

Myhill acrobatics not enough to keep hitman Howard at bay

HULL CITY goalkeeper Boaz Myhill was a mountain that Luton could not conquer until late in the game.

Myhill's brilliant work was undone when yet another slick move by the visitors ended with Steve Howard blasting the ball into the roof of the net.

Luton were completely on top in the second half, so much so that it was hard to reconcile the fact that these two clubs came up together from League One last season.

The way his team succumbed to their third successive defeat was a worry for Hull manager Peter Taylor.

Hull 0 Luton 1

05/06

'Boaz played very well but I was concerned that he needed to do that,' said Taylor, whose injury woes grew when right-back Danny Coles was carried off early in the game.

Luton boss Mike Newell, who is delighted with his side's start in the Championship, said: 'We controlled the game and played the better football. It would have been frustrating if we hadn't won.'