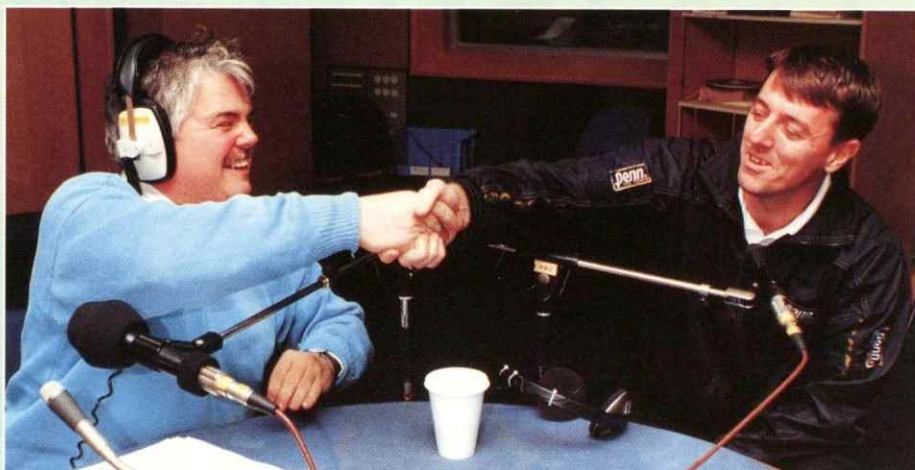

Top broadcaster Peter White was almost lost for words when Matt Le Tissier popped up on his farewell programme!

Saints fan Peter, who is blind, was into the last few minutes of his final midweek show for BBC Radio Solent when the Saints captain made his dramatic appearance at the Southampton studios. "Earlier in the programme I talked to Gary Lineker and now I've got the best footballer in England as my very last guest," he gasped. "I sensed that I was being set up, but never anything like this. I'm really thrown!"

Recovering his poise fast, he shook hands with Matt before conducting an off-the-cuff interview with his favourite footballer.

Peter White, a regular at Dell matches, has freelanced for Radio Solent since the station opened 25 years ago. He has taken up an appointment in London as the BBC's National Disability Specialist.

GET YOUR PROGRAMME!

If you missed out on buying your special '60-page' Bumper Programme on Saturday, which included a Souvenir Mid-Season Review, then write to Mike Harvey at The Dell, enclosing £1.50 and a stamped addressed envelope.

Football wins the Pools every Saturday

Every time you enter Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettlers Pools or Littlewoods Spot the Ball you are helping the game at all levels. The Football Trust administers funds from the Pools, helping clubs to improve safety and comfort.

The Trust receives some £37 million every year, all of it coming directly or indirectly from Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettlers Pools and Littlewoods Spot the Ball.

Football also receives £8 million a year for the use of fixtures on coupons and Littlewoods, the game's biggest benefactor, is the first sponsor of the FA Cup.

Up and down the country, clubs are building new grounds, stands, seating and roofing. All depend on the support of the Football Trust and on the success of the football pools.

KENNA CALL-UP

Jeff Kenna will be hoping to make his senior debut for the Republic of Ireland in next Wednesday's international against England in Dublin. "Just being named in the squad is an honour," says Saints' 24-year-old Dubliner. Jeff has already represented the Republic at schools, youth, under-21 and B level.

THE SAINTS PROGRAMME SHOP

The Saints Programme Shop is situated at the Milton Road end next to turnstile 30. The shop runs a subscription service (by mail) for Saints home and/or away programmes. Details can be obtained on any matchday.

EXECUTIVE TRIP TO LUTON

The Luton chairman and manager welcomed a group of Saints Executive Club members who travelled to Luton for the recent FA Cup fourth round match. The group were later presented with a plaque by the Luton club, the respective man-of-the-match winners, Bruce Grobbelaar and Dwight Marshall, handing it over to Val Corbett.

SAINTS 'LIVE'

Three hundred Saints supporters packed into The Dell's Executive and Social clubs to watch a "live" transmission of the FA Cup-tie at Luton 11 days ago. The whole match was shown complete with commentary, and the venture was voted a big success.

MY BOOK

Imagine a child reading a book in which they are the hero or heroine. Imagine the child having an adventure with his (or her) own mother and father, or best friend. Imagine the child's excitement at finding his favourite football team mentioned in the story.

In "I'm a football Hero" our hero dreams he is playing for England and scores a crucial goal. At school he is unfairly dropped from the football team! But all is resolved happily, and our hero scores the decisive goal and wins the cup for his school.

This "My Book" specially written title comes beautifully illustrated in full colour on every page and bound in a hard back cover. The books are produced by laser printing and the personal details blend perfectly with the basic text.
