MANAGER

Hello and welcome back to Kenilworth Road for our 1st round FA cup clash against Altrincham.

The best and most prestigious knock out competition in football is upon us again. As usual as the competition progresses there will be numerous shocks, surprises and upsets along the way and that's why we will be giving our all to make sure we are in the hat for the next round.

As a player this weekend is special, as hopefully it can be the start of an exciting run in this competition.

It was disappointing, the last time we were here to have our game against Bournemouth abandoned. After discussions between myself, Jimmy Quinn and the referee, the referee decided it was the right decision to start the game.

As the game kicked off there was only one decision to make, the danger to the players was apparent, the roll of the ball was not true and also the importance of the game was a factor. In hindsight the game should never have started, but as they say the referees decision is final. And again, on such a miserable night your support was brilliant.

I would like to thank all the fans who made the trip to Walsall on Tuesday for what was another magical game under the floodlights.

I am sure you will agree with me when I say that we played well, dominating throughout and thoroughly deserved to go through.

I will be looking forward to the draw at the end of the month as we move one step closer to Wembley.

Its great to see Joe Kinnear back in football, he is back on the touchline again and this is where he (JFK as he is known up in Newcastle) is most at home. I'm sure along with me you wish him all the best in his time there.

I would like to extend a warm welcome to Graham Heathcote his staff, players, Chairman and directors and especially you the fans of Altrincham to Kenilworth Road this afternoon and hope you have a safe journey back up the M6.

KEEP THE FAITH

BIG MICK

"As a player this weekend is special, as hopefully it can be the start of an exciting run in this competition."

Welcome to our first home match since the abandoned game against Bournemouth.

The players and ourselves were truly amazed at the turnout on that cold Tuesday night and we sincerely thank all of you who made the effort, both to come to that crucial game and, for those that didn't make it all the way to the ground, to even start your journey in the first place. It was incredibly frustrating for us all that the referee stopped the game so soon after insisting it should start, but with hindsight I think we can all agree that calling off the game was the best decision in the interests of player safety.

We continue to work hard behind the scenes to bring stability to the club, and as every day passes we solve more problems.

Whilst we thought we had exorcised all the ghosts of the previous regime, there are still some that rear their heads. We will deal with these in the same way as all the previous issues and hurdles we have overcome – with honesty, integrity and fairness.

It is of course regrettable that the effort and workload that these issues demand actually detract the management team from pushing forward with plans that help our club develop.

The board of LTFC2020 would like to thank the supporters' groups for the efforts they have made on behalf of fans in order to get the footballing authorities to explain their infamous decisions of July 2008 regarding sanctions and points deductions.

Reading their minutes of the meetings, it is interesting to note that not one person (at the FA or Football League headquarters) can properly explain why Luton Town was given the sanctions it was, not one person can explain the severity of the sanctions versus the leniency given to the perpetrators, not one person can explain the differences in sanctions between large and small clubs, and not one person accepts any responsibility for the penalties given.

Both the FA and the Football League, who essentially control the game in England, seem happy to point fingers and place responsibility with other people, whilst at the same time they seem to accept that they do not need to understand the reasons

Luton Town Football Club Director

behind these decisions.

It is hard to fathom how this protects the integrity of the game, or improves the performance and professionalism of these bodies in the eyes of supporters up and down the country.

Well done to TiL, LLSC and LTSC for exposing these facts as it again shows why all fans should join, at least one, if not all, of the supporters' groups.

On to brighter matters, we would like to wish Geoff Lovell a very happy retirement. Geoff has been responsible for health & safety at Kenilworth Road for many years and he has given LTFC2020 great support by working beyond retirement age due to the turmoil at the club since November 2007.

We fully appreciate the help this has been, and Geoff can now look forward to a fully deserved retirement. We will be announcing a replacement in the very near future.

There is also good news on the injury crisis. Over the next couple of weeks we expect a number of players to return to the side and some are in training now.

We all appreciate that we need our strongest squad to escape the spectre of relegation, and having these players available for selection will make a real difference and give us more options.

In their absence, the younger players have worked extremely hard to keep adding to our points total and I'm sure a number of them will feature in more games before the end of the season.

Please remember that we have a young team and what the players need is our support, encouragement and backing.

Again, the support at Shrewsbury was fantastic and vocal and that is what we need to replicate at Kenilworth Road.

All players respond to such support rather than criticism, and we can assure you that every player who has worn the Hatters shirt this season does so because he is proud to represent our club.

Let's show the players that we are proud of them too.

NICO HOPES THE TEAM CAN START A GREAT CUP RUN THIS AFTERNOON

We picked ourselves up well after a disappointing home defeat against Accrington to pick up a really well earned draw at Grimsby.

Everyone in football knows that Grimsby is not an easy place to go and the game had a bit of extra spice as their new manager is Mike Newell.

It shows just how many injuries we have got at the moment when we have a school boy coming off the bench, but he played well and it was a fantastic experience for him.

Also, It was good to see Tom Craddock get his first two goals for Luton and I think he's going to be a really good signing for us.

Away to Bury was a great result, they were 3rd in the league before the game, but we didn't allow ourselves to be phased and showed fantastic character.

back from injury.

Your support last Saturday at Shrewsbury was brilliant.

I thought the lads played well and we were all disappointed with the result, but we picked ourselves up and played brilliantly in our midweek fixture against Walsall.

I believe it was a well deserved win against the League One side and it brings us one step closer to playing at Wembley.

Hopefully today we can continue in that manner and see the start of a great run in the FA Cup.

I know that you, the fans, along with everyone at the club have strong feelings towards the FA, but this competition is still vital and we want to go far in it so please get behind the lads.

Nico

"If we can win tonight it will be the first time this season that we have won games back to back"

Everyone was disappointed to have our game against Bournemouth called off but I think the referee made the right decision in the end.

It was a big game for us and it also gave us a chance to rest the players and get a few

Everyone at Luton Town was saddened to hear of the passing of Nick Owen's father, Bertie Owen.

Bertie was a Luton Town fan since the early 50's, and he took our current Chairman to his first Luton match in 1958.

The NumbersGame

Simon Pitts looks back at the Hatters previous FA Cup fixtures for the Hatters

Division Championship at the end of the season, were beaten 2-1 by Luton, who were in Division Three (South). Ernie Simms and Louis Bookman, with his only FA Cup goal for the Hatters, scored the goals.

6 Both Andy Rennie and Jimmy Yardley have scored six goals at Kenilworth Road in FA Cup first round ties. Both players also scored four goals in one match. Yardley was the first in November 1927 when Clapton Orient were beaten 9-0, whilst Rennie repeated the feat a year later, this time Southend United were beaten 5-1.

1 Only one penalty has been converted in these twenty ties, and that was Keith Allen in November 1968. It was 0-0 at half time against non-League Ware Town, but by the final whistle Luton had won 6-1! George Potter, making his only starting appearance of the season, opened the scoring just before the hour mark. Alan Slough added a second, before Keith Allen netted his hat-trick, with the penalty being his third. Ware pulled one back before Slough scored his second with time running out.

4 Four different players have scored in a First Round tie at Kenilworth Road, and this has actually happened twice. Firstly the 9-0 victory over Clapton Orient in November 1927. Jimmy Yardley scored four, with George Dennis and Syd Reid both netting twice, and Harry Woods also scoring. This next time four different players scored was in October 1999 when Luton entertained Kingstonian. The non-league visitors twice took the lead, with Phil Gray and Liam George equalising. Matt Spring fired in one of his long range specials to put the Hatters into the lead before Matt Taylor wrapped up the win with ten minutes remaining.

20 The number of 1st round ties, excluding replays, played at Kenilworth Road. Luton have won eleven, drawn four and lost five. The Hatters have scored 56 goals and conceded 33.

4 The number of other first round ties played at home prior to moving to Kenilworth Road, and Luton didn't win any of them! Matches against Bolton, Middlesbrough, Preston and West Brom all ended in defeats, and the Hatters even failed to score in any of the four games.

11 The most number of goals in a home FA Cup 1st Round match. In January 1908 Luton entertained Fulham in the third FA Cup match to be played at Kenilworth Road, and the first at this stage. Although the Hatters scored three times, through Rigate, Rankin and Moody, the visitors netted eight times in reply!

5 It was at the fifth time of asking before the Hatters won a first round tie at Kenilworth Road and it proved to be a Cup upset. Birmingham City, who went on to win the Second

Matthew Spring fired the Hatters into the lead against Kingstonian in 1999

Altrincham Town

Welcome to Today's visitors

Current members of the Blue Square Premier, Altrincham Football Club has a proud history, which includes knocking more League sides out of the FA Cup than any other current non-league side.

They have also been founder members of the Cheshire County, Northern Premier and the Alliance/Conference leagues as well as Conference (Nationwide) North.

Altrincham currently compete at national level, whilst remaining a part-time club with one of the lowest budgets in the new Blue Square Premier division.

The club prides itself on its financial prudence, with the current board having steered Altrincham FC from near financial ruin five years ago through hard work and keeping to strict budgets.

Historic debts have been paid off and though this has meant that the club operates on a much lower budget than its competitors.

Now that the debts are repaid they enter the 2008-09 season with a stronger squad of players and hopefully the chance to compete in this prestigious league.

The Manager: Graham Heathcote

Graham started out as a 16 year-old with the Altrincham youth team and went on to a career which has seen him fill the role of player, club captain, coach, assistant manager, secretary and now manager.

As a player his total of appearances and goals ranks him high in either category of all time Altrincham players and during his playing career he won just about every trophy available to him.

Altogether he played 14 seasons for Altrincham, except for a short spell at Northwich when Les Rigby was manager.

After a final playing season at Witton Albion (when he was released by John King) he quit playing at the age of 31 and moved seamlessly into management as number 2 to John King, initially at Runcorn and then back to Moss Lane.

Graham then moved with John to Barrow and eventually took on his first manager's job at Barrow when King left to join Bury.

This was followed by a short spell as manager at Winsford before teaming up again with John King back at Moss Lane.

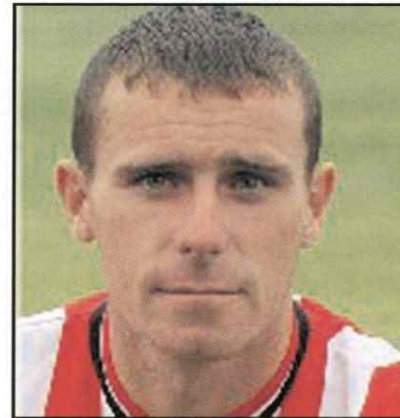

After John King's resignation in March 1998 Graham remained as secretary before being asked to assist with coaching the side that won the UniBond Premier League in 1998/99.

In 2002 he was made a Freeman of the Borough of Altrincham for his services to the town and in late 2002 he was appointed Manager.

He has overseen the stabilising of the club over the last 5 seasons and gained promotion for the club from the Unibond Premier and Nationwide North into the present National Conference (now known as the Blue Square Premier League).

Two-coach steam trains took us to outposts at Winsford, Northwich, and some League grounds because many of the reserve teams Third Division (North) clubs played in the Cheshire League.

That all ended when I left school at sixteen to take a job which involved working most Saturday afternoons and a later move to London.

But I happened to be working in Birmingham when, in 1966 Altrincham were drawn away at Wolves in the third round of the FA Cup, the start of a twenty-year competition with Yeovil to be the most successful non-League club in the country.

They lost 5-0, but at least, after the game, I got to meet my hero Micky Warburton; no longer the muddy footballer, but a businessman in his camel-hair coat – still with his brilliantined hair.

Despite all their success, though, election to the League eluded them – in one year, losing by one vote to Barrow.

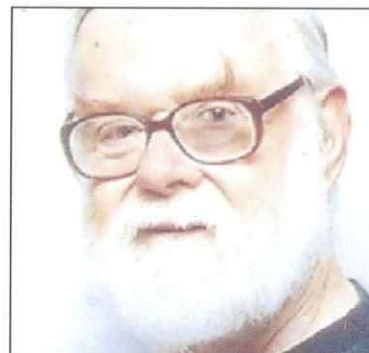

I remember the then Luton Town chairman Denis Mortimer telling me that he blamed himself; he'd intended to vote for Altrincham, but on the day of the League annual meeting he was late back from lunch and missed the vote. The Robins never came so close again.

After that my visits to see Altrincham were occasional – draws against Everton and Spurs, two FA Trophy victories at Wembley and the Robins' greatest FA Cup achievement on a bitterly cold night at Birmingham when they became only the second non-league club to beat a First Division club on their own ground – we watched, holding our breaths, as the winning goal, from a misplaced back-pass, trickled past the oncoming City goalkeeper, one David Seaman.

Since then, there have been rougher times, but the Altrincham result is still the first I look for, sharing their ups and downs.

I'm looking forward to today's game, although I regret they won't be wearing the red and white quarters of my youth.

I wish them another great Cup run – next season.

Mike Broadbent, who is now retired, was a journalist for more than forty years on newspapers in Manchester and Fleet Street, followed by thirty years with BBC TV News.

Long before I embarked on my 42-year (so far) love affair with Luton Town, as a school boy I was turning up at Moss Lane, and many away games, to follow Altrincham in the Cheshire League.

In the late forties, after the austerity of the war, there was an explosion of interest in entertainment – music halls, dance halls and, above all, football.

There were massive crowds; I remember cycling to Maine Road and paying sixpence to park my bike in someone's back yard before joining other small boys being handed over the heads of the 80,000 crowd to the front of the terrace to watch Manchester City beat Yeovil 8-0.

But my first love were the Robins. My favourite players were Cyril Barclay, who I once saw score with a volley direct from a corner, goalie with a little Hitler moustache who delighted on waiting until the referee's back was turned before drop kicking what should have been a goal kick, but over all lightning right winger Micky Warburton, with his shiny black hair plastered with brilliantine.

On one occasion we got very excited when we heard that Alty had signed Ronnie Matthews, brother of the great Stanley.

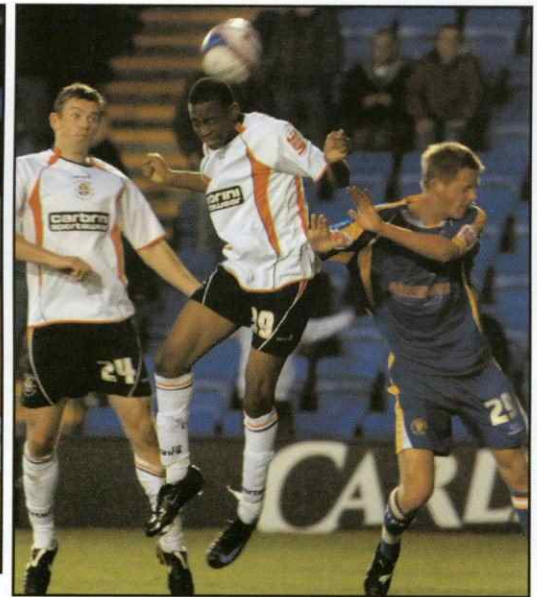

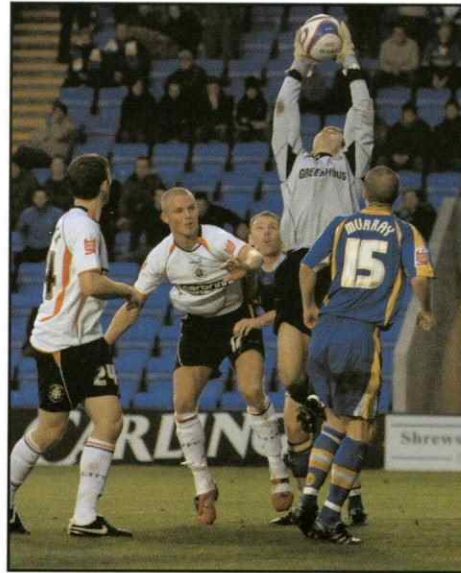

He was an inside forward and played just three games; kept going by occasional sips from a hip flask on the touch-line before moving on for another pay packet

LUTON TOWN - 123 YEARS OF HISTORY - BE PART OF IT

He may have only played a handful of first team games but Jake Howells is setting his targets high.

The 17-year-old knows he is only playing due to injuries to Sol Davis and Lewis Emanuel but he's hoping he can do enough to keep the duo on the bench:

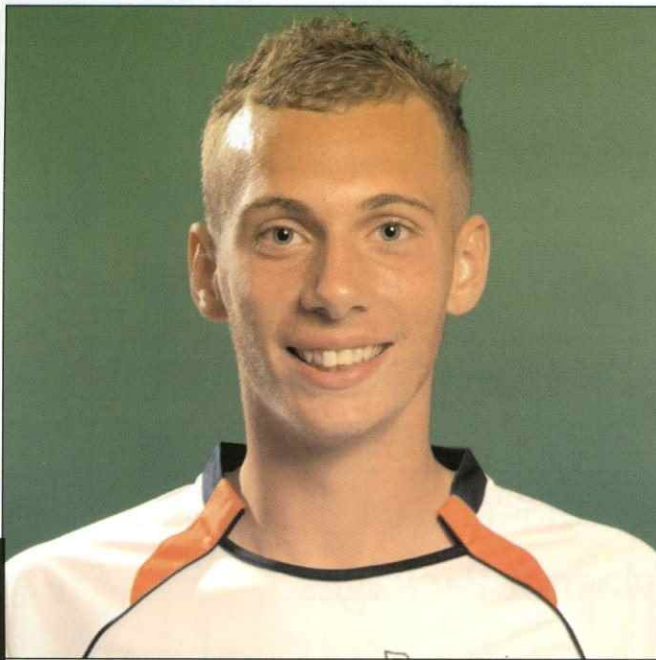

"I am just thinking

about keeping my place.

"I have to keep on playing well and posing the question to the gaffer.

"I keep wanting to improve on things and I know there is room for improvement but hopefully I can push on

Loan youngster Jake Howells talks about what it is like to be part of the first team at eighteen from here.

"I know that if I am keeping Sol and Lewis out once they are fit then the gaffer must have a lot of respect for me if I am getting the nod in front of them because they have a lot of experience.

"It would give me a massive boost in confidence but right now all I can do is keep on doing the right things."

Howells' has started six games so far for the Hatters and it has been something of a baptism of fire, with Luton still sitting adrift at the bottom of the table but for the youngster he knows it could be the ideal opportunity:

"We have had quite a few injuries, some players have gone out on loan and we have sold a few players so it's a good opportunity for the young players like me and Jordan Patrick, who have come in, to get into the team and to get a run going.

"I got a brief chance last year and it showed me how to play at League level, so I took that experience and just carried on doing what I was doing and hopefully I have progressed from there.

"I am working on everything at the moment to try and get better and hopefully keep progressing and doing well in the games."

Extra training has certainly helped, as has the invaluable advice from Sol Davis:

"Sol has shown me what I should be doing in that position and talked to me about the right things to do."

As well as keeping goals out at one end, Howells would love the chance to help out at the other and he thought he had scored replicate:

"When I was a young lad I had a season ticket at Arsenal and I

"I thought I'd scored I really did and then I saw the linesman put his flag up and it didn't count, I was a bit gutted to be honest but at least we won the game in the end."

his first ever senior goal last weekend, in the 2-1 win over Bury:

"You don't really see left backs who score a lot of goals, Gael Clichy at Arsenal hasn't scored many yet so when I scored my first goal for Luton last Saturday it was something special."

Gael Clichy may be a player Howells keeps an eye on now but it was an English left back who he'd love to grew up watching Ashley Cole so he was the player I always looked up to.

Club Historian Roger Wash looks back at clashes with non-League opposition in the FA Cup over the past twelve years.

on the hour to take the lead.

Fortunately, a pair from the speedy Dwight Marshall enabled the Town to save their blushes and squeak through.

Amazingly, the Town were drawn against the same opposition two years later with this time the first round tie being played at Meadow Park.

In front of the Sky TV cameras the Town seemed to have eased themselves into a comfortable 3-1 lead but a late goal from Wood's Mark Xavier made it an uncomfortable last few minutes as the Hatters clung on by their fingernails.

The following season high flying Conference side Kingstonian came to Kenilworth Road and, aided by Dwight Marshall, actually moved into a 2-1 lead before strikes from Liam George, a 30 yard special from Matthew Spring and a late effort from Matt Taylor finally made the game safe.

The Sky cameras were again looking for an upset when Conference leaders Rushden came to Kenilworth Road in the first round of 2000/01.

The Town were fighting a losing battle against relegation and were put under the cosh from first minute to last by their far superior visitors.

New Hatters manager Lil Fuccillo, in his first game in charge, was heard to wonder how the Town managed ensure that a solitary George strike was enough to win the game 1-0!

The Town had far less trouble with the next non-League visitors though.

Guseley from the Unibond League visited Kenilworth Road for a first round tie in 2002 and it was one-way traffic after Spring fired in

The Town had gone 27 years since being beaten and embarrassed at Southern League Hillingdon in the FA Cup before clashing with non-League opposition again in the competition, with this time Borehamwood the visitors to Kenilworth Road in a second round tie in December 1996.

The ICIS League side shocked the Hatters when they broke out of their ten man defence

■ Dwight Marshall on the scoresheet against Borehamwood at Luton in 1996.

■ Steve Davis heads home at Borehamwood in 1998

another long range effort in the third minute.

Guseley goalkeeper Chris Hill made a string of impressive saves but could not prevent Tony Thorpe and Ahmet Brkovic, with two, making it a comfortable 4-0 victory.

Our last clash with a non-League side came in 2003/04, Mike Newell's first season in charge of the Hatters, when we were drawn to play Ryman League Premier Division side Thurrock away in a first round tie.

Sky would not give up and were desperate for a televised giant killing involving the Town.

The game was switched to a Friday evening and extra floodlighting was arranged by the television company as Thurrock's were not regarded as powerful enough for a colour broadcast.

It was a good job they did as their normal floodlights failed for a period in the second half!

A fair number of Luton supporters travelled to Ship Lane, which nestled under the lights of the QE2 Bridge and the Lakeside Shopping Centre, only to be treated to one of the worst ever Luton Town FA Cup performances in a contest which must have proved a huge turn-off to the watching Sky viewers.

All seemed set fair when Emmerson Boyce bundled home a Spring cross after six minutes but after that the Town did not seem able to string two passes together and Thurrock, sensing that they had a chance, launched wave after wave of attacks on the Luton goal.

Only a series of brave saves from Hatters goalkeeper Marlon Beresford kept Thurrock out but it came as no surprise when Terry Bowes netted with ten minutes to go to level the scores.

Even then, former Hatter Tresor Kandol missed a gilt edged opportunity in the closing minutes which would have given the home side a deserved win.

The Hatters were grateful for a replay but still made hard work in eventually overcoming their supposedly lowly opponents.

Adrian Forbes opened the scoring seven minutes before the break after a mix up in the Thurrock defence left him with a chance which he almost missed.

Another ex-Town trainee, Cliff Akurang, levelled for the visitors just after the interval following Leon Barnett's mis-kick and with the time ticking away, and extra-time looming, Forbes headed his second from a Steve Robinson cross.

There was still time for Forbes to notch his hat-trick when he converted a late penalty after Brkovic had been tripped in the area – a satisfactory end to a pair of unsatisfactory performances!

MEET THE FUTURE!

Mick Harford has secured the future of six players from Luton's current Under 15/16 Team. The boys will be invited onto the pitch to sign their pre-scholarship agreements at half-time in today's game. They will stay at school until they finish their GCSE's in June, and then join the club full-time in July 2009.

Youth Team manager Alan Neilson commented "This group represents the future of the Youth Team, and hopefully the First team in years to come. All six boys have already represented the Under 18's, playing against players up to five years older than them. I had no hesitation in recommending to the manager that we offered them scholarships immediately even though we didn't have to commit until March. The manager always comes to watch the group play and has shown his faith by already including Jordan in the first team".

Christian Tavemier

Date of Birth: 26/11/92
From: Luton, originally London
Signed from: Charlton Athletic
School: Ashcroft High School
Position: Centre Midfield
Info: Christian is a cultured midfielder, who passes the ball well and finds space well in tight games. He joined Luton Town in the summer following a successful trial after being released by Charlton Athletic.

Fabio Bufano

Date of Birth: 24/11/92
From: Luton
Signed from: Luton Celtic
School: Cardinal Newman
Position: Centre Back
Info: Fabio is a strong defender, who is also comfortable on the ball. He gave up his summer holidays to come in and train with the Under 18's each day, and this has really enhanced his overall performance. Fabio has been a regular this season in the Youth team squad.

Jordan Patrick

Date of Birth: 14/10/92
From: Luton
Signed from: Icknield Youth

School: Challney High School

Position: Centre Forward

Info: Jordan is a quick striker, who is also comfortable running with the ball. Jordan made his debut for the Youth Team at the age of 14, and for the first team at the age of 16.

Matthew Harriot

Date of Birth: 23/9/92

From: Luton

Signed from: Icknield Youth

School: Ashcroft High School

Position: Centre Midfield

Info: Matthew is a hard working midfielder, who regularly comes top of the group in the fitness tests. He is also comfortable in possession and has a good range of passing. Matt's father Les, also represented Luton as a youngster.

Newman Carney

Date of Birth: 23/03/94

From: Luton

Signed from: Icknield FC (via TIPS programme)

Position: Centre Back / Left Back

Info: Newman is only fourteen years old, so will remain at school until June 2010 before coming into the club fulltime. Newman is a great competitor, hungry to win and to succeed, he defends well 1 vs 1 and passes the ball well from defence. Newman's younger brother Brandon is also in the clubs Centre of Excellence, and his father Grant represented Hitchin, Dunstable & Hemel Hempstead.

Ryan Da Silva

Date of Birth: 04/05/93

From: Luton

Signed from: Cambridge United (previously Luton Celtic)

School: Icknield High School

Position: Right Wing / Left Wing

Info: Ryan represented the Under 18's at the age of 14, and has already played for the reserves at the age of 15. Ryan's strengths are his ability to run with the ball, and his finishing skills. Ryan also has three younger brothers in the club's Centre of Excellence.

YOUTH FA CUP FIRST ROUND

MILLWALL 2 LUTON 0

What started as a tough away draw away at a rainy New Den, proved to be a step too far for Gregg Broughton and Alan Nielson's young guns in a very evenly fought match.

Luton lined up with recent first team squad members Jordan Patrick, Scott Sinclair and Mark Farthing in the starting 11 with six schoolboys completing the 16. Millwall started the first half the stronger of the two sides carving out several chances in the opening minutes.

Some excellent saves from Aaron Fletcher along with some cool defending from Harry Hogarth and Ashley Deeney halted Millwall's main threat via Ofoche and Fitzsimmons. As the Town began to settle Kiernan Hughes-Mason took advantage of Jack Wood's slip outside the box to slide the ball home past Fletcher.

Despite going a goal down Luton established more structure and rhythm to their play showing signs of good team unity with some neat flowing moves. Jordan Patrick was linking up well with the excellent Adam Watkins; the latter firing a powerful 20-yard strike just before half time, which was caught comfortably by the Lions keeper, Wayne Drummond.

After the break and with the introduction of Jean-Philip Yamfam replacing an injured Adam Watkins, The Hatters became more dominant as the game went on showing some quality build up play always looking good for an equaliser.

The substitution of Richard Owusu for Sam Barker produced better service allowing the front-line pace of Patrick and Yamfam to terrorise the Millwall tiring defence. Despite Matthew Harriot being introduced and late surges forward by keeper Aaron Fletcher, Luton's boys couldn't quite find the net as Millwall defended valiantly.

The killer came almost on the last kick of the match when Hughes-Mason struck his second; a sweet volley from outside the area crashing in off the post to make it 2-0 and to seal Luton's fate.

Scott Fitzgerald's youngsters now wait for the outcome of the Banbury versus Dagenham & Redbridge tie to discover who their 2nd round visitors will be.

Despite the loss Gregg Broughton was encouraged by his side's performance on the night, "The lads gave it their all and at times showed a greater level of class over a much fancied side. But this is a tricky place to come on a teeming Tuesday night and our performance bodes well for the future."

Hatter manager, Mick Harford, who was watching from the stands was also excited by the displays from a number of the youngsters, "I thought there we some super performances out there tonight and felt we deserved to be back in the game in the second half. I was certainly impressed with three or four out there and with the injury situation in the first team the way it has been some may get a chance sooner than they expected."

Millwall: Wayne Drummond, Jack Sim, Charlie Read, Kamil Tevfik, Patrick O'Connor, Omar Beckles, Kiernan Hughes-Mason, Danny Keen, John Marquis, Ikenna Ofoche, Danny Fitzsimmons

Subs: Jimmy Rogers, Connor French, Kiran Dingri, Jay Semper, Grant Ludford

LEAGUE TWO

Saturday 22nd November

Rochdale

Kick off: 3pm Spotland, Sandy Lane, Rochdale, OL11 5DR

What's the Ground Like?

The ground has benefited greatly with the construction of three new stands over the last ten years and is quite picturesque, with a number of trees being visible behind the stands. The latest addition is the smart looking Westrose Leisure Stand at one side of the pitch, which was opened during the 2000/01 season. On the other side is another single tier, the all seated Horners Main Stand. This has a number of supporting pillars and some executive boxes at the back. At one end the W.M.G (Pearl Street) Stand is the third of the new stands. This is also all seated and serves as a Family Stand. It has a couple of supporting pillars that are right at the front of the stand. The Thwaites Beer (Sandy Lane) end is the only terraced area remaining. This small terrace has in recent seasons had a roof erected.

What Is It Like For Visiting Supporters?

Away supporters are housed in the Willbutts Lane Stand, where the view of the action and the facilities are pretty good. Up to 3,650 supporters can be accommodated in it and normally away fans are confined to the centre of the stand. The acoustics are excellent, so away fans can really make some noise from within it.

Where To Eat & Drink?

FOR THE HATTERS AT THE KENNY

Saturday 15th November

Dagenham and Redbridge

Kenilworth Road

Dagenham and Redbridge are the next opponents here at Kenilworth Road and arrive with three away league wins already under their belts.

John Still's side have had an impressive start to the campaign, only their second in the Football League.

After only narrowly avoiding relegation last season, their first at this level following promotion from the Conference in June 2007, the Daggers have already almost amassed half of the number of points they got last season and there is still 31 games to go.

They currently sit 8th in the table, just four points behind table toppers Darlington and are one of the division's top scorers with 28 goals to their name.

Ben Strevens and Paul Benson have both scored seven in the league, while midfielder Sam Saunders has six, all three costing the club nothing.

Benson came through the ranks while Strevens and Saunders were both signed on free transfers from non league.

Dagenham have enjoyed a meteoric rise to fame after only being formed 16 years ago following Leytonstone, Ilford and Walthamstow Avenue all merging to form Redbridge Forest, who in turn merged with Dagenham FC in 1992 to become the club that is known today.

John Still was the first manager of the club, but their impressive start to life saw Peterborough making an approach for the former Leyton Orient player. His departure affected the Daggers badly and they finished bottom of the Vauxhall conference and were relegated to the Isthmian league.

He returned as Manager in April 2004, following spells at Barnet, Lincoln and Bristol Rovers, and after just three years in charge, which involved a lot of rebuilding at the club he oversaw the Dagger's promotion to the Football League.

So far this season they have managed seven wins and three draws, the most impressive victory their 6-0 drubbing of Chester City on the opening day of the season.

Since then they have beaten Lincoln, Morecambe, Chesterfield, Rochdale, Barnet and Grimsby, while the draws have come against Port Vale, Rotherham and Accrington Stanley.

The game will be the first league meeting between the two sides but the third overall. Last season the two clubs met in the First Round of the Carling Cup, with the Hatters running out 2-1 winners thanks to goals from Spring and Talbot.

The only other meeting came in the Football League Trophy back in 2001, when the Daggers secured a shock win, beating Luton 3-2 in the competition's second round.
