

VALIANT WORLD

LUTON TOWN v PORT VALE

Saturday 22nd September 2007
Kenilworth Road
Coca-Cola League One

SAVE OF THE MATCH

David Bell liked a pop at goal and a second half strike that was, for all the world, a goal, was prevented with a superb stop by Joe Anyon.

SHOT OF THE MATCH

Clearly David Bell's earlier shot was just a sighter for the second goal that put paid to the Valiants. This buoyed the home side, whose fans paid homage to a wonder goal.

REF WATCH

Oh dear, this was not a good display from Paul Melin. Plenty of 'stop-start' and a few questionable decisions, though the main one revolved around Ashley Westwood.

MOAN OF THE MATCH

It has to be the straight red for Ashley Westwood. Referees need to decide what language they are happy with and what they are not. They have to be consistent. I don't know what was said and I don't want to, but players have stayed on for some appalling abuse to officials in the past. I know, I've heard it pitch-side.
