"There have to be changes in the side tonight as several loan players are not allowed to play because they were signed after the initial game at Luton, but everyone in the camp is feeling the hurt from Peterborough and is very determined to produce a display that can give all of us a much needed boost."

THE MANAGER

A big welcome back to Griffin Park for tonight's FA Cup 1st Round Replay against Luton Town. It seems an eternity ago since that draw at Kenilworth Road which also followed a League defeat from the previous Saturday. However, the loss at Macclesfield was nothing compared to the hammering at Peterborough three days ago. It has been difficult to write this article as the painful memories from that match are still very fresh and raw. It was mission impossible after Simon Brown's first minute sending - off and the converted penalty that resulted from his challenge, as Peterborough scented an early kill and the three points. There is no doubt in my mind that Darren Ferguson's side will be in the top three at the end of the season, as it ranks with MK Dons as the best two teams in the Division. It was, obviously, a shell-shocked coach journey home, after the game, but this match tonight represents an immediate opportunity to get back on to the pitch and channel all the frustration, anger and disappointment into putting on a performance that truly represents Brentford FC. It's similar to getting back on to a bike after a bad fall. I have never lost a game by seven goals either as a player or a coach, but I was at Ipswich in 1978 (as a Reserve) when Aston Villa defeated Bobby Robson's team by the same score line at Villa Park on the last Saturday of the season. Virtually the same players then went on to lift the Cup in the Final, the next weekend, with a Roger Osborne goal defeating the favourites, Arsenal.

FA Cup football is, at the moment, a welcome diversion from the three points of League Two, and, as there has to be a winner on the night, it gives us a chance to erase the bitter recollections of the weekend. There have to be changes in the side tonight as several loan players are not allowed to play because they were signed after the initial game at Luton, but everyone in the camp is feeling the hurt from Peterborough and is very determined to produce a display that can give all of us a much needed boost.

Luton travel to London tonight following a great win against Southend, which gave Kevin Blackwell's side some good news after the Club had gone into Administration. I have great sympathy for Kevin, as I was in the same boat at Motherwell, five years ago, although the Club had already sacked 19 players by then. It is extremely difficult to plan anything, especially for the January transfer window, as the Administrator is in control of every financial decision. Yet, the situation can also bring together the remaining squad, and, judging by Saturday's victory, it would appear that the players have certainly responded. Kevin and his staff are excellent characters and will definitely work hard to keep everyone focused and there are some outstanding professionals on the playing side to ensure that the Club will climb away from the bottom of the table. Yet we have to believe tonight that destiny is in our own hands and that Griffin Park is once again a very difficult place to visit.

Finally, I hope that everyone on and off the pitch shows tremendous unity tonight, as once more Brentford FC has it's back firmly against the wall. The only way forward is to stick together and show the correct discipline and attitude that will, I am convinced, triumph in the end.

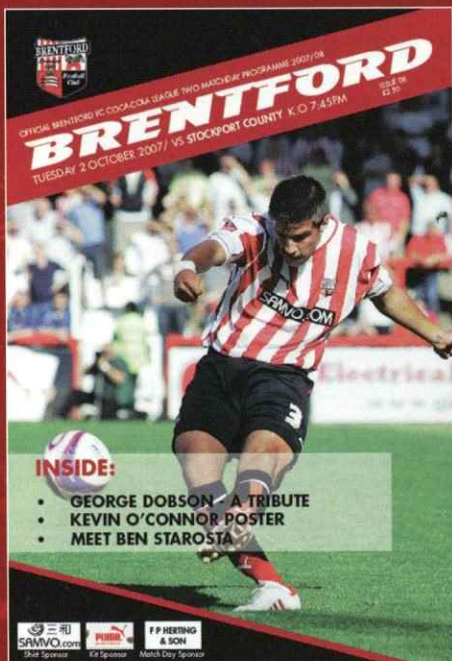

Thanks for your support and enjoy the game.

THIS WEEK AT GRIFFIN PARK

You're aware that we are a Club who are largely (in fact, over) dependent upon revenue from match day attendances and therefore, have the need and the desire to encourage others to come along and join us at Griffin Park.

A look at the latest Profit & Loss sheet for our Club shows that we are overall 'on track' versus Budget and that we're slightly ahead on attendance revenue. Now that's mainly because we tried to build-in a relatively 'safe' figure and then (with extra matches like tonight, for example) we might be able to do even better. So far, so goodbut, room for improvement.

As we think about taking any action (like special promotions) to secure higher attendances, we are certainly aware that those of you who are our most loyal & committed season ticket supporters may feel left out. You may consider that your support is being taken for granted.

So, we have been looking for innovative ways in which we can offer you something exclusive which is not available to anyone other than Season Ticket holders. In addition we want to do this in a way which can build attendance further. Hence the season ticket holders amongst you should expect an Exclusive Offer to drop through your letter box soon. We think you'll be very interested.

For those of you who are Brentford Football Club shareholders and are attending our Annual General Meeting tomorrow evening, you'll see that our Club is reporting a 'bottom line' loss of £61,000 for last year. In perspective, this compares to BFC's reported losses across the past 6 or 7 years of £692,000 on average each year. Also, this compares to Deloitte's Annual Review of Football Finances, May 2007, which shows the average loss for a League 1 Club at £700,000.

Supporters have the opportunity to gain a perspective upon this and other Club matters at the Fans' Forum, which is schedule for later the same evening. The event will be hosted by BIAS (Brentford Independent Association of Supporters) and Greg Dyke, Terry Butcher, Brian Burgess and myself will be in attendance to answer your questions.

As previously announced, we also have a change in Directors of our Club underway. A very warm welcome to Alan Bird and David Merritt, who bring both high calibre 'heads' and Brentford 'hearts' to our Board.

A massive thanks to Brian Burgess (who moves to lead our new stadium project) for all the work that he's undertaken for BFC and, to Joe Bourke who has freely provided his financial expertise across recent years. The real value of their endeavours has not often been apparent, but has none the less been critically important to the survival of our Club.

We also anticipate making an announcement soon regarding taking a big step towards building a brighter future.

Best,

Keith

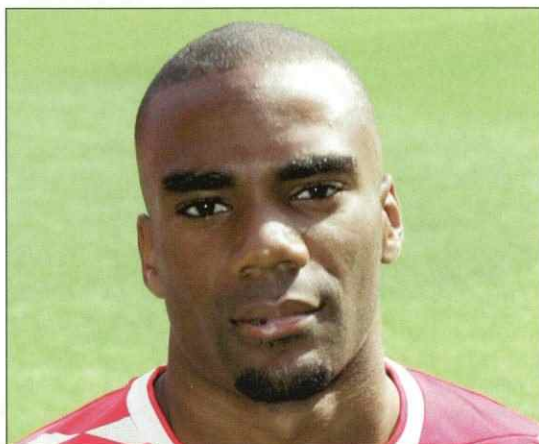

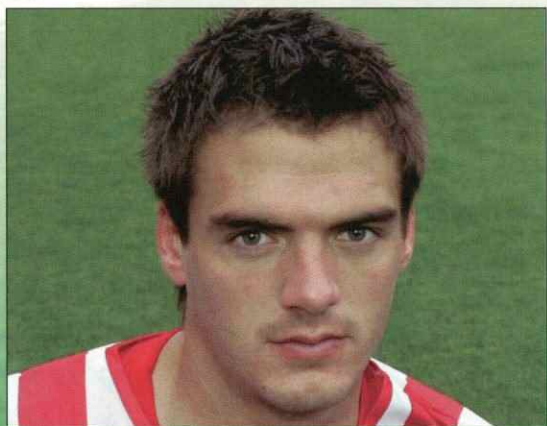

AROUND THE HIVE

Good Evening and welcome one and all to tonight's FA Cup First Round Replay against Luton Town.

Should tonight's tie remain level at the end of 90 minutes play, there will be an additional thirty minutes extra time played. Should the scoreline still remain level, the tie will be decided by penalties.

The winners of tonight's replay will play host to the winner's of the Nottingham Forest versus Lincoln City replay, which is also taking place this evening. The Second Round tie will take place this coming Saturday, 1st December.

In the event that Brentford progress, Saturday's game would kick off at 3pm and would not be All Ticket. The admission prices would be £15 for Adults, £10 for Seniors and £5 for Juniors. However should Nottingham Forest be the opposition there will also be a further reduction for Season Ticket holders which will equate to £12 for Adults and £8 for Seniors. To obtain this further concession, Voucher B from the Season Ticket books would have to be produced.

Since our last programme we have welcomed two new loanees, Ryan Dickson (left) and Emile Sinclair. (above) Both have come to us on a one month loan. Ryan comes from Plymouth Argyle and Emile from Nottingham Forest. Both are ineligible to play for us in the FA Cup.

A reminder to all that our Boxing Day fixture at home to Wycombe Wanderers kicks off at 1pm.

Supporters are reminded that there is a Fan's Forum in The Hive starting at 8pm tomorrow evening. Tickets, which are free, are required for this event, and can be obtained from the downstairs Reception within the Braemar Road forecourt tonight.

There is a Football Quiz in The Hive on Thursday 6th December starting at 7.45pm. Teams of four are invited at a cost of £30 a team. If you are interested please contact the organiser, Nick Hester on 07787 381671. Make a note in your diary of Monday 17th December.

That's the date of this year's Christmas Spectacular. It kicks off at 5pm with the Salvation Army, local carollers and the players getting you into the Christmas spirit in the forecourt while there will be a Christmas Quiz, organised by the GPLZ (see page 53) in The Hive. Then of course at 7.30 the Supporters versus Players match kicks off. Admission for this seasonal event is free. But don't forget to bring some presents with you as we will be making our annual collection of presents for West Middlesex Hospital.

- Brian Barr, one of the oldie regulars in D Block is now recovering at home from a broken hip. He is appreciative of the good wishes from neighbouring fans and hopes to be back before the end of the season.
- Belated Birthday wishes to Season Ticket holder Derek Finch (below) who turned 75 on the 16th November. For the last five years he has been attending with his 11 year old Season Ticket holder grandson Daniel. The greeting comes with love from Linda, Alan, Daniel and Katie.

(SIR) BILLY COTTON JUNIOR

This evening we are delighted to welcome someone whose lifetime contribution to televised light entertainment and variety has very few equals.

Sir Bill Cotton, maybe known to many as Bill Cotton Junior, was one of, if not the, most influential people ever to work at the BBC (our own Chairman apart).

In the 31 years he spent at the Corporation, commencing in 1956, he went from being a producer on such as Six-Five Special, to becoming Head of Light Entertainment, Controller BBC1 and eventually Managing Director of Television.

It was he who was responsible for launching such iconic shows as Monty Python's Flying Circus, The Two Ronnies and Morecambe & Wise onto the unsuspecting British public, and indeed the world.

In 1998 he received a BAFTA Fellowship award for outstanding achievements in the Arts and has also been awarded a CBE and a Knighthood.

However not so generally known is a fact about his father Billy Cotton Senior. He was a Band leader of great renown who had his own Radio and TV series, "The Billy Cotton Bandshow" which ran for twenty years and opened with his catch phrase: "Wakey, Wakey". But maybe of more interest to the Bees fans here this evening is the fact that Billy (Snr) played in goal as an amateur for Brentford during the early 1920s in the London Combination.

We warmly welcome Sir Bill Cotton CBE here to Griffin Park this evening.

COMMERCIAL NEWS

Welcome to Griffin Park for tonight's FA Cup First Round replay with Luton Town.

A warm welcome to all of our Vice-Presidents Club members and guests joining us in the hospitality areas for this evening's match.

UKOS

There are lots of stationery companies...only one stands out

UKOS were chosen as partners of the Club because, uniquely, they support the Club with an on-going commission package for any referral business gained from their partnership with us.

With that in mind, if you run a business or have a say in who your company purchases office products from, please speak to UKOS who will not only match (if they can't beat) your current supplier, but will also offer a payment to Brentford FC as a thank you.

Please email Leigh Hale – leigh.hale@ukosplc.com or call him on 01442 288 300 to reduce your stationery costs and make money for the Club to boot!

Our Match-Day hospitality packages are better value than ever for season 2007/08. Your guests can enjoy all the benefits of the package that we offered in The Hive last season, but for greatly reduced prices!

Our hospitality packages are perfect for celebrating a special occasion, for entertaining clients, or for simply enjoying a day out with the family – a chance to experience a Griffin Park match-day from a different perspective.

As in recent years we are once again offering a special Boxing Day brunch package in the Hive, and it's already proving to be very popular...

Why not treat the family, put the cold turkey on hold for just a little bit longer and let us look after you for the best part of the day – we'll take you on an informative tour of the ground before serving you up a feast of bacon, eggs, sausages and the like. And don't worry if you're still feeling a little tender from the previous day's festivities, there's also cereal, fruit, coffee and juice on offer.

You can then enjoy the match with Wycombe Wanderers from the comfort of the Silver Area, before returning to the Hive at full-time to vote for and meet the Man of the Match.

The cost is just £50 for adults and £30 for juniors – adult season ticket holders can upgrade for just £30, juniors for just £25.

Space is limited so please call me on 0845 3456 442 (option 2) or email sales@brentfordfc.co.uk to book your place or for more details.

See page 17 for regular Hospitality Opportunities

Matt Heywood was voted by our Vice-Presidents Club members and guests in The Hive as Man of the Match for the Darlington match. Matt wins a meal for two at the fabulous Radisson Edwardian Hotel, Heathrow.

Remember if there's any commercial aspect of the Club that you'd like to discuss, however big or small, please call me on 0845 3456 442 (option 2) or email me on the address below.

In the meantime, enjoy the match!

BEES UNITED

The Brentford Supporters' Trust

The new chairman of Bees United has called on all Brentford supporters to back the trust as it looks to secure the Club's future for future generations. Dave Merritt was elected as the new chairman of the trust last Monday, November 19th, replacing Brian Burgess in the role, and has encouraged everyone to get involved. He said: "My message to members and to those considering becoming members is to join up, let us know your views, and help."

Dave has been quick to pay tribute to his predecessor and the work he has done in taking the Trust to their current position as majority shareholder of the club, but he has emphasised that Bees United (BU) will be moving forward and has outlined four areas where he feels the trust needs to work: BU's relationship with the Club (including its funding commitments); the relationship with members (both existing and potential); interaction and fundraising with the community; and making the Trust run efficiently. He said they needed to attack them in parallel. "It would be easy to say the Club is the most important, or the members are, but they are all priorities," he said. "We need to work out the issues in each area and how we are going to resolve them."

Dave was co-opted onto the Bees United board earlier this year and said he made came up with these four targets following that spell. He added that the Board was also looking at improving the transparency of the trust, a subject raised at the recent BU AGM, but admitted this had to be done in the context of running a professional organisation dealing with sensitive commercial interests. "The point being made was that members have to know who they are voting for, which I agree with, but we also have to make sure that BU is seen by everyone – members, the Club, investors, large corporations – as a serious professional organisation."

He stood for election this autumn and was confirmed in the position at the BU AGM ten days ago.

He has also been nominated to sit on the Brentford Football Club board, which should be confirmed tomorrow (Wednesday) at the Club's AGM. It will mean a change for the trust, with Brian Burgess no longer in the chair, Bruce Powell standing down from the BU board and Joe Bourke no longer on either the trust or Club board, and Dave feels it means the introduction of a new phase in BU. "We have been reliant on a few people because they have been willing to put in the time" he said. "Bees United is in a good state and can achieve a huge amount going forward, but most people involved have full time jobs and we need to come up with a new way of working."

"I don't want Bees United to be a talking shop – all of us need to achieve something and I'm looking to support the idea of direct ownership of issues by board members."

Dave is well aware of the challenge he faces meeting his four targets but said he is looking forward to the task, and of being on the Club board, should he be approved.

"I am not doing the job because I want to be patted on the back, I am doing it because I think it needs doing," he said. "I've spent the last few weeks teaching my 4-year old daughter the "red/white ribbon" cup song, and I want to ensure the football club is around for her to come and watch when she has children. I think the role of Bees United is critical, and if I can help I want to do so."

Being a long-standing Brentford fan Dave is anxious to see success on the pitch, but made it clear he would be very uncomfortable gambling with the Club's future in the hope of short-term improvement.

"Football is an entertainment business and people don't enjoy it when we are losing," he said. "Results on the pitch are absolutely critical, but we have to balance how we achieve that. I would rather have 20 years of competitive football in Leagues One and Two than two or three years pushing for the Championship, failing and going bankrupt. If someone comes along who can truly transform the finances of the Club I would be ecstatic, but in the meantime my job is to make sure Brentford Football Club is here to stay."

Written by Chris Wickham.

A full review of the Bees United AGM and board changes will appear in the next home programme.

MEET LUTON TOWN

KEVIN BLACKWELL

Luton are going through a torrid time off the pitch at the moment.

Just under a fortnight ago the club were issued with over 50 charges by the Football Association in connection with alleged breaches of rules.

Then five days ago they were deducted 10 League points after going into administration. The decision left them bottom of the League One table seven points adrift of safety before Saturday's game with Southend.

LUTON AND THE FA CUP

Luton have a good record in the FA Cup - reaching the final once and the semi-finals twice.

Their Wembley appearance in the 1958/59 season as an old Division One club came after they beat three other top flight teams, Leeds, Leicester and Blackpool, but in front of a capacity crowd of 100,000 at Wembley they lost 2-1 to Nottingham Forest.

Luton had a superb time in Cup competitions in the 1980s - winning the League Cup and finishing runners-up the following season, reaching the Simod Cup final and that decade also saw their two runs to FA Cup semi-finals.

In 1984/85 they lost 2-1 after extra-time to Everton at Villa Park - their eighth game of that season's competition. They beat Stoke in a replay and then saw off Huddersfield before finally overcoming local rivals Watford at the third attempt in round five. They then beat Millwall to reach the last four.

Three years later it was Wimbledon who ended their hopes of reaching the final with a 2-1 semi-final win at White Hart Lane. The Hatters had beaten Hartlepool, Southampton, QPR and Portsmouth to reach that stage.

PREVIOUS FA CUP MEETINGS

This is the third season in which we have faced Luton in the FA Cup.

The first occasion turned into a marathon fourth round tie in 1951/52 when we were both in the old Second Division. The first game at Kenilworth Road saw the Bees hit back from a two-goal deficit to earn a 2-2 draw and then the sides shared a goalless draw here in the replay before Luton edged the second replay at Highbury 3-2 in front of nearly 38,000 people.

Our other FA Cup meeting was in the third round three seasons ago and goals from Chris Hargreaves and Jay Tabb in the final 19 minutes earned us victory.

You can read full reports on these ties on pages 48 to 51 of tonight's programme.

THE MANAGER

Kevin Blackwell was appointed as Luton boss in March, replacing Mike Newell.

The Luton-born manager was previously in charge at Leeds, who he led to the Championship play-off final two seasons ago, and was also a coach at Sheffield United, where he worked alongside Neil Warnock.

In his playing days he was a goalkeeper for Barnet and Scarborough and then followed Warnock to Notts County, Torquay, Huddersfield, Plymouth and Bury before hanging up his gloves at Bramall Lane.

THE PLAYERS

(Squad numbers in brackets)

Former trainee Dean Brill (1) is likely to continue in goal

LUTON TOWN

tonight and there is unlikely to be a substitute keeper on the bench.

The back four is likely to feature the experienced Chris Perry (5) (ex-Wimbledon, Tottenham, Charlton and West Brom), at right-back, and summer signing Richard Jackson (12) (ex-Scarborough and Derby) at left-back. The central defenders should be club captain and former Brentford loan player Chris Coyne (6) (ex-West Ham and Dundee), who played eight games for us in 1998, and on-loan Bolton defender Jaroslav Fojut (31). Left-back Alan Goodall (3) (ex-Bangor City and Rochdale) and full-back and ex-trainee Keith Keane (21) are likely substitutes but Paul Underwood (24) (ex-Enfield and Rushden), and Sol Davis (26) (ex-Swindon) are both injured.

The make-up of tonight's midfield will depend on whether on-loan duo Marc Wilson (33) from Portsmouth and Anthony Grant (34) from Chelsea are allowed to play.

David Bell (8) (ex-Rushden) should be on the right while Northern Ireland international Steve Robinson (14) (ex-Tottenham, Bournemouth and Preston), Dave Edwards (16) (ex-Shrewsbury), who made his senior Wales debut in Germany last week, former Scotland international Don Hutchison (4) (ex-Hartlepool, Liverpool, West Ham (two spells), Sheffield United, Everton, Sunderland, Millwall and Coventry) and former trainee Matthew Spring (25) (ex-Leeds and Watford), in his second Luton spell, are competing for places in the centre along with Wilson and Grant.

Darren Currie (10) (ex-West Ham, Shrewsbury, Barnet, Wycombe, Brighton and Ipswich) should be on the bench but Richard Langley (22) (ex-QPR (two spells) and Cardiff) is injured and ex-trainee Stephen O'Leary (15) unlikely to feature.

Former Northern Ireland international Paul McVeigh (28) (ex-Tottenham and Norwich) and ex-trainee Calvin Andrew (20) form the likely forward line, although Paul Furlong (29) (ex-Enfield, Coventry, Watford, Chelsea, Birmingham and QPR) may be in contention after injury. Drew Talbot (19) (ex-Sheffield Wednesday) should be among the substitutes but Sam Parkin (9) (ex-Chelsea, Swindon and Ipswich) and Paul Peschisolido (11) (ex-Birmingham (two spells), Stoke, West Brom, Fulham, Sheffield United and Derby) are both sidelined.

UP FOR THE CUP!

Welcome to GP on a lovely Tuesday evening for tonight's FA Cup game against Luton Town. The first match of course was a while ago now and we hope that everyone out there has had their hair done already so they won't miss tonight's game. The winners will be meeting either Forest or Lincoln City. Co-incidentally, on the 27th October we played Lincoln at GP and Luton played Forest, both home wins!!!

We are of course not the only Middlesex based club playing an FA Cup replay, but before I go on, just a little bit of info. In the 4th qualifying round, we lost two other Middlesex sides as Hayes and Yeading lost at Maidenhead and Wealdstone lost at Hampton & Richmond. The Beavers therefore qualified for the first round and were drawn at home to Dagenham & Redbridge. Before a crowd of 2,252, H&R held out until half time, but D&R scored three in the second half. H&R manager Alan Devonshire, who once played for the Bees reserves (!) said "It was a flattering scoreline because we were on top for an hour. We needed to score after half time when we had a few chances. I think we lost confidence when they scored."

The other Middlesex based side in round one were Staines who had already created a shock by winning at Blue Square Premier side Woking in the 4th qualifying round. Staines were drawn at Stockport. Stocky went one up just after the break, but Marc Charles Smith equalised for the Swans with about 15 minutes to go. Steve Cordery, the Swans boss was justifiably pleased and said "We felt we could cause them problems and we did. Even when they scored our heads never dropped. I was very pleased. It is a great result-one of the best in the clubs history." The replay was scheduled for last Thursday and I am sure many Bees fans watched it either at Wheatshaf Park or on the box. The winners were due to play at home to Peterborough. Horsham v Swansea and Harrowgate Railway v Mansfield are the two chosen live ties for the second round.

The BBC live game in the first round saw Lloyd Owusu's Yeovil travel to Torquay to take on Chris Hargreaves and the boys. No luck for Lloyd as his side were hammered by the non-leaguers, managed by Ex-Bee Paul Buckle. Paul Buckles ten minute predecessor Leroy Rosenior was in the commentary box! Some other Ex-Bees who made the headlines included Kevin Rapley who put Barrow 1-0 up against Bournemouth, Leo Fortune-West who scored the winner for Cambridge, Calum Willock, on target for Port Vale and Matt Harrold, Southends match winner! The FA Trophy is moving on and in the last round we lost Hillingdon Borough. However, Uxbridge, Wealdstone and Northwood made it through. Northwood now will face a trip to AFC Wimbledon.

More on the Trophy and Vase next time. Let's hope for a great game tonight, hold onto your hats everyone, this could go to penalties.

FA CUP ROUND ONE REVIEW

Part One - Gerard Butler

As Round One nears its conclusion, here is how teams outside League Two fared in the First Round of the FA Cup

Blue Square Premier Torquay took pride of place by beating League One Yeovil 4-1, after Marcus Stewart had put the visitors ahead. Braces from Chris Todd and Danny Stevens set up a memorable triumph for the Gulls.

Blue Square North BARROW (right) held League One AFC Bournemouth to a 1-1 draw; Kevin Rapley opened the scoring for the hosts after 19 minutes, but the Cherries equalised through Jem Koracan on the stroke of half-time. The replay was the shock which got away as Nick Rogan and Jason Walker gave the visitors a lead which they held going into stoppage time, only for Max-Alain Gradel to convert a levelling penalty, and the hosts to win it 3-2 right at the end of extra time, through Danny Hollands.

Division One colleagues Cheltenham and Brighton tried again after a 1-1 draw; Adam El-Abd and Dean Hammond putting the Seagulls through 2-1 after their last-gasp leveller in the first game. Leyton Orient also drew 1-1 with Bristol Rovers, whilst it was all square at Boundary Park too as Oldham lost a two goal lead with a James Hayter brace earning Doncaster a 2-2 draw. Darlington and Northampton shared a 1-1 draw, but the Cobblers progressed 2-1 in the replay through Andy Kirk and Bradley Johnson.

In games featuring Non-League sides, Ryman Premier Billericay took a first-half lead but visiting League One Swansea won 2-1 whilst Blue Square Premier Altrincham went ahead on the stroke of half-time through Chris Senior, but Millwall replied through Alan Dunne's penalty, which saw Alty reduced to ten men. Will Hoskins got the Lions' winner.

Biggest winners of the day were Hartlepool, who won 6-0 at Blue Square North Gainsborough.

There will be several Non-League sides in the Second Round, though, alongside Forest Green, Torquay and Rushden, making it nine in total from the Blue Square Premier. Cambridge United are among them as they came from behind to beat ten man colleagues Aldershot 2-1. Weymouth progressed too, following a 4-0 win at Blue Square South Eastbourne Borough, where Stuart Beavon scored a hat-trick in seven minutes, earning the player of the round award. Exeter overwhelmed league rivals Stevenage 4-0, whilst Burton claimed the same scoreline at Halifax thanks to doubles from Daryl Clare and John McGrath, and Oxford United beat Northwich 3-1.

Ten man Kidderminster triumphed 2-0 at Ryman One North Ware. Blue Square South Havant & Waterlooville are the only representatives left from their league, following a 1-0 win at York, whilst Ryman Premier Horsham are in the Second Round for the first time ever as they beat Blue Square South Maidenhead 4-1 helped by Lee Carney's brace, whilst two other names who hit the headlines in recent seasons are back, sharing the distinction of being the lowest ranked sides remaining. Harrogate Railway Athletic of Unibond One North beat a Droylsden side three levels above them, 2-0, whilst Southern One Midlands Chasetown won 2-0 at a Team Bath side in the league above them.

Part Two - Ian Westbrook

Meanwhile, here we have a run down on our fellow League Two sides in the competition.

HAPPY HEREFORD

Hereford pulled off one of the biggest shocks in this season's FA Cup first round when they won 1-0 in their replay at Leeds last Tuesday.

The Bulls had held the former winners to a goalless draw in the televised first leg at Edgar Street and Lionel Ainsworth's third minute strike at Elland Road proved to be enough to win the tie.

Delighted Hereford boss Graham Turner said: "When we look back at the record of Hereford's cup exploits, it is another big scalp in its fairly illustrious history."

STOCKPORT SHATTERED

Stockport crashed out five nights ago when they suffered a 4-3 penalty shoot-out defeat at Staines after a second 1-1 draw between the sides.

It is the first time our near non-League neighbours have reached the second round in their history.

MISERABLE MILLERS

By contrast the same night proved a sorry one for Rotherham, who were dumped out of the competition by Blue Square Premier (Conference) side Forest Green. The Millers had hit back from 2-0 down in the first leg to earn a 2-2 draw and the replay but the non-Leaguers made no mistake the second time around as they secured a comfortable 3-0 triumph at Millmoor.

WINNERS AND LOSERS

A total of nine League Two clubs have secured their place in the second round - while two more (us and Lincoln) have the chance to join them.

Apart from Hereford, other giant-killers were Grimsby and Barnet.

The Mariners beat then League One leaders Carlisle 1-0 in another of last week's replays, with a second half goal by Gary Jones, after a 1-1 draw in Cumbria.

Barnet only needed one game to see off Gillingham, overturning a half-time deficit with second half goals from Ismail Yakubu and Liam Hatch to win 2-1.

In the all-League Two ties Peterborough hammered Wrexham 4-1 and Bradford beat Chester 1-0 but the other four winners all comfortably saw off non-League clubs.

Bury found things easiest as they swept aside Workington 4-1 while there were 3-0 wins for Mansfield over Lewes, Notts County against Histon and Dagenham & Redbridge at Hampton & Richmond.

Meanwhile Macclesfield were the victims of a Cup shock when they slumped to a 3-1 defeat at ex-League club Rushden & Diamonds.

And along with Wrexham and Chester, the other eight League Two sides to go out all lost to teams from League One.

Unused Subs: Andy Oakes & Richard Ravenhill.

SCORERS: Clark Keltie 17 pen, Tommy Wright 37.

A Clark Keltie penalty and a scrappy Tommy Wright goal gave The Quakers a lead they never looked like relinquishing, although they had to defend well, and be thankful for Brentford's inaccuracy in front of goal, to ensure they took all three points.

The visitors started brightly and an early Gregg Blundell cross was turned away but it was Brentford who had the first sight of goal, Sammy Moore screwed a shot wide from the edge of the box then had a curled free kick deflected wide. Matthew Heywood had a fierce volley blocked and Charlie Ide blazed over the bar from a tight angle but the game swung Darlington's way minutes later. Bees' skipper John Mackie was penalised for a trip on Wright and Keltie dispatched the penalty past Simon Brown.

The visitors grew in confidence, Blundell forced a save from Brown and Heywood had to be alert to prevent Michael Cummins a run on goal after a nice Blundell lay-off.

Brentford tried to find a way back into the match, Moore fired a scissor kick over the bar and had a shot blocked soon after while Darlington goalkeeper David Stockdale was forced into a save from Glenn Poole.

And Brentford's missed chances came back to haunt them when Darlington extended their lead after a quick break from a Bees corner.

Keltie's fine long pass found Julian Joachim on the right, he bundled his way past Kevin O'Connor and picked out Blundell with a fine cut back, the first shot was blocked but when the Quakers' striker lofted the ball back in Wright managed to bundle it home at the far post.

Brentford knew they had to throw everything at Darlington in the second period and after a quiet start they did, and it led to a thrilling end-to-end last half hour or so.

Stockdale saved superbly from Moore early in the half after Ide had an effort blocked but the best chances in the opening stags of the second period fell to the visitors.

Mackie and O'Connor had to combine to deny Blundell when he ran clear and substitute Pawel Abbott shot straight at Brown from the re-bound when it seemed easier to score.

And the Brentford goalkeeper saved brilliantly from a Ritchie Foran header minutes later when he connected with a Joachim cross.

The introduction of loanee Ryan Dickson revitalised The Bees and his first act was to hare down the left and find Ide with a deep cross but the shot was blocked.

That proved to be the story of the last 30 minutes, Brentford laying siege to the Darlington goal but were unable to find a way through.

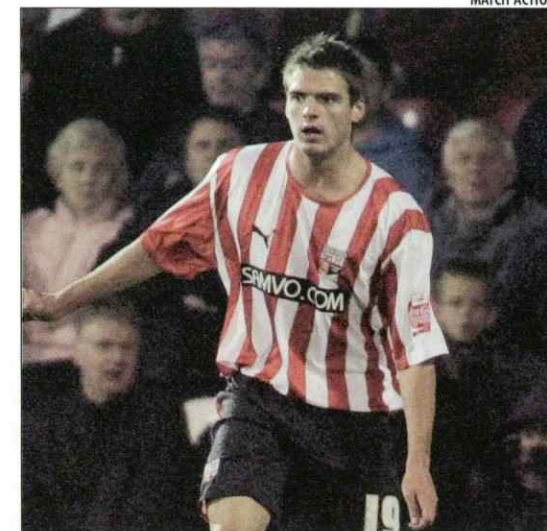

Poole curled a free kick narrowly over and had a shot blocked and Ide had another effort deflected away minutes later.

It was not proving to be Brentford's day; substitute Alan Connell couldn't find a way to convert a Thorpe nod down and Ide screwed the follow-up wide.

The visitors were still dangerous on the break, Blundell heading wide after another quick break but most of the action was in the Darlington half, Mackie had a header blocked, Connell volleyed over and Moore couldn't convert a Ben Starosta cross at full stretch.

And when Stockdale produced a brilliant double save from Thorpe with less than three minutes remaining Brentford were pretty much resigned to their fate.

Brown produced a fine save to deny Joe Colbeck and Connell placed a shot over late on but despite frantic late attacking the game finished, as it seemed destined to from the 60th minute, with a 2-0 Darlington win.

CENTRE BUSINESS

With so many home games coming up in short succession there won't be too many things happening to write about from our games programme. So it might be a good chance to let you know about some of the behind the scenes business that goes on.

I am currently putting together a 'Youth Development Grant Aid Funding Submission for 2007/08' which in plain English is the very important document that will decide whether we get our Grant paid or not! Consequently it is not something that can be taken lightly, it has to be approved by the FA and all the funding partners. It is up to 30 + pages so far and it feels like they will even know when we flush the loo it's that detailed.

To be fair to the Football Association it's not as bad as it used to be. There is a guide in the form of a suggested template and pages upon pages of questions that if you answer right will form the basis of the submission they want. In the past I've spent weeks, even months in the those early days preparing and sending off the paperwork only to have it produce even more questions that needed to be addressed. The document was altered and sent back and forth until all parties were satisfied. It is a substantial amount of money which we could not operate without so it is currently the main project I'm working on and some others have had to go on the back burner for a short while.

Back to the football, our teams were in action against Leyton Orient last week and I had good reports back from the team managers. I actually missed the games as I was at Keele University on a course, I feel like I have a time share there the amount of courses I've attended in order to comply with my Personal Development Plan. (Just another requirement).

This weekend we have arranged games against Swindon Town who are normally outside our area so it will be very interesting to see how they go.

Today it is the under 14's who get the chance to feature in the photo.

YOUTH TEAM

On a pitch sodden with the rain that had fallen incessantly over the previous few days, Brentford and Swindon Town kicked off last weeks FA Youth Cup Second Round tie in front of a crowd of 201.

The visitors took the lead with a first minute penalty. Seb Brown did particularly well to thwart Tom Evans spot kick only to see him follow up with a header into the back of the net.

Swindon had the better of the early play whilst the hosts were struggling to make their mark on the match following the early set back.

A good run by Macklin after 6 minutes looked dangerous for The Bees before the player over ran it in the area. From the game's first corner two minutes later Sam Morris headed against The Bees crossbar.

Seb Brown received the only card of the first half when accidentally handing the ball outside the area. From the free kick, Morrison's shot was deflected wide of the post. A promising move for The Bees in the 15th minute ended when Stephen Hendry lost control in the area.

A short back pass ten minutes later by Brad Falco allowed Hyde a chance of a second for the visitors. But Falco recovered well to ward off the danger.

Three minutes later a shot by Evans took a wicked deflection and was palmed away by Brown from under the bar. A great run by Hendry in the 31st minute saw him play a 1-2 with Chris Flood, before firing in a shot which was taken by the keeper.

But then in the 38th minute Swindon doubled their lead when Ben Joyce chipped the ball home from within the area. With seconds to go to the break Tom Baddeley went close for The Bees with a free kick which was cleared from directly below the crossbar by Scott.

So the half time came with Brentford seeing more of the play but Swindon looking good value for their two goal lead. A determined looking Brentford side came out for the second half. A fine run by Hendry in the 56th minute saw him make good ground but his shot lacked the quality of his run. A minute later and George Davis's shot from the edge of the area flew high over the bar.

On the hour a free kick on the edge of the area was forcefully struck by Lewis Ochoa and brilliantly pushed around the post by Scott.

Six minutes on and Hendry shot across the area with the ball deflecting to Lee Jerrum who found room only to see his firmly struck shot well blocked again by Scott.

The balance of the play was now shifting fast to the home side although the visitors still posed a danger.

In the 74th minute Macklin's mazy run deserved more than the corner which materialised. From it Taylor's lob goalwards was cleared off the line by Ochoa.

In the 79th minute Falco was alert to a loose ball in the area and ran on strongly. But his resultant shot ran wide of the keeper and the right hand post.

With three minutes left on the clock The Bees got the goal they deserved when following Ryan Hirooka's cross into the area Brad Falco seized on the chance and thrashed the ball home.

It led to a feverish few minutes for the visitors. But they held out.

All in all a game in which Swindon started the more dominant but Brentford deserved better as the game wore on although the final result was in truth a fair one.

Brentford endured a day to forget at London Road as an inspired Peterborough United side made use of playing almost the entire match with an extra man to inflict a heavy defeat.

Aaron McLean's first half hat trick put the home side on their way and goals from Chris Whelpdale, George Boyd, Craig Mackail-Smith and Rene Howe competed a dismal afternoon for the visitors.

The Bees could not have had a worse start, finding themselves a goal and a man down inside the first three minutes.

Boyd's pass found Mackail-Smith and he escaped the attentions of the Brentford defence to get a run on goal, Simon Brown slipped as he advanced and then brought the Peterborough forward down, when McLean failed to convert the re-bound referee Paul Armstrong had little choice but to award a penalty.

The Berkshire official dismissed Brown for denying a goal scoring opportunity and The Bees were forced to introduce Clark Masters, in place of Charlie Ide, to play in goal.

And his first touch was to pick the ball out of the net as McLean dispatched the penalty with aplomb.

The early goal and sending off only served to boost the hosts and they pressed forward, Mackail-Smith cracked a shot wide, Whelpdale headed over and McLean nodded wide.

Peterborough did get their second goal just before the quarter hour when a nice interchange of passes led to Boyd feeding Jamie Day on the left, his cross was met by McLean, who met the ball with a scissor volley which bounced over Masters and in to the corner.

The hosts were beginning to pepper The Bees goal, Masters saved well from Charlie Lee, Boyd fired wide and Micah Hyde shot well over.

McLean was the main danger and Masters denied him with a fine low save after a sharp turn but the Peterborough striker missed a great opportunity for a third goal just before the half hour.

A penalty was awarded against Glenn Poole when he was adjudged to have deliberately handballed a Claude Gnakpa cross but McLean hit the crossbar with his effort from 12 yards.

Masters denied him again with a fine tackle 25 yards from goal when he looked set to race clear and Lee fired across the face of goal before Craig Pead blocked another McLean shot.

But the Posh striker did claim his hat trick minutes before half time rounding off a fine move involving Boyd and Mackail-Smith with a lashed effort into the top corner.

Masters saved brilliantly from Boyd and Lee chipped an effort just over before Whelpdale added a fourth, converting from close range after Lee drilled the ball across.

Boyd scored the fifth soon after the break, firing powerfully in from a tight angle, and Mackail-Smith capitalised on a deflected pass from Day to race clear and slot home the sixth.

Masters produced another brilliant save when Lee's effort looked set for the top corner and denied substitute Howe from eight yards as the visitors failed to clear.

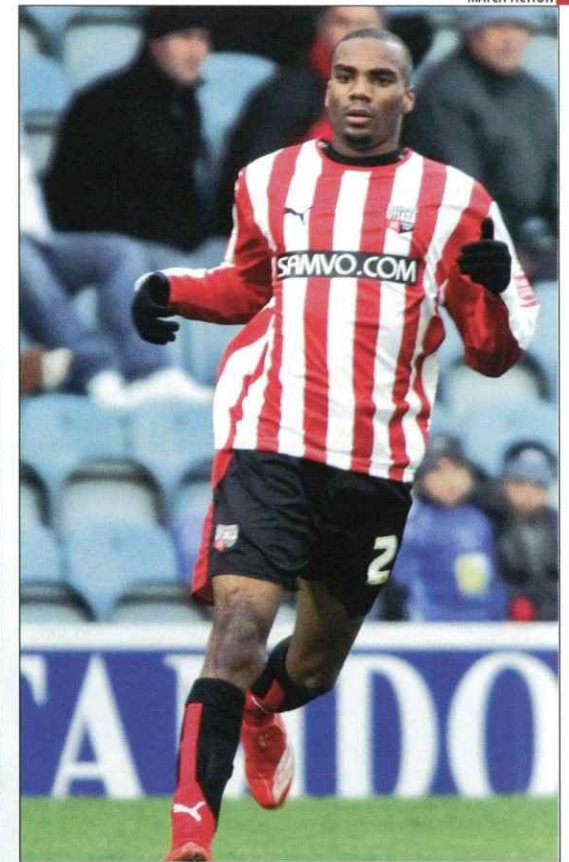

Brentford did have some efforts of their own, Poole lashed a shot in from 30 yards that flew narrowly wide and Lee Thorpe fired over from a corner.

But at the other end Whelpdale fired over and Mackail-Smith had an overhead effort saved before Howe added the seventh when substitute Dean Keates picked him out with an intelligent pass.

Howe headed a Boyd cross against the crossbar minutes later and Whelpdale was denied his second goal of the afternoon when Mr Armstrong adjudged that Masters had been fouled before the wide man put the re-bound in.

Keates shot into the side netting and Whelpdale lashed over before Poole fired over at the other end and John Mackie looped a header onto the top of the net. Howe came close to a goal before the end but Masters saved well again from his low shot before Mr Armstrong brought proceedings to a close.

BRENTFORD THROUGH TIME

The London Challenge Cup was inaugurated in 1908 and contested by the Capitals professional teams. Played in midweek, the competition obviously struggled to attract decent crowds and as time passed its importance was downgraded as clubs resorted to fielding a mainly reserve eleven. Later it was spiced up by the inclusion of a few senior amateur sides with the four semi finalists from the previous seasons London Senior Cup awarded a ticket.

Opposing captains shake hands

Those teams generally came from the Isthmian (top tier) or Athenian (second tier) southern based amateur leagues but in 1952 the mould was broken when Corinthian (third tier) champions Hounslow Town made the cut.

Formed five years before Brentford in 1884 their progress had been slow and only in recent years had they made an impact, winning the Spartan League in 1945-46 and the Corinthian League in 1949-1950 and again two seasons later. And as we shall see later the Red & Blacks were to achieve greater glory as the decade progressed.

Meanwhile, back to October 1952 when the first round draw in the LCC paired them with Brentford at Griffin Park.

Bees manager Jimmy Bain did not take the game lightly, especially with local bragging rights at stake, and apart from Billy Dare, who took Tommy Lawton's place at centre forward, it was the same side that won 2-0 at Doncaster Rovers in a Second Division encounter two days earlier.

Hounslow had flexed their muscles by thrashing Grays Athletic 8-1, Derrick Page contributing five of the goals.

A 5 o'clock kick off did not deter a crowd of 4,017 assembling at Griffin Park, although the Hounslow contingent were given a surprise when Bert Finch took the field at left back. He had been retired for three years and was only there to spectate, but was called into service when skipper and left back Ernie Emmins phoned at the last minute to say his boss was refusing to let him off early.

Finch, who spent his career as an inside forward, was the only alternative and even then had to borrow a pair of boots from Brentford!

Despite this late change of plans Hounslow got off to a bright start and subsequently matched the Bees all over the park to thoroughly deserve a second bite at the cherry following a 0-0 draw.

Brentford: Jefferies, Horne, Munro, Harper, Dargie, Latimer, Goodwin, Monk, Dare, Smith, Ledgerton.
Hounslow: Parsons, Reynolds, Finch, Cope, Briggs, Evans, Skelton, Pope, King, Page, Harper.

Before the replay took place a week later Brentford disposed of relegation bound Southampton 3-0, all the goals arriving in the final ten minutes from Tommy Lawton, Fred Monk and Leslie Smith, while Hounslow surprisingly lost 3-1 at Maidstone, the excuse given that they had one eye on the game against Brentford.

A large Denbigh Road crowd of 3,500 plus was augmented by a bevy of managers and scouts from other clubs, there to run the rule over Brentford's transfer listed former skipper Ron Greenwood who replaced Ian Dargie at centre half.

The man he was set to face, Alan King, was one of the most prolific marksmen of the day, indeed he went on to score 77 of Hounslow's 150 goals the following season topped off by selection for England against France.

However, Greenwood showed the form that had earned him recognition for England "B" a few years earlier and blotted the Hounslow livewire out of the game. It proved to be Greenwood's swansong as a week later he was sold to Chelsea in exchange for Irish International Seamus D'Arcy and a cash adjustment in Brentford's favour.

Even without the cutting edge of a rampant King, Hounslow continued where they left off at Griffin Park and gave Brentford a run for their money. But with time and the light running out young amateur Ayres settled the issue in Brentford's favour with a perfect strike.

The Bees went on to beat Wealdstone 3-1, and Charlton Athletic 2-1 before losing 2-1 to West Ham United in the final at Chelsea.

The attendance of 994 (£52) is explained by a pea-souper fog which blanketed London that afternoon, a regular winter occurrence until the Government brought in the Clean Air Act to alleviate the problem. It was also responsible for the absence of Bill Sperrin.

The bus from his Edmonton home gave up the ghost at Turnpike Lane leaving "Sparrow", as he was nicknamed, to continue on Shanks's pony. This, too, met with disaster when it came to light that he was heading in the wrong direction and found himself in Chingford!

Fortunately Brentford had taken twelfth man Ian Dargie to Stamford Bridge and he filled in.

So what became of Hounslow Town?

Well, they continued in fine fettle and won the Middlesex Senior and Charity Cups but missed out on the Corinthian League title after losing 2-0 to the eventual winners Carshalton Athletic in a photo finish.

The London Charity Cup found its way to Denbigh Road in 1953-54, a campaign in which they attained a place in the last eight of the FA Amateur Cup.

The following year the Red & Blacks reached the semi finals of the FA Amateur Cup where they went down 2-1 to Hendon in front of a crowd of almost 20,000 at Tottenham. In a truly magnificent season Hounslow became the first club whose first and second teams tasted Corinthian League glory in both their respective divisions and for good measure they contested the first round of the FA Cup for the first time, the second half of the 4-2 defeat at home to Hastings United going out live on Television. There were 6,139 present at the game and such was the success they were enjoying, their gates were not far short of Brentford's at one juncture.

A further rise in the rankings came in 1955-56 as an unblemished home record enabled them to finish runners-up in the Athenian League, a competition Hounslow won in 1959-60.

Then in 1962 came the greatest day in the club's history when it graced Wembley in the final of the FA Amateur Cup.

100/1 shots at the outset, Hounslow's victims along the way were Clapton, Dulwich Hamlet, Finchley, Bromley and in the semi's ten times winners Bishop Auckland who succumbed 2-1 in front of more than 13,000 at a far from neutral Griffin Park.

There were 43,000 for the game against Crook Town on football's biggest stage which ended 1-1. The replay at Middlesbrough seven days later represented a bridge too far and the Northerners won 4-0.

A measure of the club's strength at this time is that five of the team were capped by their country while on the books: Derrick Evans and Bill Creasy (England), and Geoff Taylor, Ken MacDonald and Tom McHattie (Scotland).

Hounslow were exempted until the first round of the FA Cup the following season and were then drawn at home to Mansfield.

The Red & Blacks held a two goal advantage until the dying minutes but then ran out of puff just as a giant killing seemed on the cards, as Mansfield came back to draw 3-3. The replay saw Hounslow pummeled 9-2.

The Glory days now faded and the club set off on the road to oblivion. Gates sunk to a few hundred at best and after flirting briefly with the Southern League, Hounslow were contestants in the Hellenic League when the end came in 1991.

Struggling under a mountain of debt they were evicted from Denbigh Road by the local Council, who wanted to build a school on the site, and they merged with Feltham to become the junior partner of Feltham & Hounslow Borough FC. RIP.

BEES v LUTON IN THE FA CUP

We first played Luton Town in the FA Cup back on the 20 November 1909 in a 4th Qualifying Round match played at Griffin Park.

BRENTFORD v LUTON TOWN 20th NOVEMBER 1909
FAC 4th Qualifying Round
BRENTFORD 2 LUTON TOWN 1

"By far the most interesting contest in the English Football Association Cup competition on Saturday was the meeting of Brentford and Luton at Griffin Park. The records of the two clubs in the Southern League are very similar in character, Luton having a slightly better average on points. The match in question was seriously regarded by both clubs, and R Hawkes, the visiting left half back, who was selected to play in the amateur international, excused himself from playing, preferring to assist his club. Brentford were at full strength, and were fairly confident of winning with the advantage of ground.

The afternoon was not an ideal one from a spectator point of view, a ground mist descending over the playing pitch rendering it somewhat difficult to follow the play during a portion of the game. The match started before a fair crowd, which included a good contingent of Lutonians, and after Stansfield and Moody had worked the ball down to the "Bees" end Rhodes transferred to Bartlett, and a pretty piece of play between McCafferty and the right winger ended in a fine centre, which Reid popped past Fry with lightning speed, and the "Bees" secured the lead two minutes from the start.

Following this Luton accrued several corners, and played up in dashing style, but their forwards failed to steady themselves before shooting, and Ling was never seriously troubled excepting for two really fine shots from Stansfield and Quinn. About twenty-five minutes from the start the visiting halves set their forwards going, and a clever piece of play resulted in Smith equalising with a fast shot. Both sides should have increased their lead after this, but unsteadiness in shooting was very prevalent with both lines of forwards. Just before the interval Brown, the visitors' right winger, slipped past Buxton, and Smith found himself in possession with only Ling to beat. He was hotly pursued by Riley, however, who was not quite fast enough to catch him, and a score seemed imminent, when Smith was badly brought down about twenty yards out. The trainer attended him, but he left the field, and beyond a short period in the second half, took no further part in the game. Riley was cautioned by the referee, and it was very unfortunate for the visitors to be handicapped by the loss of so clever a player as Smith. On the journey back to Luton in the evening Smith had a relapse, and Mr Lawson, the chairman of the club, deemed it advisable to stop the St. Pancras express at Kentish Town for the player to be medically attended. To return to the game, the interval arrived with the score one all. The second half was obviously in favour of Brentford, and many chances fell to them to add to their score. After fifteen minutes' play Reid had little difficulty in scoring from an easy position and this ultimately proved the winning point.

Brentford deserved their win, for they were slightly better all round than the visitors. Rhodes played a sterling game at back, and Buxton, who started poorly, finished in fine style. The half backs worked very well together, Riley getting through some quiet but telling work. The forwards gave a good show, Bartlett being the best forward on the field. His dashes and centres were quite a feature of the game, and the two goals obtained by the "Bees" were mainly due to him. Hollinrake was responsible for a fine solo effort towards the close, his shot just grazing the upright. The visitors, however, played with rare pluck, but Smith's absence in the second half was responsible for the somewhat tame exhibition supplied by the Bedfordshire men. The left wing was in fine form in the first half, but the honours went to the right wing after the interval. The Brothers Hawkes and McCurdy were always trying to turn the tide for their side, and put in a lot of work to this end. Fry, who deputised for Jarvis in the Luton goal, gave, a fairly even display, and could not be blamed for the two goals against his side." About 7,500 spectators watched the game, and the gate realised £212 11s. 3d.

Brentford: Ling; Rhodes and Buxton; Richards, Hamilton and Riley; Bartlett, McCafferty, Reid, Hollinrake and Anderson
Luton Town: Fry; Hedley and McCurdy; F Hawkes, Jones and R Hawkes; Brown Quinn, Smith, Moody, Stansfield
Referee: Mr J.G.A. Sharpe

The next encounter was in 1951-52 season when after three attempts Luton ran out winners by 3-2 in a 2nd Replay at Highbury in front of a crowd totalling 37,269. Details of this match appeared in the Luton programme. However, our last encounter with Luton in the FA Cup was a third round tie on the 8 January 2005.

LUTON TOWN v BRENTFORD 8th JANUARY 2005
FAC 3rd Round
LUTON TOWN 0 BRENTFORD 2

A report appeared in the next Brentford Home programme compiled by Chris Wickham...

Brentford made three changes from the team that defeated Walsall five days previously. Sam Sodje was suspended, Alex Rhodes injured and Jay Tabb started the game on the bench. Brentford were able to welcome back Stewart Talbot into the starting line-up, Ben May and Scott Fitzgerald also came back into the team. The first half was not a great spectacle. Both teams were anxious to win the midfield battle and neither was able to do so. Brentford played three central midfielders to nullify Luton's attacking potential and they did that to good effect. Deon Burton playing as a lone front man had the game's first shot on 5 minutes but it was off target and at the other end Steve Howard had a left footed shot that was off target.

The Luton front man had another shot blocked by Fitzgerald and headed wide as he showed just why he has scored so many goals this season. It was ex-Brentford striker Rowan Vine who came closest to breaking the first half deadlock in the 23rd minute; he wriggled free inside the area and shot across Stuart Nelson, who turned the ball past the post. From the resulting corner Howard had the ball in the net, but referee Mariner deemed that he had fouled Chris Hargreaves and disallowed the goal. Much of the rest of the half was contested in the middle third with neither team able to create any clear-cut chances.

The second half started in a similar vein with neither team able to dominate the other. Steve Robinson fired in a shot that dipped just over the bar and Burton had a shot saved by Marion Beresford. Brentford took the lead in the 71st minute. Luton defender Curtis Davies slipped and presented the ball to Isaiah Rankin, he danced around Chris Coyne and got in a shot that was saved by Beresford. Ben May was first to react and he knocked it to Hargreaves who drilled it into the top corner. Talbot almost added a second when Beresford came rushing from his goal and punched only as far as the Bees captain. His shot was off target with the goal gaping. Luton came close to an equaliser two minutes later when Ahmet Brkovic cannoned a shot off the cross bar, but it was Brentford who got the game's second goal with a minute left of the ninety. Ben May controlled a long clearance and turned Coyne. His through ball found Tabb (who had come on for the injured Jamie Lawrence eight minutes earlier) clear and he made room before shooting low past Beresford to send the Bees into Round Four.

GRIFFIN PARK LEARNING ZONE

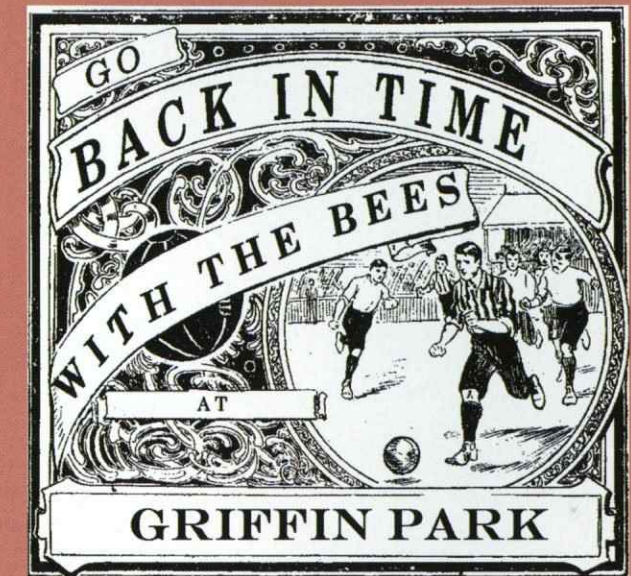

THIS MONTH

Last Saturday saw the Hive buzzing with reading groups from eight Hounslow Secondary Schools: Feltham Community College, Brentford School for Girls, Lampton School, The Green School, Gunnersbury School for Boys, Isleworth & Syon School, Hounslow Manor and Chiswick Community School all took part in the Big Read: Chapter 1. Activities included a presentation skills workshop, a story-writing competition and an introduction to the Big Read Chapter 2, which will take place next summer and involve the groups championing their favourite reads.

NEXT MONTH

Come join us at Brentford FC's Christmas Spectacular on 17th December where the GPLZ team and Questors Theatre are hosting an interactive family quiz in the Hive. Meet some characters from the Club's past and match pictures and costumes from different decades. The quiz is suitable for children over 6 and there will be a colouring activity table to keep smaller children busy. It's free entry and there's a chance to win a Match day hospitality package or tickets to see Cinderella at the Questors Theatre in Ealing. We hope to see lots of you there!

Come on you Bees!

THE NOVEMBER SCENE

MODEL

Brentford's famous and beautiful American "supporter", Cameron Diaz, is needed urgently to attend Griffin Park this year in order to compete with our nearest rivals. Queens Park Rangers have had supermodel Naomi Campbell down to Loftus Road sitting near glamorous socialite Tamara Beckwith. The couple were guests of the Hoops new owner Flavio Briatore, who is also the Managing Director of the Renault Formula One motor racing team. One wonders if troubled pop star Peter Doherty, a former Rangers fanzine editor of "All Quiet on the Western Front" ever took the stunning model, Kate Moss, down to the Shepherds Bush ground?

SUPPORTERS

English fans may boo players to show them dissatisfaction but in Brazil they really know how to create an impact if they are not happy. At Botofogo, they unfurled banners accusing their club of being a "team with no shame" and a "team of wimps". When the supporters met the players off a plane at Rio de Janeiro's airport, they threw women's underwear and popcorn at them. Very tasty!

CHARACTER

Former Chelsea Chairman Ken Bates was always a controversial character when he resided up the road from Brentford at Stamford Bridge. Nothing has changed since he arrived at Leeds. United got deducted 15 points at the start of the season for failing to agree a company voluntary agreement with creditors. The Club matchday programme does not print the Coca-Cola League One table like the other 23 clubs. Instead it presents the "real" table, with Leeds having an extra 15 points. It does not have a page 15 but a page -15. No player has the number 15 shirt this season.

The most recent footballer to play for both Leeds and Brentford was Michael Adams (Bees player 1997). He was preceded by Chris Kamara (1981-85), Trevor Swinburne (1983-85), Frank Dudley (1953-58), George Wilkins (1938-47), Percy Whipp (1929-30), Alan Noble (1925-27), Frank Watson (1925-26), John Allen (1924-27) and Jimmy Walton (1924-26).

CULTURE

In 2008, Liverpool is to become the "European Capital of Culture", with a year long celebration. The opening ceremony will be done by Ringo Starr, and his fellow Beatle Paul McCartney will perform in June at Anfield, the home of the city's most famous football club. It is the first time Great Britain has been honoured since Glasgow, way back in 1990.

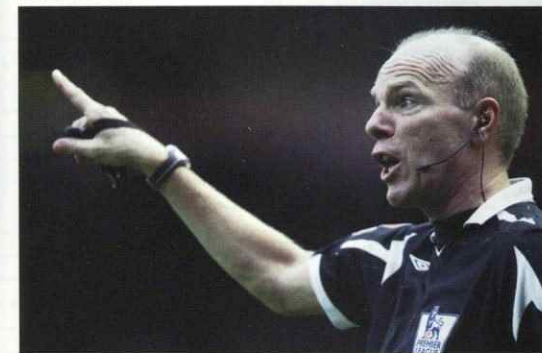

CRIMINAL

Brentford's most unusual supporter was a convict named Maurice O'Mahoney, who attended Brentford home games on the terraces in the mid 1970s handcuffed to a detective. He was serving his sentence at Chiswick Police Station. He never made it to away matches though! Liverpool recently revealed an even more dedicated supporter who is more passionate about his club than his woman. Taxi driver Martin Cooper has just ended his seventh marriage, as none of his wives could cope with his football obsession. Martin plans his life around The Reds home and away fixtures. A son from his sixth marriage to Davina was given the eleven first names of the great 1986 Liverpool football team and his last marriage to Tina only lasted three months.

ATHLETIC

Wigan Athletic supporter Andrew Whittle has produced six daughters over the last twenty two years but his wife, Michaela has just given birth to a son Tyler. The boy's room has been painted blue, he has got his own new Latic's kit and will be taken to his first home fixture soon at the JJB Stadium, in Robin Park, Newtown, where the side play. His six sisters are not too keen on the sport.

REFEREE

The Football Association's Chief Executive, Brian Barwick (a Bees fan when he was younger), has revealed plans to launch a pilot scheme that will only allow a team captain to talk to the referee. It is going to be used at grass roots level, as part of measures to improve behaviour. Let us just hope that the skippers of all the teams can speak English, otherwise communications may be a little difficult.

SPORT

A study has revealed that difficult sports promote different qualities in young people. Football inspires passion and teamwork, whereas golf gives decision making skills and integrity. Athletics promotes self confidence and humility. The best role models for children were David Beckham, Kelly Holmes and Jonny Wilkinson. Brentford supporters must congratulate the national team of that other type of football, for their fantastic performances in the Rugby Union World Cup, in France, this year.

RECORD

The Guinness Book of Records has a new hero this year as Tercio Mariano De Rezende from Brazil has, at the age of 85, been nominated the world's oldest regular football player. Known as Tercao, he plays with his son Enio, for Goiandiva Esporte Clube, for whom he has been playing right wing since he was 60 and is a retired farmer. He is, however, according to his son, a greedy player as he does not pass the ball much. Tercao claims that he can not hear his team mates calling as he removed his hearing aid before matches!

AGE

Brentford's oldest pre War player was James Hodson who was 4 months short of his 41st birthday when he made his final appearance in May 1921 (lost 0-1 away to Plymouth). The oldest post War footballer was Dai Hopkins, the Welsh International, who was 39 years and 4 months old on his final game against Arsenal in May 1947 (lost 0-1). However one must not forget that Eddie Lyons, the Bee's Trainer, played in his own testimonial match against Chelsea in May 1984 at the ripe old age of 63 and Brentford lost 6-3. Nice one Eddie!

Vive Le Body!

- LIGHT
The lightweight highly functioning compression technology offers ultimate support and comfort with minimal bulk.
- OXYGENATING
The Energy system improves oxygen delivery to working muscles and speeds recovery time.
- NON-IRRITATING
Ergonomic flat lock seaming details enhance mobility and eliminate irritation and chafing.
- WICKING
The USP wicking system rapidly moves moisture away from the skin and optimizes body temperature.
- PROTECTIVE
UV protection reduces the effects of the sun's rays.
