

FRIDAY NIGHT'S GAME

IRISH youth international Gary Doherty became an emergency striker for the second half and fired two goals to prevent Second Division Luton being dumped out of the FA Cup.

Third Division Lincoln had snatched a 15th-minute lead through Gavin Gordon's neat finish and then defended expertly to leave Luton's attack frustrated.

But boss Lennie

Lawrence reshuffled his team at the interval sending Doherty up from centre-half to centre forward, where he used to play in the youth team.

It worked perfectly with Doherty equalising on 63 minutes after a mix-up between defender and keeper, and then levelling again on 84, sliding into an open net after Dave Barnett had regained the lead for Lincoln.
