CONFERENCE: WREXHAM...2 LUTON...0

Danny Wright opens the scoring with a glancing header on six minutes

Dragons brush past Town to keep the pressure on leaders

By MARK CURRIE

at the Racecourse

WREXHAM maintained the pressure on leaders Fleetwood Town in the promotion race by beating Luton Town 2-0 at the Racecourse last night.

Danny Wright gave the Dragons the perfect start on six minutes, glancing home beyond visiting keeper Mark Tyler. Dean Keates settled the nerves of the 4,000-plus Wrexham supporters in the stands shortly before half-time, pouncing on an error from Luton defender Janos Kovacs to double the lead. The Hatters miserable night was complete when John Paul Kissock was dismissed for his part in an incident with Jay Harris, who was shown his 10th yellow of the season and will now face a two-match

MATCH REPORT - PAGE 38

LUTON TOWN

By MARK CURRIE

REXHAM are doggedly main reducing the gap at the top to five points, ing the quality of the finishing with two first half goals from Danny Wright and a measure of revenge for the 3 o play-off defeat at the hands of the visitors at the Home boss Andy Morrell opted not to nisk Mark Creighton, despite the defend a hamstring strain, but he made two to at Kettering Toten with Keates and Jay Harris returning to the starting line-up in place of Joe Clarke and Steven Lealie.

So too did Luton, 2-0 winners again Bath Ciry at the workend, manager Gary Brabin going with Asson O'Connor and Andre Boucaud at the expense of John Paul Kissock and Robbie Willmont.

From the start the visitors looked keen to engage the Diagons in a physical con-test and there were several befry chal-lenges on both sides before Nat Knight-Percival was flattened by two opluton, however, were unruffled by the every opportunity and pushed forward with purpose, but for all their possession and a succession of corners they were unable to directly threaten Joslain

It wasn't what a sizeable and largely partisan crossed scanned to see as Wrenham entinued to struggle or any shorten and parity in the middle of But when the damperous and only a had sumething more concrete to cheer, a second kovacs error after 36 minutes proving more coulty. The costne-half insurance of the control of Dragonests on the halfway line. The Haster's defease only partially and the halfway line. The Haster's defease only partially be a partiall fighting spirit in title chase

Win closes gap on Fleetwood for a corner but made catch when the ball year not respectively, but the momentum re-mained with the home tide and Speight many than the state of the state has been by far the most miserly in the league all season.

With the play becoming more carried which are made their first change in the '2rnd minute, Adrian thumped his shor high and side of the Considerated in the Trind minime, Adrian thum changes from the restart, had worked his socks off in an advanced in for the for the forth one for the first things the forth of the forth one for the forth one for supported if to Kestes, who looked up and delicately chuped the ball over Tyler and thicked on Steve Weight's free kick.

As the action moved into first half

But they were almost caught nappin by a swift counter-attack instigated by

And in added time there was a clash between substitute Kissock and Harris, the Luton player being shown a straight red and the Worsham man a yellow, his soth of the season that triggers a MAN OF THE MATCH: In another solid defensive display from the Dragons, Nat Knight-Percival was the