manager's notes

Good afternoon and welcome to the EBB Stadium where we welcome the players, management, officials and supporters of Luton Town.

Luton is a great club that I had the pleasure of playing for after being signed by Davis Pleat in 1994. I spent five years at Kenilworth Road and enjoyed my time there. The way that they have battled through this season against all the odds is a sign of what the club is all about. I wish them well in the future.

I was happy with the response of the players on Tuesday evening against Shrewsbury Town. We needed a result and we required a performance. On the face of it and considering our recent run it has to be considered a valuable point on the night. Our opponents came into the match looking to continue their pursuit for a play off spot and it was always going to be a difficult ask. Keeping a clean sheet was vital and it was a fair result.

To be successful you have to build from the back and the hard work and endeavour paid off. There was a large amount of character shown because we had to battle. In addition to that though our tempo, especially in the first half, was better and what we are all about where we were able to pass the ball and express ourselves with a bit more about us.

Despite the recent setbacks we were positive, didn't feel sorry for ourselves and grinded out a result and that pleased me. As a group and a squad the players gave Martin and I what we are looking for. We need that kind of commitment again this afternoon.

After the Bradford City match last weekend we needed a response. The whole afternoon at Valley Parade was a let down. A large crowd, intimidating arena we should have gone out there and showed what we are capable of because there was no pressure on our lads whilst for Bradford their supporters expected. We conceded a goal within two minutes and from there on we were always on the back foot. We were always chasing the game and it was an afternoon to forget. The bottom line for me is that it wasn't good enough. Yes, we had plenty of the ball but we were not strong enough in the final third of either box and you have to be if you are going to win matches.

Andy Lindegaard has returned to Cheltenham Town after being recalled prior to the Shrewsbury Town match. Andy did well here and settled in nicely. I was happy with his performances and he provided a good influence that we needed within the camp too.

Nikki Bull picked up another injury in training early in the week too and was sidelined again which is frustrating because his season has been stop start since Christmas.

I know that Tuesday was our first goal-less draw of the season and I am quite happy about it. Of course I want to win every match but after our recent run and goals conceded it was great to pick up a point and a clean sheet and I want this to be something to build on. We showed character and strength and if we want to succeed we need to show that again this afternoon and for the remainder of the campaign.

Thank you for the wonderful support at Bradford City. Your following deserved a better performance and result. Also on Tuesday I thank you for supporting the lads so well especially with the many distractions of European football that was on terrestrial television. It is greatly appreciated.

a tribute to norman penny

I received a phone call from Terry Owens on Saturday driving up to Bradford City. It was a call I was dreading but knew it was going to happen at some stage over the weekend. During the conversation I learnt of the passing of Norman Penny. A tremendously loyal and kind hearted man who taught me so much in life. Many of you will recall Norman. He was involved in football in Aldershot since the 1960's and endured many duties including spells within the youth team, commercial and lottery. In the Football League days though he was the face of Aldershot FC. Everybody knew Norman Penny.

My first dealings with Norman came in the 1980's. As a teenager who thought he knew it all I would argue about anything to do with Aldershot FC, usually in the Sportsmans Club. My passions for the football club would often boil over into frustrations. I would often put pen to paper criticising some aspect of the club that I wasn't happy with (mind you always adding my name to the letter unlike the case so often these days). Norman approached me after one of those letters in the Sportsmans and explained to me that whilst I was entitled to write a letter I should consider the consequences and the damage that such letters do. It made me think. It made me think a lot.

That was Norman. So often would be the case that a word in the ear, here and there would be so beneficial to me. He always talked sense with experience.

Through the bitter days of the old club Norman was there trying to save the club like we all were. We often travelled to the away matches and I always enjoyed his company.

I can honestly say that the role that he played for me behind the scenes as the new Aldershot Town was formed was immense. Although he had lost his job in 1992 as AFC folded Norman was quickly snapped up in the commercial department at Woking. His spiritual home was here though and we would talk constantly about the new club. Whenever he could he would be here and eventually we were able to offer him a position again at the club and he was there straight away. He was buzzing with enthusiasm and that is when he really played a big part in my life.

As a novice Secretary in a club with so much expectation and demands Norman was there as somebody I could talk to, confide in and learn from. Indeed the values I learnt from Norman and his dear friend, Richard Aggett, will always remain with me. They had the simple, old fashioned values of decency, politeness, courtesy and respect that is so lacking in our society nowadays.

Norman became a great friend of my Dad, Tony. They always talked about their army days with such fondness and had so much in common. My Dad spent his last days in the Phyllis Tuckwell Hospice and Norman visited him every morning without fail.

A true battler Norman recovered from a serious illness himself about five years ago and lived his final years back in Farnham. Terry and I would take him out to lunch every now and then and he would be immaculately dressed as he always was. Norman would always have his photo albums and memorabilia ready to reminisce. He was also a great collector of military items.

When I joined the Army Football Association just over a year ago Norman presented to me a book all about sport in the Army that emanated from the 1950's. He was proud to present it and I was honoured to receive it. He made a similar presentation in 1992 when the club started. As Chairman of the Supporters Club Norman gave to me the original minute book of Aldershot Town Supporters Club and how it was formed in 1927. Norman loved his history.

Fittingly the last time he visited the Rec was in April 2008 as the Blue Square Premier trophy was presented at the match v Weymouth. We invited Norman because we wanted him to be there. We weren't sure if he would be able to attend due to his frailty but he was determined and he was able to attend. A carnival evening and plenty of faces from the past invited that Norman enjoyed meeting.

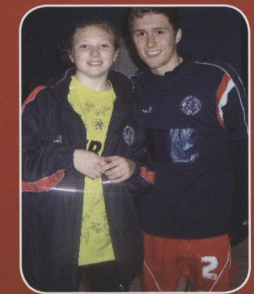

I am so glad that Norman was there to witness the final chapter in the return to the Football League. I know it meant so much to him.

We have lost a fine man in Norman Penny and a truly wonderful person who was a tremendous ambassador to football in Aldershot. A great influence to me I am proud that he was a special friend.

Norman's funeral will be at the Garrison Church in Aldershot on Friday 27th March at 2pm. Family flowers only and donations to be made to Help For Heroes charity. There will be a reception held at the Potters Hotel on the Farnborough Road in the Tavern Bar.

football matters

with Jack Rollin

There I was idling away conjugating the odd verb or two - as you do - when I glanced at Saturday's edition of The Times and an interview with Michel Platini written by Paddy Barclay one of my old Sunday Telegraph colleagues. He is the latest to jump ship to the rival newspaper which for the first time in history has overtaken the other's sales figures. Not that either of them have much to crow about. Come to think of it, the Daily Star at 20p is the only one putting on circulation.

Anyway, Platini is still on the track of digging at the Premier League and the money it has generated from a variety of sources, chiefly Television of course. Now he wants clubs to get back to their local communities and chuck out the money men mostly foreign investors who are responsible for the current situation.

He quietly forgets that as a mercenary professional footballer himself he quit his native France having succumbed to the then lira lure in Italy. The article also referred to the fact that one of his heroes was Napoleon. Don't mention the retreat from Moscow or Waterloo of course.

Granted Platini was an outstanding footballer in his day, part of that memorable midfield the French possessed in the 1984 European Championship when they were ultimate winners 2-0 against Spain, the current holders of that trophy. Pity he has produced so much controversy since he retired from the game to become a meddling football politician.

What he should be focusing on if he wants to get his teeth into something which is clearly not right in our football is the cavalier attitude taken by Premier League teams in European competitions.

Having scrapped to qualify for either the Champions League or UEFA Cup, once in it and with little prospect of reaching the final, many of these teams change their priorities and they are forced to alter tack. Suddenly they put out scratch teams in Europe and keep their elite in cold storage to concentrate on the scramble for a place in the following year's competition and away from relegation from the PL! If that is not actionable, what is? But the bottom line is they should not be allowed to get away with it. Fielding weakened teams in Europe could be sanctioned if the number of players previously registered to play in European tournaments at the start of the season was cut down. This is quite a simple operation even allowing for genuine injuries which might affect numbers. Independent medical supervision would be available for arbitration if necessary.

In the 17 years since it was founded in 1992, the Premier League has been able to sustain continuous membership for only seven clubs. No fewer than 41 different ones have had a go at mixing with the best in the country during this time.

Over the years there have been rumours that the PL wanted to have a Second Division of its own. Had this happened it would have finished off the Football League. (Scotland is thinking about the same idea now). Also if there was to be legislation cutting down the number of teams in the Premier to say, 18, that would almost surely cause problems for the Football League who would be put into a situation with just two choices.

They would either have to relegate two into the Blue Square Premier and not accept any promotion - or demote four and give two a lift up, or form another division taking in what used to be the Conference. This would result in enormous upheaval to the pyramid system.

Sepp Blatter at FIFA is not happy with the Premier League having 20 clubs. Only Spain has the same number in La Liga, but there is never the same criticism levelled at this organisation. But he only wants more time to organise his national tournaments. The only club competition of which he is in favour is the Club World Championship, which a European team is guaranteed first a bye, then has to negotiate a semi-final to meet almost certainly the South American champions in a final game. Can't wait for the next one to start!

Season 2008-09 is proving a difficult one for Luton, starting the season on an unprecedented -30 points. Following last Saturday's defeat at home against Exeter, they were on 10 points but with only 11 games left and 16 points from safety, the situation is bleak. It means a third consecutive relegation - only this time agonisingly out of the Football League for the first time in Luton Town's history. It represents an unbelievable slump in fortunes for the Hatters - just two years after playing in the Championship, Luton Town would be a Non-League club.

The club has got something to celebrate - with an appearance at Wembley in the final of Johnstone's Paint Trophy against Scunthorpe United on April 5th 2009.

Worked his way through the ranks at the Club before scoring 17 goals in his debut season for the Luton Town youth team. Made first team debut as a second half substitute at Southend in March 2008 and given his full team debut in the following game against Carlisle before scoring on his home debut against Oldham.

However, after finding first team opportunities hard to come by Jarvis joined Luton Town in August 2008 on a free transfer.

Chris Martin - Striker

Currently on a season-long loan from Norwich City, Martin is a young striker who has played 30 times for the Canaries, scoring five times. He burst into the first team in 2007, and his performances quickly saw him become a fans' favourite at the club. Strong for his age and technically gifted, his early promise saw him win call-ups for the England Under-19 squad, scoring on his debut against Turkey in March 2007.

Michael Spillane - Defender/Midfield

The Irish youngster joined the club on a season-long loan from Norwich City in August 2008, and is equally at home in defence or midfield, having played in both positions in recent seasons for the Canaries. The Republic of Ireland U19 international is tipped to have a bright footballing future ahead of him.

Mark Bower - Defender

Bradford-born Mark joined the Hatters from his home-town club on a month's loan in January 2009. The centre-half made his Luton debut against Bournemouth at Dean Court on 27th January, just three days after being on the bench for the Bantams against the Town..

Tom Craddock - Striker

Originally a defender, Tom developed into a promising forward who has done well at youth and Reserve team levels with Middlesbrough. Joined the Hatters on-loan from the Riverside in October 2008 and scored twice on his debut in a 2-2 draw with Grimsby Town. Two further goals followed in the games against Bury and Chesterfield and once his loan expired Mick Harford moved quickly to snap up the striker on a permanent basis.

Paul McVeigh - Striker

A Shepherds Bush native, Gallen established himself as something of a legend at Loftus Road. He notched up over 400 appearances and hit 97 goals for the R's in two spells spanning nearly 14 years.

Jake Howells - Defender

The young left back came through the ranks at Luton Town and made his first team debut as a second half substitute in May 2008. This season he has pushed on and has been an important part of the first team squad.

press matters around the EBB

with Nick Fryer

Away days have been quite painful experiences recently, for those who travelled to Bradford last weekend whilst not enjoying the day you could not fail to be impressed by the facilities and the atmosphere of over 12,000 people in the stadium. For those who don't know their Secretary Jon Pollard is a former employee of the old Aldershot FC where he held a similar position. This was my first visit to Valley Parade since the fire and what a difference this time around.

The stadium is now absolutely fantastic with a press box for up to 135 people; this is complimented by a media reporting room which has all the necessary desks and equipment to make life very comfortable for visiting journalists. Before we get too envious we should remember that Bradford were a Premier League side not so long ago.

The travelling does not get any easier with away days at Rotherham, Darlington and Grimsby following this afternoon's game.

Shots Travelling Fans

One thing that is frequently mentioned in opposition press and officials is the shots faithful following. This season the noise and backing generated by those that travel has been first class. Even at places like Gillingham and Bradford where the shots fans have been heavily outnumbered the singing and backing is very clear, even when we are being well and truly beaten. The most popular song seems to be "your ground is too big for you" which even brought smiles from an angry mob of Millwall fans around me during our FA Cup tie at the New Den.

Southern Counties Radio/Live Commentary

Our good friends at Southern Counties Radio have been keeping you all in touch with excellent live commentaries at away fixtures this season. It is currently being looked into as to whether the club may be able to offer this service via the official website from next season.

New Sports Reporter for The Eagle

Local Radio Station the Eagle have recently appointed Anthony Zahra to head their sports news. Anthony attended the game against Shrewsbury on Tuesday so welcome to him. The station is well set with shots connections as the MD Paul Marcus is a keen shots fan and popular broadcaster Peter Gordon is a share holder in Aldershot Town.

Norman Penny

I can't let my notes go by without a mention for Norman Penny who sadly passed away Last Saturday. Norman was a tremendous character to have around the club. Although not always treated particularly well by some of the previous clubs directors his enthusiasm and drive never dipped working in particular on the scratch card lottery and it was great that he was able to work for the new club in the guest lounge before his illness meant he could not continue.

Reserves at the EBB

The next reserves fixture at home is on Wednesday 22nd April versus Charlton Athletic at the EBB Stadium with kick off at 2pm.

accommodation required

Aldershot Town Football Club is expanding it's Youth Centre Of Excellence in the 2009 -10 season and requires suitable accommodation for scholars (16-18 yrs) and trialists (16-19 yrs), ideally in properties within the Rushmoor Borough Council area. Properties within other local authority areas may also be suitable, subject to distance from the clubs' EBB Stadium. Interested parties must meet the following requirements, to ensure compliance with Local Authority and Football League / FA Youth criteria:

1. The property should be Local Authority and Fire Brigade safety approved ( or owner prepared to submit for approval).
2. All residents or regular attendees over the age of 18 should be CRB checked, or be prepared to submit for same.
3. Owner should be prepared to accept payment through the Local Housing Allowance (LHA) scheme administered by the local authority.

4. Service should include the daily provision of breakfast and dinner, in co-operation with the clubs' dietary advisers; and laundry services.
5. Service should be provided on a five day a week basis, although some week-end provision may be required.
6. The rate for provision of accommodation and services is negotiable within the guidelines laid down by the LHA scheme, and based upon a daily rate.

Interested parties should in the first instance, either send an e-mail to 'atfcyouth@gmail.com' or write to the club as: ATFC Youth, Aldershot Town FC, High Street, Aldershot, GU11 1TW.(Please mark envelope with COE ACCOM. in top right hand corner)

Please do not contact the club by phone on this matter as we do not have the resources to handle this type of enquiry.

made in GB

We are going through a period at the moment that the new generation of Shots supporters will not be used to. It's a welcome back to the Football League with a bang. It is not easy but it is a time for being level headed and focussed. For many years we have been the team that our opponents have wanted to beat. We were the "scalp"- we were playing in their cup final. You only had to be at Valley Parade last Saturday to realise what we are now up against. It is a fact that Bradford City are punching below their weight at the moment and are a club that needs to be at a higher level of football. However we have come across plenty of opponents this season who are seasoned campaigners at this level and, as I have stated before in these notes, we are playing catch up at the moment both on and, especially, off the pitch.

It is a serious issue because there are plenty of matters that need addressing at the football club with a view to the "bigger picture". A detailed structure and focus is paramount as the club must produce a vision of how it can approach the future with a long term plan of where it wants to go in a sustainable fashion that makes the future productive. It is essential.

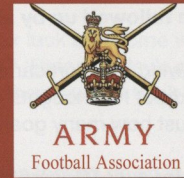

On the pitch we must be realistic too. In the past four seasons the highest the previous season's Conference champions has finished is 18th and that was Barnet in 2005/06. Indeed Chester City, who were powerful champions when they won the Conference in 2003/04, finished two places below the following season, Accrington Stanley and Dagenham and Redbridge last season were also 20th. Indeed during the last five seasons the only side of the ten that progressed from the Conference who were instantly successful in the Football League were Carlisle United and they were backed powerfully financially and also had a 30% increase in attendances as they rose to average over 7000. We are not in that category.

We all wanted to return the name of Aldershot to the Football League. You never know what is around the corner but we are learning that it is going to be a concentrated effort as we look to the future. The competition in this league is immense but I am glad that we are getting the opportunity to compete and learn at the same time.

For any doubters just look at this afternoon's opponents. Barring a miracle the name of Luton Town will not be in the Football League next season, a competition they joined in 1897. This is a club that won the League Cup in 1988 and were playing top flight football until 1992. Just four years ago I saw them demolish Brentford on the final day of the season at Kenilworth Road as they won Division One in emphatic style finish. They were 12 points clear of second placed Hull City. Whatever the reasons of the downfall is not our business as sad as it is to see but it is a clear message of what can occur in football.

Sometimes you have to count your blessings. We have made great strides at this football club and, of course, we want to make more. However the strides we make in the future will be that much harder to earn.

Graham Brookland

shot-light on . . . Jake Robinson

Enjoying his second spell with the club, Jake Robinson is ensuring that this spell will be just as successful as the previous one. He can very rarely be seen standing still, rather chasing the ball constantly with the one obvious sole aim of getting that ball in the back of the net. And so far that doesn't seem to be a problem – scoring in his first match followed up by an impressive striker's double against Accrington Stanley.

Meeting up with Jake following the Morecambe match and his enthusiasm just bounces around as do his words! So I took the opportunity to find out his thoughts on the loan move, what he hopes to achieve during his spell here and the all-important question of just how many goals he will score...

Having played at Brighton for over 10 years now, Jake has battled his way through an array of managers, scoring goals and gaining confidence along the way. However, after some time in the reserves Jake decided it was time to gain some match fitness – a decision that he explains, '... It's been a really frustrating season for me; I just wanted to get out and play some games so I had the word put about that I wanted to go on loan. I asked Brighton – they said it was ok. I had a little bit of interest from a few clubs... and then the opportunity to come to Aldershot came about. I came up here to meet the manager. He said really good things, really impressed me. From then on it was an easy decision to come here for the rest of the season'.

Jake can definitely be happy with his appearances so far which have done wonders for his confidence, 'I'm feeling confident in my ability. I've felt it all season; I felt it in training at Brighton and I was playing well in the reserves. I've been frustrated that I haven't been given the chance so I'm appreciative of Aldershot that they've brought me in here to allow the chance to show that'. And he has shown that in abundance, which can be put down to his excellent settling-in period which he explains, 'I trained for a whole week before the first game which is good because I got to know everyone a bit better. They're a young bunch of lads here so it's quite easy for me to fit in – they've made me feel very welcome'.

with Emma Gordon-Walker

And with his first goal coming in his first game, that would have definitely helped – 'Obviously scoring on my debut helped settle a few nerves – expectations if you like. It was the perfect start for me except for the result' (3-2 away to Exeter).

With the unfortunate result at Exeter saw an Aldershot side down on their luck and some would say heads were down... so what does Jake expect to achieve to help to turn that around? 'Before today's game (vs. Morecambe) I said they were creating a lot of chances and they need someone to put them away. I think that's what I can do. I can get on the end of the ball and put the ball in the net for them'.

And on a personal level? 'Personally I've always wanted to have a position locked down in the team. I've never really had that position of my own... I just really want to score goals to be honest. As a striker I'm a bit greedy and that's all you ever want to do really – it's how you make your name as a striker. If I can continue to score goals and get a few more this season, impress a few people'.

In his first few games Jake has shown this hunger in abundance which no doubt will help to make him a favourite with the Shots' faithful. He is a player who can only be described as a terrier – someone that chases down as many balls as possible whilst sticking a few away at the same time. Asking his thoughts on his style however, Jake is perhaps more realistic. 'Ideally you want to play all over the place like Thierry Henry picking the ball up, running hundreds of yards with it and scoring but it doesn't work like that unfortunately. In this league you need to take your chances when you can. And that's the player I want to be'.

So looking ahead to the season and all is bright for Jake – so how many goals does he have in him? 'I don't like giving totals – I did that before and it caught me out a bit! I've got a target in my head and I'd like to keep it there but more than once!' Well with 3 goals in three games at time of writing I reckon that target is there for the taking!

Proud sponsors of Aldershot Town Football Club

welcome back Roger Joslyn

The official guest of honour for today's match against Luton Town is the scorer of the most famous goal in Aldershot F.C.'s history, Roger Joslyn.

All at Aldershot Town are delighted to welcome Roger back to the EBB stadium.

Roger Joslyn was born in May 1950 in Colchester, Essex and began his career with his hometown club, signing as a professional in May 1968. In two and a half years at Layer Road, Roger made 92 appearances, plus a further seven as substitute, scoring four goals.

Roger arrived at The Recreation Ground in October 1970 and quickly earned a reputation as a brave, tough tackling midfielder with a playing style that endeared him to The Rec faithful, many of whom still talk of Roger in endearing terms to this day. A hugely popular player, Roger was voted the clubs player of the year in 1970/71 (his first season) and in 1971/72.

The moment that earns Rogers name a place in the club history occurred on May 4th 1973. Going down 1-0 after four minutes, Shots pressed for an equaliser and in the 38th minute Roger slammed home after a flick from Steve Melledew to make it 1-1. There were no further goals that evening, and it meant that Aldershot FC were promoted for the first time in their history.

In total, Roger made 186 appearances in the Red and Blue, scoring 17 goals, and in his spell with the club missed only six league and cup games.

In November 1974 Roger joined the Graham Taylor revolution at Watford and became an integral part of a side which fought its way from fourth to first division in successive seasons, playing alongside such legends as Luther Blissett. During his time at Watford Roger became (probably) the only ex Aldershot player to be awarded with a gold disc for album sales when the whole Hornets first team squad collaborated on an album with the then club chairman Elton John! In total Roger made 178 appearances for Watford, scoring 17 goals.

Roger moved to Reading in 1979 and played 67 games for the Royals before retiring from the game to forge himself a successful career as a furniture maker.

We are delighted that Roger has accepted our invitation to be today's guest, and hope you will give him a warm welcome when he is introduced on the pitch at half time.

shots in the community

Stopping smoking is the biggest single step you can take to improve your health and fitness – and save you money. Aldershot Town FC are pleased to support and welcome back the NHS Quit4life advisers who are here helping people to give smoking the red card.

The Stop Smoking Advisers, all based at the Aldershot Centre for Health, will be giving out free pens, free mints and advice: Don't pay the ultimate penalty of smoking – kick smoking into touch now!

Sheila Wills, Quit4life stop smoking specialist, said: "We are delighted to be working with the management, staff and supporters of Aldershot Town FC and would like to thank everyone for making us so welcome when we were last here in January. We just want to let all the fans know that when they are ready to stop smoking, we are here in Aldershot ready to support them."

In January, many of the fans we spoke to had already been to one of our drop-in sessions in Aldershot and had successfully quit smoking. Other fans were surprised to hear that medications to help smokers quit are given out at the local drop-in sessions and you receive eight weeks worth of Nicotine Replacement Therapy, patches, inhalators, gum etc for a one-off prescription fee of £7.10, or totally free to those receiving free prescriptions.

Quit4Life advisers have wide experience of helping people to quit smoking and they understand the difficulties as well as the support required to successfully quit. You can contact them by calling 0845 602 4663 or texting QUIT to 60123.

Aldershot town FC are very pleased to be associated with the NHS and this worthwhile initiative.

major billy thomson - secretary of the army fa

The Army Football Association is based in Clayton Barracks in Aldershot and administers football worldwide. We are a County Association within the Football Association (FA); one of 52 counties within the country committed to advancing football at all levels of the game. As County Secretary and the Army's representative on the FA council I serve on a number of committees. I am currently Vice Chairman of the England "C" team, a member of the Football Development Committee and a Judicial Panel member too.

From the Army FA perspective we are here directly to further football within the British Army throughout the world. There are vast opportunities too. There are players at unit, corps and representative level; a wide range of coaching courses administered in Aldershot by our Football Development Officer (FDO), Steve Stone or through refereeing of which there are over 200 registered Army referees.

The Army FA is steeped in history and we are rightly proud of this. We were formed in 1888 and the most prestigious competition is the Army FA Challenge Cup which was first competed for in 1889. Last season's competition was won by the 9 Regt AAC at the home of Army football, Aldershot Military Stadium. This season's final will be played on Wednesday 22 April with a 3pm kick off, at the Military Stadium.

We also have representative teams at men's senior, women's and Under 23 development level. We are currently experiencing the "busy" period of the season as we are now competing in the Inter Service competitions. All three services compete in this tournament. Our prestigious home fixture is next Wednesday 18th March, here at the EBB Stadium versus the current holders, RAF with a 7pm kick off. We are grateful to Aldershot Town Football Club for agreeing to host the match for a second successive season and proud of the developing links between the two organisations. We sincerely thank you.

Corps football continues to thrive with many competitions throughout the season. We have a popular Massey Trophy competition which is the "Army Corps football league". Matches are traditionally played on Friday mornings. There are two divisions and the current holders are the Royal Engineers who are steeped in history as past winners of the FA Cup. There is a Women's Inter Corps League which concludes with the 6 A Side competition staged at Queens Avenue, Aldershot.

It is not all about playing football though. As stated above we have tremendous opportunities through our Coaching and referees department. Our Football Development office is always busy. Courses are available throughout the year covering FA certificates at various levels of coaching in addition to First Aid, treatment and management of injuries too. Courses are available to both military and civilians. (Please feel free to contact us). It is an extensive programme.

Referees are always required, a quarter of our registered officials are level 4 or above. All our referees started out attending a Basic Referees Course. Captain Danny McDermid is a Football League referee whilst WO1 Andy Halliday is a Premier League Assistant and Blue Square Premier Referee. There is an undeniable enthusiasm within our Army referees and an eagerness to ensure that new recruits are encouraged to become referees.

As you can see already there is plenty to be positive about within Army football and we are keen for this to grow. We have an enthusiastic staff of six in Aldershot including Graham Brookland, who is a former Secretary at Aldershot Town.

We have been pleased to be able to develop new and continue long standing relationships this season. Our representative teams have played many local clubs within the area, including Farnborough, Fleet Town, Badshot Lea, Camberley Town and Aldershot Town Youth. We have enjoyed hosting all of our opponents and look forward to continuing this in the future. Everybody is most welcome at Army matches at the Military Stadium and the admission is free.

shots ladies – news update

The Shot ladies had there longest journey of the season with an away game at Milton Keynes on Sunday 8th March 2009 against MK wanderers in which the weather would be a major factor.

The shots started the game attacking against a strong wind, the conditions where coming worst and it was hard for the game to gather pace, the Shot worked the ball well but couldn't create a scoring chance, The first chance saw a move down the right from Funnell who was playing as emergency left Back to Gayler who laid in Marlow who skipped around the keeper, but the defender managed to block her effort on goal. MK also had a couple of long range efforts which Hubbard dealt with, a forced change in the first half saw Ireland go of after a clumsy challenge from a MK player. Laura Wallman replaced Ireland. After Half time the Shots stepped up and forced Mk onto the back foot, North and the impressive Houghton making her Full debut in centre of midfield started to find more freed, once such move saw Tracey Marlow played in and with keeper of her line watch her chip just dip wide of the goal.

The Shot broke the deadlock on 56 minutes when the ball was worked wide , the ball came into Wallman who move the ball pass her marker and curled her shot into the bottom left hand corner of the net 0-1. Just after the kick off the players where meet with a hail storm, the referee had no option to pull the players off. After 15 minutes back in the changing room the referee was happy for the game to continue on a rather white pitch.

The conditions didn't help both sides but MK seemed to settle the quicker and equalized when the ball wasn't cleared in the shots Defence and the MK player looped the ball over a stranded Hubbard in goal.1-1

The game then switched back to the MK half for the last 10 minutes with the Shots putting more pressure on a number shots whistled passed the target. Just as the game looked like heading for a draw the Shots turn the game into a win. again the ball was switched out to the right Cary's Potter found herself in space and attacked the fullback,she hit the ball line and sent in a cross to the front post ,which the keeper went for and misjudged and could only watch as the ball dropped into the back of the net with Marlow racing in to make sure Final score 1-2, Liddicott

What a day, had a couple of players drop out sick, long journey, weather and the game nearly being abandoned. Both teams must take a lot of credit for playing in them conditions and we finished of the game on a hail stone covered pitch, we allways new MK would be tough as they are scrapping for every point they could get. I think they done us a favour by sitting back and going for the draw. Special mention must go to Sian Houghton on her full debut her range of passing and tackling was amazing she was a workaholic in the midfield to which earned her player of the Match.

Sian Houghton

The last time Luton town were at Aldershot for a Football League encounter was 41 years ago this month. The Bedfordshire side were champions that season and did the "double" over the Shots with a 1-0 victory at the Rec followed by a 3-1 success at Kenilworth Road. In total over 20,000 spectators watched the two matches. The home match saw Isthmian League Chairman Alan Turvey on the line. Another excellent return from Jack Howarth saw the popular striker score 20 goals from 42 appearances as the side finished five points adrift of the top four. Only two home defeats during the season were recorded.

Craig Matthews talks to John Dungworth PART 2

John Dungworth scored a total of 58 goals in 105 appearances for Aldershot FC between 1977 and 1980, earning himself cult status among Shots fans which he still enjoys to this day. He came to prominence during the 1978-79 season when The Shots enjoyed a run to the fifth round of the FA Cup, where they went out after a replay to Shrewsbury Town, for whom John signed for £75,000 upon leaving the club in 1980. Since retiring from playing John has enjoyed a fine career as a coach, holding a UEFA A licence, and has recently joined Sheffield Wednesday as assistant first team coach and reserve team manager, having previously worked for the Owls in a scouting capacity for several months. In this, the second part of his interview with Craig Matthews, John reflects further on his time with Aldershot.

If Aldershot had been promoted in one of the seasons when they just missed out while you were at the club, do you think you would have remained at the club for longer?
I'm sure I would have, because I could have envisaged us going up a couple of leagues, the squad was good enough.

The home FA Cup game against Shrewsbury seemed to be won when you scored in the 88th minute to put The Shots 2-1 up, what were your feelings when they scored an even later goal to equalise?
We were all bitterly disappointed but that's the way football is. Shrewsbury were a good team and were top of their league at that time. We had done really well.

How did your move to Shrewsbury come about?
I think it basically came as a result of those two games. I had done quite well individually and I think that's when the manager Graham Turner first saw me. Luton Town came in for a late bid for me when David Pleat was their manager, and I did know that they had been watching me for a while, but I had already spoken to Shrewsbury and agreed to sign for them. Luton were a little unsure because of the money and Shrewsbury were happy to go to the tribunal. At the time I just wanted the opportunity to play at a higher level. I didn't want to leave Aldershot but when the opportunity came to play at a higher level I had to take it.

When you went to Shrewsbury you weren't quite as prolific as you were at Aldershot, why do you think that was?
In a lot of ways I think I picked the wrong club. Their style of football was completely different, the role that I was asked to play was different, and also it was two stepped higher. I thought I was playing well, but I didn't get the opportunities to get the goals I had been getting while I was at Aldershot

Which other clubs did you play for after you left Aldershot?
I went to Mansfield for 18 months and then I ended up at Rotherham which was my home town and ended my career there. I played there for four years while Norman Hunter was the manager and I started playing as a defender at the end of my career, which I enjoyed.

Do you think it stood you in good stead for your coaching career, that you had two careers really, one as a striker and one as a defender and saw the game from both sides?
Yes definitely.

Who were the players you used to admire when you were growing up?
Jimmy Greaves first, and then Tony Currie when I used to watch Sheffield United.

Since retiring from playing you have stayed in football as a coach, which clubs have you worked for as a coach?
When I left Rotherham I joined Sheffield United part time for a year then I became full time on the youth development side. I actually played a few reserve games for them. I finished playing in 1988 and was with Sheffield United until 1997. Then I went to Leeds United for three years. When I first went there the likes of Alan Smith, Paul Robinson, Jonathon Woodgate and Stephen MacPhail were in the Leeds youth team. It was an outstanding team.

Which of the players you coached at Leeds has given you most satisfaction as you have watched them develop?
I think that Jonathon Woodgate was outstanding even at that age. Things just came so easy to him. Stephen MacPhail was good as well. He never really played that many games in the Premiership, he's at Cardiff City at the moment. Alan Smith had a tremendous attitude he's just been unfortunate with his injuries over the last couple of years.

And after Leeds.....
Well then I moved to Huddersfield, and had seven and a half years and coached a lot of kids through there. I was the youth and reserve team coach up until about 2006/7. Terry Yorath was the assistant manager and he became ill so I stepped up to become assistant manager to Peter Jackson. Peter left and Andy Ritchie came on board so I remained in that position. The Andy got the sack in April 2008 and I went with him. Since then I've been scouting part time for Sheffield Wednesday, and recently was appointed as assistant first team coach and reserve team manager on a full time basis. My scouting job involved going to watch the team who Wednesday were playing the following week. There was a lot of travelling involved.

Do you have any ambitions to be a manager or do you prefer coaching?
Sometimes you get opportunities when you least expect them. You might be a youth coach, and then the manager or coach leaves and you take over on a caretaker basis and then you get the job. I had aspirations to become a manager but things never worked out in that respect. I more or less see myself as a coach these days though.

Do you think that when you apply for jobs its more a case of who you know, not what you know?
Exactly, but that's football. Everybody who's in the game appreciates that that's the case and it is who you know getting jobs. You might have worked with somebody before and you get respect in that way. I think most jobs are lined up now. If somebody leaves they've got somebody in mind and they more or less step in straight away.

What were your feelings when Aldershot went bust in 1992, were you aware of what was going on?
Yes I was gutted, really disappointed. I've been following their progress since they reformed as well and Gary Waddock has done a really good job.

What are the best and worst stadiums you've ever played in?
Probably Highbury is the best and the worst is Barking in the F.A. Cup.

When you were playing for Aldershot who was the worst trainer at the club?
Ha ha, I don't really want to drop anybody in it!

Thanks to John for taking the time to answer the questions. Clearly he is one of the most popular, and remembered players ever to play for Aldershot FC, and we hope he is able to come to a game as the club's guest very soon.

Northampton Town Youth 5 Aldershot Town Youth 1, Puma Youth Alliance, 7th March

Following close on the heels of their biggest win of the season, 6-0 home to Luton Town, the Shots Youth Team hit the other extreme with a 1-5 away leathering against an industrious Northampton Town.

As early as the fifth minute a free kick from the left was misjudged and the alert Marzetti bundled the loose ball into the net from six yards. Shots right back Donachie - recovering from a heavy cold- was replaced by Pilgrim on 20 minutes, and the visitors immediately gained ground, winning a corner from which Hutchings' header tested home keeper Norris. The goal of the game came on 32 minutes when Pearson struck a missile of a volley from 30 yards, ricocheting off the crossbar to bounce inside the goal line for the Shots equaliser.

Emery pounced on an error to restore the home lead on 51 minutes, and added his second on 77 minutes soon after the injured Wilkinson was replaced by Peglar in goal for the Shots. Hickey replaced Huggins on 57 minutes and created some nice passages of play with Cox and Pilgrim before the Cobblers dug their heels in as Green added a further two on 84 and 87 minutes.

supporters club

Good afternoon and a warm welcome to you all for this afternoon's important Coca Cola Division 2 match.

I am writing these notes the morning after Tuesday evening's drawn home game against Shrewsbury Town. For those who were at the ground early, your welcome was even 'warmer' than usual, when one of the franchised catering vans went up in flames. Well done to all who were involved in evacuating that area of the ground behind the North Stand, and to the Fire Brigade for their prompt response, all of which enabled the game to go ahead on time.

Although I did not make the trip up to Bradford City, I understand that Tuesday night's performance was much improved on last Saturday's. I must say that there were some bright periods of play against Shrewsbury, without us really making a clear cut chance. However, after the 0-5 reverse at Bradford, keeping a clean sheet was very welcome indeed. If we can replicate the home performance against Accrington Stanley, then we should be in for a good afternoon.

I know that many of you will have heard of the recent changes in the Supporters Club Committee, and I would like to offer my thoughts on what has happened in the last month or so.

Firstly I would like to add my thanks to those of the other committee members to Richard Llanwarne, who stepped down as treasurer after six years in the role. Richard was a very conscientious member of the committee, and always kept, presented and explained the accounts in terms that even the non-accountants like me could understand. Thanks Richard for all your hard work. Richard is succeeded as treasurer by Steve Aspinall. Richard will be a hard act to follow, but I am sure that Steve will prove to be a worthy successor.

As Steve steps up to the post of treasurer, the vacancy of communication between the Supporters Club committee and the members now passes to Andy Burke, so if you have any comments, questions, suggestions etc., then please speak to Andy, either in person on match days, or via the message board on Shotsweb.

Those of you who attended the 'aborted' Managers Forum' will remember that the Supporters Club promised to try and arrange for another Forum at a time convenient to Gary and the directors. This has not been forgotten, and Keith Able is still trying to find a date that is convenient to all. However, due to the number of midweek fixtures (supplemented by the re-arranged games postponed due to the bad weather) this is proving to be difficult. However, we should have a date agreed soon, and you will be informed both in the programme notes and via the message board.

To all of you who support the fundraising activities of the supporters club, I would like to offer our sincere thanks, especially with in the current financial situation. Thanks to your efforts, the Supporters Club has raised almost £10,000.00 so far this season, from membership subscriptions and such activities as the 50/50 draw, Golden Goal, 'buy at' commission, quiz evenings and catering. Thanks to all for your continued support.

Sadly, the death has recently been announced of Norman Penny. Norman was a life patron of the Club, and honour bestowed on him by Terry Owens in recognition of his service to the Club. Norman served the Club for more that thirty years, and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Our condolences go to his family and many friends.

John Hargreaves, Supporters Club Committee

At the Checkout

Now is the time of the season when we need to think about making space for next season's stock and we are therefore starting our 'end of season' sale so please come in and see what is available. Items such as sweatshirts, t-shirts, tracksuits, mousemats and drinks bottles are among the bargains to be had - but there is more.

We are hoping that the cold weather is now behind us and we can put the coats and fleeces into store until next season - but these can still be purchased - just let us know and we can arrange to have them available for the following game. For the warmer weather, we have several designs of polo shirt (£22) and rugby shirts (£25) in red, blue or black, as well as some t-shirts at £18 - but only limited sizes of the t-shirts.

There is still time to purchase items that celebrate last season's success. 'Shots are Back', the book produced by the Aldershot News, is still available at £12.99, and we still have a few of the A3 framed prints of the promotion celebrations, priced at £50 - why not buy one while you still can.

As always, we are open before the game, at half-time and for a short while after the final whistle. - and items can be purchased during normal office hours from the High Street office. However, it is always best to phone ahead to ensure the items you want are available.

junior shots

Now the weather seems to have past its worst the boys and girls are starting to play catch up on their outstanding fixtures.

Hampshire County cup has proved to be a disappointment to the Under 14's. Due to the semi final planned to be played at half term the manager asked for the tie to be moved so that three boys who were away on a school trip could play in the game and possibly then make the final. The manager knowing he had a minimum number of players and still had 13 games to play in ten weeks decided to play a league game so that he could reduce his outstanding fixture backlog. The Hampshire FA took a poor view on this and removed them from the competition. We still have the Under 15's and Under 16's playing in their finals with the Under 11's due to play their semi final tomorrow. The Under 11 Reds and Under 9 Reds are in their respective League Cup finals.

A lot of the teams have found it difficult to maintain momentum this season with the long gaps between games due to the weather and they have accepted the fact that this season we will put down to experience and make the most of what's left .

It is this time of the year when we start looking forward for next season and as you will see we are now starting to plan trial games for new recruits . The club are being very proactive in the way forward and as some of you will have seen we are starting to put the foundations in place to create a Centre of Excellence which will extend through all the age groups eventually. This new and exciting development means a lot to the club and the Juniors as we will soon be able to nurture home grown talent and hold on to it . In the past we have spent several years developing good players only for Portsmouth / Bournemouth / Reading / Swindon / Southampton / Fulham and Wycombe come along and steal our good work. Early signs are that the players are now seeing that Aldershot Town is a club where they can develop their talent and can be seen in the " the shop window " maybe eventually even playing at the Recreation Ground ( sorry - The EBB stadium ) .

For any up and coming player who feels they have the right aptitude and ability to go to a higher level then this is the time to make your move to the most progressive club in Hampshire . The trial dates listed below will enable you to assess yourself against the best players in the local area and joining now will give you the introduction to that pathway to a professional football career within a Centre of Excellence set up
