

Burnley sink deeper into mire after drawing blank

NOT EVEN changing the ⁰⁶/₀₇ colour of the team's shorts and socks could bring Burnley their first win since the end of November.

The result leaves both teams fighting relegation but it was new Luton boss Kevin Blackwell who was the happier of the managers.

Blackwell said: 'It would have been nice to win, but I am delighted with the players, especially their application and workrate in the second half.'

Burnley's best chances came in the first half and both fell to leading scorer

BURNLEY 0 LUTON 0

Andy Gray, but on each occasion he was denied by Luton keeper Dean Brill.

Luton, at the foot of the table, had the better of the second half, with chances falling to Dean Morgan.

Clarets boss Steve Cotterill said: 'The first half was OK, but the second was more of a problem. We looked lacklustre and scared.'

'We are not downbeat, just disappointed, and it's been a long time since the supporters have seen their team win.'