THE TOWN will be playing in a new strip next season, and reverting to a mainly orange kit for home games. Supporters traditionally greet such announcements with loud groans, and even phrases like rip-off. On this occasion, it is a change that has been forced on the club.

Pony, whose kit has been used for the past five years, are pulling out of the market, so we had to find a new supplier.

You may recall that some time ago we asked supporters for their views on what the new strips should look like, and a variation of the orange that Harry Haslam introduced in the 1970s was the fans' favourite.

John Bailey, our sales and marketing manager, explained: "We took that survey result on board, and we think supporters will like the new style.

"Olympic Sportswear will produce it, and we have done a two-year deal with them. In home games the shirts will be mainly orange, with a blue flash down the sides, and the away kit will be mainly white, with a black flash. We will have to think about a third kit, but have not yet decided on that."

For all clubs, and in present circumstances especially the Town, the crucial requirement is to have a strip which the fans will like enough to buy from the club shop to boost income. To get an idea of what the new home gear will look like, please see the advert on pages 40 and 41.

Olympic are manufacturing the home kit first, and it is hoped it will be available by July 1.

Welcome back to the 1959 heroes

WE give heartfelt thanks to Merilyn Fussell, of Luton Town Supporters Club, for her brainwave in thinking up today's 1959 FA Cup finalists' reunion at Kenilworth Road and for her hard work in tracing all the ex-players and getting them here.

She in turn thanks Richards and Thirkell (Luton) Ltd for their help in providing traditional, genuine boaters, for our honoured guests. Thanks also to Danny Clubb, a Town fan who still attends every match with his wife, despite living in Blackpool. Allan Brown lives nearby, and was struggling for transport to Luton, and Mr and Mrs Clubb very kindly and generously volunteered to be his chauffeurs.

The old stars will be introduced to take a bow on the pitch at half time. We welcome them all and hope they enjoy meeting up again after so long.

TOP HATTERS: The three prize-winners at Luton Town Supporters Club's annual presentation night at the Kent Social Club. Tresor Kandol was the young player of the year, selected by the manager and coaches; Kelvin Davis took the top two trophies, voted player of the year by the fans and by his dressing rook colleagues, and Matthew Spring was the player of the year choice of the junior members of LTSC.

I'M BACK: Tony Thorpe milks the applause at Meadow Lane, after scoring his first goals for the Town since his return. And after the match-winning brace at Notts County, he netted another winner on Tuesday against Chesterfield.

FLAG is flying

SUPPORT from the ordinary fans continues to keep FLAG's fund-raising efforts on the ball as they try to raise money to turn LTFC into a community club. The Supporters' Club had a whip-round at their annual do on Sunday, and £500 was raised, to add to the £2,800 from the bucket collection at last week's match.

There is another collection today, and all donations will be gratefully received. One that came in this week was from the Boys Brigade at Harlington. Their marching band is in great demand, and they have donated £250 to FLAG, their fee from a recent event.

Chip off the old block

CONGRATULATIONS to Anthony McNally, our financial controller, on reaching a cup final. The son of Brendan, who is among our 1959 FA Cup guests this afternoon, Anthony has played more than 400 games for Barton Rovers, and also turns out on Sundays for St. Joseph's, along with Kerry Dixon.

St. Joe's reached the final of the FA Umbro National Sunday Cup but on Nottingham Forest's ground they were beaten on penalties by Little Paxton after being 2-1 up until stoppage time at the end of 90 minutes. McNally hit a post with a header in extra time, and netted in the penalty shoot-out but the St. Neots side won 4-3 on penalties.

Better than Watford!

THE FULL official results of the Flora London Marathon came out this week, and show that Luton Town's man in the Football Section, Paul Smith, was eighth in Division Two. More to the point, he raised around £1,500 for the hospice where his young wife died last year, including sponsorship from within Kenilworth Road and from supporters, Paul's time was 3hrs 24mins 5secs, and the Division Two winner was a Northampton fan, Robert Hobbs, in 2-59-40.

Paul asks us to point out that in Division One the Watford entrant clocked a leisurely 4-13-9, well behind our man.

News in brief

from the manager's chair

TUESDAY'S well-deserved victory over Chesterfield saw us move into the top half of the table and leapfrog over several teams who like us have put together reasonable sequences of results recently.

Before going to Notts County to win there, we had a little cause for concern regarding a possible last-ditch relegation battle following three consecutive defeats.

But two wins have banished all thoughts of that, and hopefully we can now achieve our aims of a top-half finish, do better than last season's 57 points, and overhaul Reading.

The season can be recalled as one of four distinct phases. Up until October, and set up by a good pre-season, we thought we were doing everything right. We had an excellent run of league results to establish ourselves in the top six, and made good progress in the Worthington Cup. Most importantly, we had no injury problems except for one to Paul McLaren.

Then came the October to January spell, when we struggled to maintain league form and drew too many games. The Worthington Cup run ended in defeat at Sunderland, after we were reduced to ten men, and the FA Cup defeat against Hull City at home was the worst day of the season.

Then Steve Davis left and we knew life would become more difficult. It did, and a crop of injuries started to cause problems, and more and more young players had to be blooded. Our form was too inconsistent. Our lowest point in terms of away games was at Chesterfield in mid-March, when our second half was our worst of the season. It ended a good sequence where we were always close contenders away from home.

Within a week we had gone into receivership, and thankfully everyone at the club, on and off the field, and including supporters, responded in the right manner and results picked up again.

On paper, perhaps for a club of Luton Town's tradition and reputation the season has been no more than

But think of the circumstances, and you can see the campaign in a different light. Having been a manager for 16 years and experienced more differing scenarios probably than any other manager currently in the league, I can safely say that the weeks leading up to David Kohler's decision to leave, and prior to the receivership, were the most difficult of my life. Uncertainty and indecision pervaded every corner of the club.

But going into receivership focused everyone's minds on the problems just in time. I hate to think about what might have happened if it had been done two days after the deadline instead of two days before.

After Steve Davis we had to lose Graham Alexander and Sean Evers to raise money to keep the club going, and key men like Phil Gray and Ray McKinnon went out of the side through injuries. But young players took their chances, and in certain cases have established themselves.

Eight of last year's youth team have played in our Second Division side this season, and three or four have come through to deserve their places permanently. No team in this division is younger than ours, with the possible exception of Millwall. Certainly none has fewer senior professionals available.

We had not needed to bring in loan players over the first half of the season, but in the second that avenue proved extremely fruitful. Sean Dyche and Gerry Harrison were excellent additions to the squad, and now Tony Thorpe is again beginning to show the outstanding ability we always knew he had.

If these can be added to the ever-developing young players, and some of our older ones can remain free from injuries, there is no doubt we can make a play-off place next season.

But we are still in receivership, which may put severe financial restraints on us. and retaining such a squad may not be possible. Obviously I hope the situation will be resolved quickly, before decisions have to be made on players out of contract, but that may not happen.

It is always difficult and demanding to meet the expectations of a football club with such excellent recent traditions as Luton. We have found it difficult at times, what with injuries and the need to raise over £1million through player sales. So far 50 per cent of that money has been received, plus £370,000 from the Worthington Cup. It is ironic that we are in receivership when our young players are appreciating in value week by week.

I am sure that with the efforts of the receivers, the current directors and all who have the good of Luton Town are heart, our problems can be resolved and Luton can move on. to a brighter future

So let us all try to make this last home game a memorable occasion. Get behind the team - and thank you for doing just that so often. It will be a case of all pull together again next season, but in the meantime, I hope we all have a very good summer.

captain's log

AFTER a season which has been full of wonderful highlights and a few bleak experiences, we are all pleased that we go into today's game with no worries about our final placing in the Second Division. I suppose overall mid-table is a fair reflection of our performances, but I can't help wondering about what might have been.

In September we were playing well, third in the table and going great guns in the Worthington Cup, enjoying the best start to a season in my ten years at the club. We believed we were good enough to have a say in the promotion race and the Worthington Cup run was a real boost to confidence.

You know the rest of the story. We had real hopes of getting into the semi-finals at least, but it all went wrong at Sunderland when Mitch got sent off and we bowed out to the team that has since proved to be by far the best in the First Division.

That night was for me the lowest point of the season. If we had not lost, I wonder if Steve Davis would have stayed? At 30, he was not going to get too many more chances of reaching Wembley.

Sunderland were easily the best team we have played this season, and we can only wonder how we would have fared in their magnificent stadium if it had been 11-men against 11.

In the Second Division, I think the best teams we met in home games were Preston and Fulham, with Manchester City looking a very good side when we played them at Maine Road.

My choice of highlight matches would be Fulham away - it looks like we will be the only visiting team to win at Craven Cottage this season - and the Worthington Cup replay at home to Ipswich. I don't think I have ever played in a more exciting game than that one, and I thought the injury-time deciding goal was a real gem!

Steve Davis's decision to go back to Burnley meant the loss of an inspirational player, and a run of injuries afterwards was no help as we lost form. Two runs of four successive defeats in the spring made life difficult, but even then there was some consolation in seeing how young players responded when they were thrown in at the deep end.

I don't think I can remember so many young players in the team all at once as we have seen this season, and it is to their credit that they have learned quickly to adapt to a tough division. In many matches only Phil Gray, Mitch and myself had any real senior experience.

Some of the teams we have met have disappointed in the way they have approached the game, but we can say with a clear conscience that we have always tried to pass and move, wanting to play football as it should be played. You have to adapt according to the opposition, but the Luton Town way is still about passing the ball. The players have been kept informed all the way along about the difficulties upstairs, and we did our best not to let the receivership affect our game. I think we succeeded.

I was well pleased to be given the captaincy after Stevo left, and I have enjoyed doing the job. It has probably been a little more demanding than I expected in view of the inexperience of so many of our players.

Overall, having dispelled the faint worries about relegation at Notts County a week ago, it has not been a bad season.

I was glad we improved in the second half against Chesterfield on Tuesday to get the result we deserved, but it would have been nice to get more goals, and that is the one aspect of our game that has been the biggest concern since the turn of the year. The return of Thorpey has given us and him a lift in that respect, and I must add that you the fans have also been excellent more often than not. We notice the support in away games particularly - I thought the travelling supporters at Meadow Lane were absolutely superb, and the other away match I remember for good support was Colchester.

Today, we have the chance to reward you in the way that matters most. Macclesfield are in an unenviable position, but we owe it to football not to ease up. The boss certainly won't tolerate it, and we want to end the home season on a high note.

A few goals would be the icing on the cake, but whatever the result I hope we all enjoy the afternoon, that we have a good summer, and that we are all in the right frame to do even better when we come back in August.

Marvin Johnson

from the treatment room

Cheff Club secretary

WE CAME through Tuesday evening's match against Chesterfield just about unscathed and we are nearing the end of the season with a pretty fit squad of players.

Marvin Johnson needed treatment when he was kicked on the shin, but he soon got over the short sharp pain and continued playing well. Stuart Douglas took a tumble and a slight knock, but he too made a quick recovery.

I was pleased to see Ray McKinnon get through the match, his second game since suffering a hamstring injury which is connected to a lower back problem. He will be examined by a surgeon within a few days to ascertain the exact nature of his condition. It causes some pain, and he certainly felt it after his appearance for us at Notts County on Saturday.

But he got over it well enough to retain his place against Chesterfield, and I have every hope that he will be all right for today as well.

Kelvin Davis is now completely clear of the hip injury he was suffering from at Meadow Lane, and Phil Gray is back in training and along with Andrew Fotiadis ready to return to action today, if called upon.

One who has had more disappointing news is Paul McLaren, who has had an operation to cure a torn cartilage and ligament damage in his left knee, an injury sustained at Oldham on Good Friday. The surgery went well, but he will still be in recovery mode as the season reaches its conclusion.

He faces a summer of work to be ready to compete for a place in the squad in the preseason fixtures.

Andrew Scarlett has the same timetable, but in his case his medial ligament injury did not need surgery.

Our long-term injured, Paul Showler and Julian James, are also aiming at pre-season

ANXIOUS MOMENTS: Michael McIndoe, rigid stiff with cramp, is carried off the field at Notts County. It turned out to be severe cramp, and he recovered in time to make another contribution to the cause against Chesterfield on Tuesday, and was available for selection today.

involvement. We have to wait for a scan to decide what must be done to clear up Showler's knee injury, but James has come though his final operation after breaking his leg more than a year ago.

The surgery this time was to remove the pin which was inserted to ensure the bone healed correctly, and it should ensure he is ready for full training as pre-season approaches.

Clive Gloodyear

AT THE last home match of the season it is traditional to say thank-you to everyone who has helped the club over the past eight months. Today, even more than usual, I want to offer very grateful thanks to many, many people.

For instance, there is a little army of around 300 people on duty at every single match day - stewards, turnstile operators, catering staff and so on, and without them we would have no football match. But perhaps even more deserved is my thanks to all the permanent staff at Kenilworth Road.

They have had some worrying times in recent months, as you will appreciate. Fortunately the people who work for us are also real supporters of Luton Town, and they have shown it in many different ways. Their efforts have been marvellous, a real case of actions speaking so much louder than words.

I have felt the same sort of attitude around the ground on recent match days, and for that I thank all supporters. I know it was appreciated by Lennie Lawrence and the players as well.

The manager and players were guests at Luton Town Supporters Club's annual presentation night on Sunday, and we enjoyed their company. And congratulations to double award winner Kelvin Davis, and to Matthew Spring and Tresor Kandol, who won the other awards.

Congratulations also to Paul Lowe and his youth team on their third consecutive championship of the South East Counties League. The trophy will be presented before kick-off today, and I am sure all supporters will show their appreciation. We need a good youth team at Kenilworth Road for all sorts of reasons!

There should be a good atmosphere in the ground today, and FLAG will be holding another bucket collection. Tuesday's produced the marvellous sum of £2,801, which I think must be a record. It shows again that people care about our club.

While I am on the subject of congratulations, well done Paul Smith on his achievement in the London Marathon, in which he was our representative. As is reported elsewhere, he was well into the top half of the Second Division runners, and, more importantly, raised a lot of money for charity. It was a delight to know that supporters had helped him with their donations.

My thanks are due to the Kenilworth Road end supporters who kindly took time to take part in our survey on how or if our membership scheme should operate next season. We are still collating the information, but you can be sure we will take on board the views of our customers. We will always listen to you, and if you have any issues to raise, please get in touch.

It will be a real pleasure today to see some of our heroes of yesteryear - most of the 1959 FA Cup final players will be guests of the club and of Luton Town Supporters Club, and it goes without saying that we will be thrilled to see them again 40 years after our first trip to Wembley.

The reunion is the brainchild of Merilyn Fussell, of the Luton Town Supporters Club, and she and her husband Vic have had to work hard to make it possible. Our thanks are due to both of them for their efforts.

As I have already pointed out, despite rumours to the contrary we will be playing Nationwide League football again next season, and preparations for that are well under way. The first match is on August 7, but we expect to have a few pre-season fixtures. We are talking to various other clubs about that, and will make an announcement via the local press as soon as arrangements are made.

Usually at this time of the year we are able to announce next season's ticket prices, but as you will read elsewhere in this magazine, that has not been possible at present - sorry about that, but the information will be put out as soon as possible.

Finally, I hope we all have a pleasant summer. Thanks to all supporters who have rallied to the cause, and we look forward to seeing you again in August. And if you can help us attract a few more through the turnstiles, that too would earn our grateful thanks.

Another Premiership break-away

NEXT SEASON'S fixture list for the reserves will be radically altered as the FA Premiership launches a new competition for its clubs, pulling them out of the leagues they have played in this season.

The possibility is that instead of the 28-game schedule played by teams in the Avon Insurance Combination this season, it could be 38 for the next campaign, although that depends on a series of ifs and buts.

Today's Avon Insurance Combination membership is 29 clubs, who play each other once. To play twice, home and away, would have produced 56 games, and as clubs go into other local competitions as well they did not want that many games.

But now the FA Premier League has announced that it wants to form a new Reserve League for its 20 clubs. Seven Premiership teams currently use the AIC for their reserves' fixtures. The three clubs relegated will not be eligible, but the three promoted from the Nationwide First Division will be.

So if the FA Premier Reserve League comes into being, the Avon Insurance Combination will lose Tottenham, Chelsea, West Ham, Arsenal and Wimbledon. Southampton and Charlton will also go out of the AIC into the new Premiership Reserve League if their first teams avoid relegation.

The Combination might also lose clubs if First Division promotion is won by, for example, Watford and Ipswich.

THE final home match of the season for the reserves is on Wednesday, against Peterborough, kick-off 2pm at Kenilworth Road.

So the planners cannot begin to think about next season's AIC fixtures until promotion and relegation issues are settled. There is also the possibility that other clubs might ask to join.

As it stands at present, the likelihood is that the Combination will be reduced to 24 members, which opens up the possibility for a 46-match league season, with teams playing each other twice. The membership could conceivably drop to 20, which would give a 38-game programme.

Whatever happens, the Football League will not see its various reserve competitions founder. Director of Football Competitions Andy Williamson said: "The Football League will as a matter of urgency consult with the existing reserve team competitions in order to determine the best way forward for our own member clubs.

"You can be assured that provisions will be made to include every club wishing to participate in competitive reserve team football."

A GROUP of real Luton Town supporters are the match sponsors today, and in giving them a welcome we express our appreciation of the way they are showing very tangible support for the club, by buying one of our sponsorship packages.

It was bought in the name of Wendi Arnold and the Regular Rabble, and they are keen to let it be known that as well as supporting Luton Town they are also backing FLAG, the fans' organisation which has been formed to help us through our current difficulties.

Regular Rabble is their very modest way of describing themselves, particularly on away games, because Wendi and her friends, members of Luton Town Supporters Club, are among those who shout for the team away from home as well as at Kenilworth Road. Sponsorship is a vital part of our business, and we are already working towards next season - and yes, we will still be playing in the Football League into the new millennium!

Our executive boxes, for instance, are well worth considering, either for a full season, for which we will offer a discount, or match by match. In terms of price per head, it is not that expensive, and it is a highly enjoyable way of watching the Town with a little luxury thrown in. We have boxes of various sizes, and can offer all kinds of packages in terms of catering and drinks.

We also offer a wide range of sponsorship schemes, and again they can be tailored to suit individual needs and budgets, and you don't need a big business background to take advantage of the facilities. TODAY is your last chance this season to enjoy a modest flutter and perhaps go home with a handful of cash. That was what happened on Tuesday to David Stott when he came to the match against Chesterfield.

Like many fans, he had a go on the Golden Gamble, and when the half-time draw was made his ticket was the one picked out of the drum by Paul McLaren, and he pocketed £430 Mr Stott, of River Way, Luton, paid just £1 for that lovely slip of paper with the right number

Some-one will win another jackpot this afternoon, and the odds are a lot better than on the National Lottery, even if the prize is not quite so dramatic. Golden Gamble sellers are on duty all around the ground, and will be pleased to offer you the chance to take home a fistful of fivers and tenners. The size of the prize depends on how many £1 tickets are sold. The Golden Gamble income is split 50/50 split, half to club funds and half to the holder of the lucky ticket. The draw is made at half-time.

Extra, in association with Nationwide Building Society.

We'll be on air just after midnight on Mondays and repeated later in the week in many regions.

The programme is introduced by Gabriel Clarke and includes interviews, competitions, the latest news and talking points, and all the goals scored at the weekend from the Nationwide Football League.

Hatters Away

WE GO to the New Den to play Millwall next Saturday to complete our season. Kick-off is at 3pm and admission is pay on the day only. Seats are £11, or £6 for concessions - over 60s and under-16s.

Town on Tour and the Bobbers Travel Club will be running coaches, and they will be pleased to give you further information at their kiosks in Kenilworth Road today.

The Bobbers are providing a service leaving Cranfield at 11 am, and calling at various villages on the way to Luton, with a 12 noon departure from Kenilworth Road. The fare is £6 for adults and £5 for pensioners and under-16s.

Town on Tour trips leave from Maple Road, and can offer secure parking if you book in advance. Their coaches will leave at noon, and the price is £7.50 for members of Luton Town Supporters Club, £6 for concessions. The fare for non-members is £8.50.

Driving through London to Millwall can be a bit of a strain, and if you cannot use the official coach services public transport is worth considering: train from Luton to Kings Cross, tube to London Bridge and thence to New Cross or Surrey Quays, then walk to the New Den.

If you want to drive it, there are various routes: basically head for London, and take any crossing of the Thames - for instance Tower Bridge, and turn left to Bermondsey and towards Deptford. Then follow the part of the route given below referring to Blackwall Tunnel and beyond.

Our seasoned traveller prefers to use motorways, not the shortest route, but usually the guickest because it avoids most of the congested areas of London: leave Luton on the M1 south, and turn left onto the M25 (signposted towards Dartford), Leave at junction 27 to join the M11, signposted to London North East. At the end of the M11 bear left onto the A12, signposted to London East and the City. After 4.8 miles, at a roundabout, take the third exit onto the A13, still heading towards the City, and watch for the signs to the Blackwall Tunnel on your left. Go through the tunnel and on the A102(M) for two miles, then at a roundabout take the third exit to join the A2 signposted towards central London. Stay on the A2, into Shooters Hill, through the parkland of Blackheath and follow the signs towards Deptford and New Cross, Go straight on at the crossroads near the George and Dragon and continue over the next set of traffic lights. Then watch for a right turn filter signposted towards Rotherhithe Tunnel and Tower Bridge to go into Deptford Church Street. Go straight on at the first roundabout, then left at the next lights, still signposted towards Tower Bridge. After just over half a mile, you will see a left turn signposted to the stadium

The Man in the Middle

A SENIOR police officer is in charge of today's match. Alan Butler, from Nottinghamshire, is just completing his fifth season as a Football League referee, having begun his career with the whistle in junior football in Nottingham in 1981.

Within seven years he had risen up the pyramid to become a linesman in the Football League, and was promoted to referee in panel competitions a year later. Mr Butler became a Premiership linesman in 1993.

Asked to name the most important matches he has refereed so far, he picks out the GM Vauxhall Conference Cup final in 1995, and the Umbro FA Trophy semi-final a year later, but adds: "All games are important."

Away from football, he gives time to local voluntary work, and enjoys do-ityourself, travel, reading and gardening

The last of the 'Busby Babes', Sammy joined in the footsteps of the legendary George Best when he moved from his native Belfast to join Manchester United as a raw teenager in the late sixties. He became an established member of the highly successful side built by Tommy Docherty. In all he made 418 appearances for United, one of the highlights being the 1978 FA Cup Final win over Liverpool.

In 1982 he moved to Stoke City where he played 144 games before heading back to Manchester to join United's deadly rivals, City. His time at Maine Road was curtailed when he accepted an offer to join Bury, then managed by Martin Dobson. Whom he was to succeed at Northwich Victoria's Drill Field. He then took up the post of player coach at Preston, but a severe knee injury virtually ended his playing days.

In July 1991 he was appointed manager at The Drill Field. Coming into the job cold with practically no experience of the Non-League scene, everyone at the club was delighted with his and his team's performance. Being involved with a team playing in a green shirt, no doubt brought back memories of his '78 performances in emerald for his country Northern Ireland.

Sammy left Northwich Victoria in 1992, became manager of Ashton United for a short spell until he was appointed manager of Macclesfield Town Football Club for the start of the 1993/94 season. In this first season he won the Drinkwise Cup (Bob Lord Trophy) as well as the Staffordshire Senior Cup. Sammy's second season in charge saw him bring the Vauxhall Conference Championship to the Moss Rose. Last season success at the Club continued under Sammy as he won the Championship shield and the FA Trophy.

RYAN PRICE (Goalkeeper)

Ryan started his career at the age of 16. At the end of his two year contract he made the move to semi professional game joining Stafford Rangers. During his six years at Marston Road he completed a record 320 consecutive league games also collecting 4 England caps, making his debut against Wales at Cheltenham.

In 1994 Barry Fry made a successful £40,000 bid for Ryan which took him to Birmingham City. In his 17 months at St Andrews he made 64 appearances on the bench whilst backing up first choice lan Bennett. Ryan also played reserve team football. He made one league appearance against Peterborough United. In the 94/95 season he was very much involved with the first team as they won the second division title and the Auto Windscreen Shield, beating Carlisle United in the final at Wembley.

In November 1995 he became Macclesfield's record signing. On his return to the semi pro game he won further England caps and was voted into the Conference team of the year for two years running.

STEPHEN PAYNE (Defender)

Made his debut for Macclesfield in September 1994 at the age of 19. At the time he was at the start of a three month loan period from Huddersfield Town, where he had progressed through the ranks to become a professional. Steve's arrival at the Moss Rose sparked off a 13 match unbeaten run during which time the Silkmen set a new conference record of 10 consecutive victories. Many people (Including Steve) believe that this his arrival and this historic run were not just a coincidence. His move was made permanent in December 1994 and he represented the FA XI in January 1995. Steve has been voted Player's Player of the Year on three occasions and supporter's player of the year. Season 96/97 saw Steve called up into the England semi pro team.

DARREN TINSON (Defender)

Darren was a five figure signing from Northwich Victoria in February 1996 and this was a case of Sammy McIlroy finally getting his man. In the summer of 1993 both Macc and the Vics were keen to sign this powerfully built defender from Colwyn Bay. At the time Darren opted for the shorter travelling distance and eventually made his debut for the Vics on New Years Day 1994 following a pre season injury.

EFETOBORE SODJE (Defender)

Born in Greenwich, 'Efe' went to Nigeria at the age of 8 with his parents. Invisible Leopards was his first non league team and their impressive performances in the State National Challenge Cup where they were eventually beaten by professional side Steele Pioneers. This prompted Pioneers to offer Efe a contract. In 1994 he returned to England and had trials at Luton, Millwall and Wimbledon. International registration problems held up his career and in October 1994 he signed for Stevenage Borough. The following season he won a Conference Champion medal with Stevenage. He signed for Macclesfield in the summer of 1997.

STEVE HITCHEN (Defender)

Steve was Sammy's first Signing in preparing Macclesfield Town for League Football. Steve's big break came when captaining Salford Boys, Blackburn Rovers spotting his potential and signing him on schoolboy forms. He progressed to a two-year apprenticeship and onto a full two-year contract as a professional. He played over 100 reserve team games and was a member of the first team squad on numerous occasions including being named as a substitute against Legia Warsaw in Rovers European Championship campaign. Ray Hartford rejected a £500,000 bid for Steve before leaving Ewood Park.

GREG BROWN (Defender)

Greg is a local lad who represented the Macclesfield and district schoolboys, he also represented Cheshire and the North of England schoolboys. He signed for Chester City on schoolboy forms and progressed to a two-year apprenticeship. Two broken legs sandwiched a 1 year professional contract where he played for the first team and played at Middlesborough's Riverside stadium in the FA Cup. Following his release from Chester Greg signed for the Silkmen in December 1997.

NEIL SORVEL (Midfielder)

Neil is a 23 year old Widnes born defender who joined Macclesfield from Crewe Alexandra with whom he played in the Football League. He spent much of the 93/94 season in midfield proving what a versatile player he is. Neil was the only everpresent player during the 93/94 season, making midfield his now recognised position.

STEVEN WOOD (Midfielder)

Born in Oldham, Steve has played all his football in the Greater Manchester area, he spent the early part of his career at Chadderton before moving to Mossley where he spent two years. He won a Manchester County Cup winners medal with Mossley, beating Droylsden in the final. He obviously impressed the Droylsden management as they lured him to the Butchers Arms ground the following season. 'Woody' found it hard to settle at Droylsden and joined Stalybridge before teaming up with his current Manager at Ashton United.

During the 96/97 season Steve was leading goalscorer and had a clean sweep at the player of the year awards, Steve was also last seasons leading goalscorer and was again named Supporters Player of the Year.

IOHN ASKEY (Forward)

John is Macclesfield's longest serving player of the current squad. He joined the Silkmen from Milton United in 1987 having previously been with Port Vale. John has represented England at semi pro level and has played for Middlesex Wanderers in Japan. John won the Mail on Sunday Goalscorer of the Month award in November 1993.

PETER DAVENPORT (Forward)

Peter had league experience with Nottingham Forest, Manchester United and Middlesbrough. His striking prowess earnt him full international honours for England. Peter left the old Football League having scored 99 goals. He went to Scotland and played with St Johnstone before moving into semi professional football with Southport and had a short spell as caretaker manager before signing for the SILKMEN in January 1997. Peter finally got his 100th goal in the Football League in our final game of last season.

BEN SEDGEMORE (Midfield)

Ben was scouted out of the local leagues and offered a two year apprenticeship at Birmingham City. He refused this offer to continue his education and take his A levels. However, he played on Saturdays for the youth team and he played for the England schoolboys on 5 occasions, an achievement which his brother Jake emulated 3 years later. He turned down the opportunity to take a degree at Loughborough University to stay in football with Birmingham City. He had two and a half years at St. Andrews making his football league debut at the age of 19. He had a loan spell at Northampton Town and 3 months out with a medial ligament injury. He returned to have a 10 month loan spell at Mansfield Town. Barry Fry, when at Birmingham sold Ben to Peterborough and later when at Peterborough sold Ben to Mansfield Town for £20,000. A two year spell at Mansfield was followed by his £20,000 move to Macclesfield on deadline day 1998. Ben is also studying part-time for a degree in Psychology and Law.

SIMON DAVIES (Midfield)

Simon signed for the Silkmen in December 1998 from Luton Town, he had been with the Kenilworth Road club for just over a year having been signed from Manchester United for £200,000. Simon started his career with Manchester United progressing through the Youth Team to the First Team and Premiership and European appearances. Simon was also a member of the very successful youth team squad that produced the Neville brothers, David Beckham, Nicky Butt and Paul Scholes.

STEVE BROWN (Forward)

Steve signed schoolboy forms for Southend United and went on to a two year apprenticeship. He then signed professional and made his football league debut at the age of 18, in that debut against Notts County Steve's strike partner was Stan Collymore. The game finished 3-1 to Southend with Stan getting two and Steve getting the third. He had a short six week stop at Scunthorpe before moving to Colchester where he spent two seasons scoring 24 goals in 63 appearances. A player exchange deal took Steve to Gillingham before Lincoln's Steve Wicks signed him for £20,000. A fans favourite at Lincoln. Steve scored 14 goals and made over 60 appearances (many as substitute) over a three year period. Steve caught Sammy McIlroy's eye whilst on loan to Dover Athletic scoring Three goals in two games, including a spectacular 25 yard volley against Macclesfield.

DOMINIC BARCLAY (Forward)

Dominic was a promising young athlete as well as a footballer, he opted for the latter and via his local team, St Judes, he signed schoolboy forms for Bristol City. He represented both Bristol and Avon boys and had trials for the England Schoolboy team He made his football league debut at the tender age of 17 and scored the winning goal in a 1-0 victory. He was a member of the squad who lost to Brentford in the playoff Semi Finals In his Final season with Bristol City he was the leading scorer in the reserves in the south west reserve division he netted 21 goals in 38 games. He joined Macclesfield in the summer of 1998.

PEDRO MATHIAS (Forward)

Pedro is from Spain where he signed shoolboy forms for one of their most successful teams, Real Madrid. He spent six years with Spain's top club before moving around, and from Logrones he signed for Macclesfield in December 1998, keen to further his career by testing his skills in what is arguably the toughest league in the world, The Football League.

AS WE have the pleasure of seeing members of the Town's 1959 FA Cup final team at Kenilworth Road today, it seemed fitting to choose as this afternoon's subject one of that illustrious band.

It was a problem to decide who it should be. Several of the team have already featured in this series, while unfortunately I have been unable to trace any cards depicting either Ken Hawkes or Tony Gregory.

But perhaps it is fitting that we should honour the only man to score a goal for us in an FA Cup final, so it's back to those lovely bubble-gum cards from A & BC, and their 1959 offering. Dave Pacey is to be found on number 38, with five other members of our Wembley line-up also in the series, Bob Morton at No. 34, Ron Baynham at No. 44, Billy Bingham at No. 54 and Allan Brown at No. 56.

Forty years ago clubs relied much more heavily on local talent than they do now. Dave Pacey was born in Luton, and joined the Town after a spell with Hitchin. He signed professional forms in 1957, following his stint of National Service.

He made his league debut at Old Trafford on Christmas Day of that year, playing at right-half in a 3-0 defeat. (No change there - we have still never won a game at Old Trafford!)

Pacey's progress was such that his stylish performances resulted in him making the No. 6 shirt his own the following season, as a left-half.

A & BC Gum Co Football Quiz, 1959

He was chosen for the England under-23 summer tour of 1959, after suffering the disappointment of losing at Wembley on May 2, 40 years ago all but a day.

At least he had the satisfaction of scoring in the cup final, when he reduced Forest's lead on the hour with a low shot following a corner.

He continued to play regularly for the Town until 1965, appearing in all the half-back positions, and then had a couple of years with Southern League Kettering Town before hanging up his boots. His final tally for Luton was 274 senior appearances, and 19 goals including the one at Wembley that makes him unique.

According to the back of this card, his hobbies were carpentry, table-tennis and fishing, while his favourite sportsman was the elegant England cricketer Peter May.

Dave Pacey still lives locally and I am sure we all hope that he and the rest of that wonderful team enjoy their return to Kenilworth Road.

As for the cards, it is rare to find a complete set these days. Odd cards turn up at fairs, and dealers quote £2 or £3 for single examples in good condition, but for some reason the higher numbers are harder to find.

1st May 1959

The whole of Luton waited with baited breath, for tomorrow the Hatters were on their way to Wembley for the first time in their history. The six weeks that had elapsed since the semi-final win over Norwich had flown by as the area went Cup mad.

Neither the Town nor their Cup final opponents, Nottingham Forest, had distinguished themselves during the period of waiting with each side winning only three of the fourteen league games played. The Town, however, had scored a psychological advantage when beating Forest 5-1 at Kenilworth Road on April 9th with Allan Brown netting four times. Unfortunately any feeling of superiority was tempered by the fact that Forest had played a makeshift side that bore no resemblance to their Cup eleven.

The Hatters had been without a manager since the previous October when Dally Duncan departed to Blackburn, and the Luton team had been picked by a committee consisting of directors and the coaching staff which included skipper Svd Owen who was widely tipped to take over the managerial reigns after the Cup final. The committee's insistence in choosing the same side throughout the Cup run, which omitted goalscoring ace Gordon Turner and winger Iim Adam.

had not gone down well with certain sections of the crowd. Of greater concern amongst the Kenilworth Road faithful, moreover, was the allocation of tickets for the big day.

With an allocation of only 16,000 tickets the Board, in an attempt to squeeze a quart out of a pint pot, decided that all non season-ticket holders should enter into a postal ballot. This obviously brought about winners and losers and the local press was inundated with letters from irate fans who were unlucky and resentment from some probably still lingers to this day. On the day before the game a cruel rumour spread like wildfire around the town that spare tickets were on sale at Kenilworth Road. A queue quickly formed which office staff frantically attempted to disband but 'sharp-suited London spivs' were soon on the scene offering 3/6d (17.5p) tickets for £4.

No real preparations were made by the Town for the big day and the only concessions made to the fact that they were about to play on the lush turf at Wembley were training sessions on the hockey pitch at Cedars School at Leighton Buzzard. This surface was supposed to mirror that at Wembley but the players were exhausted after training on such heavy ground.

The players cannot recall any special team talks being given and the match was simply regarded as being just another game. Forest on the other hand were secreted away during the week prior to the final which meant their nervous tension was building while the Town players were supposedly relaxed.

On the Thursday before the game skipper Syd Owen was presented with the Footballer of the Year award by the Football Writers Association, a fitting end to a playing career which was due to end at 4.40 p.m. on Saturday 2nd May.

As the day drew to a close anyone walking around Luton could not fail to recognise that the Hatters were Wembley bound. Black and white ribbon and straw boaters adorned every shop in the town centre and along Dunstable Road, a special floral display had been carefully laid out on the Moor and Dudley's wet fish shop had dressed up a skate in Luton colours and straw hat with the legend "May you skate to victory!"

> Britain's oldest woman, 108 year old Mrs Hannah Taylor of Norman Road professed that she would be unable to sleep, the pubs were given extended opening hours to 10.30 p.m. and with beer reducing to 1/1d (5.5p) a pint after duty reduction in the recent Budget it was going to be a long night.

The last action of the evening came when full-back Ken Hawkes, who unfortunately lived in one of the houses in Kenilworth Road, was still seen answering his door at midnight to desperate supporters seeking tickets.

Many supporters were already in possession of the Cup final programme which could be pre-ordered for 1/6d(including postage and packing).

In the final part of our occasional series looking back on the tremendous F.A.Cup run of 1959 we now come to 2nd May and the final at Wembley.

The big day finally arrived and at 8.30 a.m, 56 year old Bill Wright set off on the 29 mile run to Wembley closely followed by a 1909 vintage Commer bus suitably bedecked in black and white on its 20m.p.h crawl to the stadium.

As normal on match days, wing-half John Groves caught a bus from Sundon Park to meet up with his playing colleagues at Kenilworth Road and after a few photo calls with the team seen bashfully sporting boaters it was off on the short drive to North London. As a departure from normal custom the players were treated to a prematch lunch at the Hendon Hall Hotel and later arrived at the stadium in good time to inspect the lush, green turf.

Meanwhile back in Luton every coach for miles around was mobilised to take the fans to Wembley while several special trains were laid on to ship supporters directly to Wembley Park station. Although the local Chamber of Commerce had suggested that all shops stay open, Luton was like a ghost town as those not lucky enough to secure a ticket gathered around 14 inch television sets to watch the game in black and white.

The armchair supporters watched Eileen Fowler give a 'Keep Fit' demonstration and then listened to half an hour of Community singing.

As the two teams lined up in the tunnel the Luton players looked relaxed and confident while those of Forest were tense. The Forest players were even more tense when they found out that the Town had not been holed up in a hotel and thought it was being said to put them off and that they had something special up their sleeves.

Tom Hodgson led out the Town team in the absence of a manager and after both sets of players had been introduced to the Duke of Edinburgh the two captains exchanged banners-a first in Wembley history. Battle then commenced.

After the epic run that had started in the snow of the previous January so much was now expected of the Hatters and everyone connected with the club was fully confident that the Cup would find a resting place at Kenilworth Road.

The first half performance, and in particular the opening twenty minutes, therefore came as a highly unpleasant shock. Forest ripped into the Town and pinged the ball around on the true surface with the result that the Hatters were left chasing shadows.

With ten minutes gone Forest's Roy Dwight came racing onto a pulled back centre from Stuart Imlach and flashed the ball into the net past a helpless Ron Baynham. Four minutes later the game was as good as over when Billy Gray floated over a diagonal centre which was headed back into the far corner of the net by Tom Wilson.

The Town seemed set for a hiding but were handed an unfortunate lifeline on 32 minutes when Dwight and Luton full-back Brendan McNally went for a high ball. Dwight's studs caught McNally's chest and as both players went down it was clear that the Forest player was badly injured. After attempting to carry on he collapsed with what was later diagnosed as a fractured shin.

Substitutes were still six years away and the so called 'Wembley Hoodoo' had struck again and Forest had to battle on with ten men. The pitch was often blamed for the many injuries at Wembley and this game was no exception with the trainers being called on eleven times and McNally left a limping passenger with a cartilage problem.

The Town frantically tried to force their way back into the game knowing that a ten man side had yet to win a Wembley final, but too often found the Forest centre-half, Bobby McKinlay, blocking their path. Hopes were raised in the 62nd minute when Dave Pacey, eight yards out, drove in a Ken Hawkes cross but as the Town huffed and puffed Forest fought like tigers.

Allan Brown almost forced extra time against a tiring Forest when he launched himself at a Billy Bingham cross, but his header flashed narrowly wide. In truth an equaliser would have been an injustice and when the final whistle sounded everyone agreed that Forest were deserving winners.

The players have since maintained to a man that the preparation was all wrong and they were far too relaxed and casual and were not keyed up enough, unlike Forest who were as taut as a guitar string and looked on the game as a release.

The disappointed players trooped off to receive their runners-up medals with the moment particularly poignant for Syd Owen who was making his final appearance before hanging up his boots. A muted 'celebration' dinner was held at the Piccadilly Hotel and the players probably thought that the following days open top bus ride through Luton was going to be akin to a wake. They were therefore shocked and pleased to see thousands line the streets of the town as the bus made its way to the Town Hall on a wet, miserable day. All Syd Owen could say to the massed crowds from the Town Hall balcony was "See you at Wembley in 1960".

One final word on the gentlemen who are honoured guests this afternoon. No Luton side since has matched that great achievement of 1959 and reached an F.A.Cup final at Wembley!

Admission prices

AS THE receiver does not wish to commit any prospective new owner of the club to ticket prices for next season, we are unable to publish prices at this time.

However, it would seem likely that existing prices will be held, and there may be some opportunity for reducing the cost of some tickets.

All season ticket holders will be notified by post of the new season's prices. Any prospective new season ticket holders should contact the ticket office direct, on 01582 416976, for details of the new prices as soon as they are available. We will again be offering a facility to buy season tickets on deferred terms, with payment by instalments over eight months. They can also be bought by cash, cheque or credit card.

We thank you all for your support in 1998/99, and look forward to entertaining you again when the new season begins, on August 7.

Please watch the local Press for announcements about season ticket prices and matchday admission charges. Meanwhile we wish all Luton Town supporters a very pleasant summer.

Matchday Magazine Subscriptions

THE CLUB will again be running its matchday magazine subscription service next season. It guarantees you all first team league and cup programmes for the whole of the 1999/2000 season.

The price will be held at this season's charges: for £38 we will post every home matchday magazine to anywhere in the UK. Away programmes can be ordered for £35, postage included. For the combined package, to offer a collection of the whole season's magazines, the price is £70.

Notts County 1 Luton Town 2

A VINTAGE goal by Tony Thorpe sealed our fourth away win of the season, the first since the trip to Burnley in early February, ended lingering worries about relegation, and repaid the debt owed to Notts County for their win at Kenilworth Road two months ago.

That victory was courtesy of a handball the referee and linesmen missed, so it was poetic justice when Thorpe's first goal for us since his return was partly down to a lucky deflection off a defender. But his winner was sheer class, an instant appreciation of what was needed, and the instinctive ability to curl his shot from an angle beyond the goalkeeper and into the far corner of the net.

County had been on a bit of a roll after their fluke win at Luton, and like us were on 49 points, and looking for one more win to complete their recovery from what had once looked like near-certain relegation.

They were big, strong and direct, but in class second best.

Stuart Fraser came in for the second league start of his career, and despite being a left back used as a right wingback always looked comfortable. Even more so was Chris Willmott, proving to many who saw him in the youth team before suffering a horrible knee injury that he had at least as much potential as his then central defence partner Matthew Upson. Stand by for the vultures to gather!

Alan White also grabbed his chance, as he has to for his sake and the club's, after the departure of Sean Dyche, and while Thorpe's quick feet took the scoring honours, Stuart Douglas earned much credit as well. It was, said manager Lennie Lawrence, his best performance as leader of the line for some while. The midfield contribution of the returning Ray McKinnon was also an important factor.

ON TARGET AGAIN: Tony Thorpe shoots his first Luton Town goal for 14 months to put us on the road to victory and safety.

Thorpe's opener came on 32 minutes, through half a chance made by Willmott's forward pass. Thorpe made space for a shot which seemed to be slightly mishit, but the goalkeeper was wrong-footed by a defender's deflection, and the Luton contingent saluted the striker's first Town goal since a last-minute winner at Fulham in the Auto Windscreens Shield in February last year.

County tried to bomb us into submission at the start of the second half, and brute strength brought them a scrambled equaliser ten minutes after the break.

But the Town weathered the storm and came back strongly, with Thorpe's winner coming 10 minutes later after a thoughtful pass across the box by Douglas.

County had enough pressure after that to think they might nick an equaliser, but were denied by a mixture of good defence and poor finishing.

The crucial difference, said Lennie Lawrence, was that we had Thorpe, and they didn't. But he was just as quick to point out that every man played his part in a performance which gave great pleasure to the travelling fans, who also contributed with their loud encouragement.

Luton Town 1 Chesterfield o

TONY Thorpe struck again to put a little much-needed life into Tuesday's game, when Chesterfield came determined to be hard to beat, without looking good enough to win.

Like us they had no more than professional pride to play for, having missed the chance of reaching the play-offs, and being in no danger of the drop.

They were strong in defence, but not very adventurous, and it was a pity they were not in the mood to open up the game until after Thorpe nicked the winner, after 63 minutes.

Marvin Johnson was the central rock on which almost all Chesterfield raids foundered, although the visitors might have bettered their record of one goal in the last six matches when Stuart Fraser tripped to allow Jon Howard to set up a chance for Marcus Ebdon. He side-footed wastefully wide when he should have given the visitors a 13th-minute lead.

They never again threatened beyond a few crosses into the box, where Kelvin Davis was in confident mood. Our own attacking, against a massed defence of eight men, was not too bright in the first half, but in the second Ray McKinnon dropped deeper to allow Michael McIndoe and Matthew Spring to push further upfield, and the change paid dividends.

Billy Mercer made a good save from a stinging low drive by Thorpe eight minutes into the second half as the Town at last got into their stride, and in the 63rd minute Spring at last uncoiled the deep defensive cover with a powerful run down the left wing. He was strong enough to withstand a couple of challenges, then whipped the ball low across the face of the goal. Stuart Douglas had the first bite, and although Mercer blocked his effort, Thorpe anticipated the possibilities quicker than anyone else, and the goal-poacher's instincts made it look easy.

So the season is as good as over, with no fears about the last-day dramatics we used to worry about, but Lennie Lawrence has made it clear to his players that it's not a joy-ride for the last two games. Big changes are likely at Kenilworth Road in the summer, with the financial situation still in doubt, and the boss insists everyone must compete for the right to be in the team.

Thus, he expects today to be a party occasion for spectators only - for the team there is a job to be done, and a modest target to chase, to overhaul Reading and finish in 11th place, compared to last season's final position of 17th.

MATCH DETAILS

Welcome welcome

WE ARE all in carnival mood today for the last home game of the season, and the Junior Hatters give a very warm welcome to their counterparts from Macclesfield. We hope they enjoy their time at Kenilworth Road with us, and wish them the very best of luck as Macclesfield try to avoid the pain of relegation just a year after the joy of promotion from Division Three.

Meeting "opposing" fans is one of the best features of being a football supporter, and we are looking forward to seeing more old friends next week, when we round off the season with a trip to Millwall.

We always have a good time there, because they are very good hosts, so any Junior Hatters who want to come with us ought to think about booking early.

Departure time on Saturday is 10.15am from Kenilworth Road, and there will be the usual full range of activities when we get to the New Den to join up with the young Millwall fans.

We expect to be back in Luton at about 6.45, and the normal bargain price is on offer: £10 for Junior Hatters, and £12 for adults and guests. That includes a ticket to the match, so it is very good value.

We will be taking on the Junior Lions in a five-a-side football tournament, and we hope there will also be a penalty shoot-out competition at half-time while the league players are having their cups of tea and listening to encouraging words from the managers and coaches.

If you would like to join us for the last match of the season, please contact the ticket office to book your place. You can call in, or book by phone to Luton 416976 on a credit card, but don't forget that the ticket office will not be open on Monday, which is a bank holiday.

AT LAST: This is the moment Thomas Finch waited five months for. He was chosen to be Junior Hatters mascot for the Chesterfield match which was postponed on October 31. It finally happened on Tuesday, and at long last he got to meet the players, and joined the captains and match officials for the toss-up.

And as this is our last report of the season, we want to end by thanking everyone at Luton Town for helping us to enjoy another good campaign. We look forward to doing it all again next season, but meanwhile have a good summer. See you in August!

Today's Mascot

SHE MAY be only 11, but Lucy Johnston, this afternoon's Junior Hatters mascot, is not a bad judge of players. Even before our goalkeeper was named as the double winner of the Luton Town player of the year awards, she had nominated Kelvin Davis as her big favourite.

Today she will get the chance to meet him close up, joining the players before the game and taking part in the pre-match formalities.

Lucy lives in Ox Lane, Harpenden, and goes to Roundwood Park School, and she lists her hobbies as playing her flute, shopping, and watching Luton Town. She also watches and supports her young brother when he plays football for Harpenden Colts under-nines.

Lucy comes to games with her dad and brother, and they watch from the enclosure.

welcome welcome

IT WAS a real day to remember when we went to see the Town play at Manchester City, even if our Junior Hatters were the other Luton team to come home without a win. City were very good hosts, and we took them on in a penalty shootout competition.

We were beaten 3-2 but Rhiannon Morgan, our only girl sharpshooter, struck a blow for equality by being one of our scorers. Craig Vickors was the other.

Before going to Maine Road we had a tour of Old Trafford, and were lucky enough to see the dressing rooms, the board room, and the trophy room.

It's nice to see how the other half lives, but we would still rather be Luton Town supporters!

SPOT ON: She's a bit of a blur, being quick on her feet, but this is Rhiannon Morgan scoring in the penalty shoot-out competition against Manchester City's mascot.

Sales & New Kit News

The club's new kit sponsor will be Olympic Sportswear Limited. Below is an illustration of next seasons home kit which is reflective of the outcome of the supporters kit census.

Prices for this and artwork of the Away and Goalkeeping kits will be published in the near future. Aslo, negotiations are in their final stages and we are pleased to advise you that we hope to make an announcement within the next two to three weeks as to who our shirt sponsor will be.

vouth

THE South East Counties League championship trophy will be formally presented to us this afternoon, at the end of a season in which another intake of new talent moves up from youth football to full professional

We won 20 and drew six of our 30 league games, and 25 goals against was easily the best defensive record, and the platform for our success. Four of those goals were put past us in the first game of the season. when we lost 4-2 at Brentford, but no-one else did that to us

Tresor Kandol, from Canning Town, London, was our top marksman with 21 goals in 31 matches, and has had a remarkable season, earning a pro contract, making a Nationwide League debut, and being selected young player of the year by the manager and coaching staff.

Midfielder Matthew Taylor came to us from Abingdon for a trial in preseason, and was guickly offered a YTS place, and on his 17th birthday he too was given a pro contract. Moses Jerry, from Ladbrook Grove, London, and goalkeeper Daniel Tate, from Bedford, were also taken on as professionals. Tate has the record to prove his abilities - he kept 17 clean sheets.

Perhaps the proudest to receive a pro contract was this season's youth team skipper, centre-half James Ayres, because he is a Luton boy.

The disappointment of the seasons was our early elimination from the FA Youth Cup. Drawn at home to Colchester, the first experience of playing on the Kenilworth Road pitch, under floodlights, caused a few nerves and we were beaten 1-0.

But we had a good run in the Southern Junior Floodlit Cup, reaching the semi-final before going out a little unluckily, 3-2 to Wolves in a replay at Molineux.

I thank all the players for their efforts, and also the helpers whose efforts are a vital part of running a football team, especially physios Doug Everett and John Smith, Jim Hugill our kit man and driver, and Dean Rastrick for his hard work as youth development officer. But most of all it was a team effort, so well done all the players.

second division scene

OUR slight worries about relegation were blown away by two wins in four days, at Notts County and at home to Chesterfield on Tuesday, but today's visitors have a real battle on their hands to avoid going back to the Third Division.

We have gone back up to 12th, with a chance of overhauling Reading to take 11th place when the final league table is compiled in a week's time.

Macclesfield face relegation a year after being promoted as runners-up in the Third Division to Notts County.

Lincoln, who were third in Division Three, seem set to join Macclesfield in the instant drop, despite their shock win at Kenilworth Road a couple of weeks ago.

Macclesfield have struggled all season and have lost their last three games, 2-0 away to Walsall, and 2-1 at home to York and to Stoke.

What they and Lincoln desperately needed, to keep alive slight hope, was a victory by Wigan at Northampton on Thursday.

But the Cobblers earned a point in a 3-3 draw, with both sides holding the lead at different times. Wigan's Paul Rogers was sent of after 37 minutes, when it was 1-1. The point dragged Northampton out of the bottom four, and put Oldham into the top relegation place instead.

Colchester, the other team promoted last season, via the playoffs, have hauled themselves out of trouble with Tuesday's excellent home result, a 2-1 victory over promotion contenders Bournemouth. Our former centrehalf David Greene, was on the scoresheet again, but unfortunately at the wrong end, to equalise for Bournemouth. It cancelled out an own goal which gave Bournemouth the lead, before Jason Dozell netted the Colchester winner.

Notts County got over the shock of losing to us on Saturday by ending their worries on Tuesday with a 1-0 home win in a six-pointer against Wycombe, thanks to a penalty by Gerry Creaney.

That left Wycombe in 22nd place, and like Lincoln and Macclesfield looking hopefully for the result of Thursday's game at Sixfields.

Wigan went to Northampton chasing a double, having already won the Auto Windscreens Shield by beating Millwall 1-0 at Wembley. That success left them with games in hand, which explains their programme this week: Thursday's was their third match in six days, after two home wins, 4-1 against Reading on Saturday and 3-1 against Lincoln on Tuesday.

Champions Fulham are poised to collect their 100th point of the season today, to welcome back Kevin Keegan from his England duties which look like ending his career at Craven Cottage. They are away to Burnley this afternoon. Walsall will claim the other promotion place if they beat struggling Oldham at the Bescot, and at the very least are sure of being in the play-offs.

Preston lost ground when they were held to a 2-2 draw at Millwall on Saturday, conceding two goals in the last six Walsall, meanwhile, were winning 1-0 at Lincoln with a goal by Darren Wrack, whose 13 this season have included two against us.

The victory left Walsall needing just two points from their last three games to clinch automatic promotion. Whether they get it or not, Ray Graydon surely should be manager of the season for what he has achieved with a club which kicked off as one of the favourites for relegation. And they have done it with crowds averaging less than ours, just over 5,000.
