Luton Town Football Club.

LAST season will stand out very prominently in the history of the Luton Club, for, thanks to economy on the one hand and increased support on the other, the Directors found themselves in the almost unique position of finishing up with a balance to the good. Recognising that the time had come to cut the coat according to the cloth and not to speculate too highly on the prospects of cup-tie gates, the wages bill was kept down to the lowest possible point. Happily events showed that this policy had not been carried out at the expense of efficiency, and up to the middle of October, Luton had the satisfaction of heading the Southern League Table. The early successes naturally had the effect of attracting large attendances at the home matches, and all through the season the crowds were very much bigger than in previous years. The gate receipts, with guarantees and gate shares, realised nearly seven hundred pounds more than the previous year, and a considerable sum was also made by the transfer of Smith and Quinn to Millwall. After meeting all expenses the profit on the season was £821 19s. 11d. This season the Directors are relying for the most part on the players who served them so well last, and though equal financial success can hardly be expected, for the weather last season was exceptionally favourable for the home matches, it is hoped that the Club may have another good time.

S. WIGHTMAN

CAME to Luton about the middle of last season, played at right back, did extremely well, and soon became very popular with the Luton crowd. He is 22 years of age, stands 6ft. high and weighs 13½ st. His football career was begun at the age of 10 with the Moresby Park School Team at full back, and he has kept to this position throughout. He continued with junior teams until he was 18, when he signed for Workington as a professional, and after a season there went to Merthyr Town. But he was not destined to stay long in South Wales and at the end of four months Middlesbrough came along and signed him. However, as he puts it, he did not have the best of luck there, and refusing to re-engage, he was placed on the transfer list, and did not start playing last season until he got to Luton.

FRED HAWKES

Is a home product and one of whom all Luton supporters are proud. For ten seasons he has been consistently good, and although 30 years of age he displays a fleetness in overtaking fast players which is surprising. With a weight of 11 st. he takes some shifting, whilst his height of 5ft. 8ins. enables him to use his head to advantage. He has refused several offers from First League Clubs. At right-half Fred never plays badly, whilst at times he is brilliant.

Was formerly with Millwall and several times played for the Dockers at Strawopolis. Three seasons ago he came to Luton, but he had few chances of distinguishing himself owing to the good display given by Stansfield at outside left. He is regarded as general utility man for the first team, being able to adapt himself to any position. Before playing for Millwall he was in the ranks of Openshaw Clarence, Rossendale United, Grimsby Town and Carlisle United. Born at Ardwick, he is 26 years of age, stands 5ft. 9ins. and weighs 11st. 4lbs.

Following that he started with Norwich City, and after first match with New Brompton signed "pro" forms. Re-signed at end of season but owing to business reasons did not play much during the mid-season. Would probably have given up the game but for Luton's offer. FIGURES at inside right and is a player of repute. He came to Luton from Millwall last year in the change for Smith and Quinn and did well. He played for Middlesbrough when Abe Jones was there, was with New Brompton one season and Tottenham two seasons, playing fairly regularly in the Spurs first team. He was also two seasons with Northampton and took part in 38 of the 40 S.L. matches when the cobblers won the championship.

Then, still as a junior, he played for Hirst United, winners of the Northumberland Junior Cup and thus secured a further medal. HERBERT MOODY,

LIKE Fred Hawkes, is a native of Luton and first served an apprenticeship, as it were, with some of the junior clubs of the town, eventually being identified with the Luton Reserves and then working his way into the first team. Leicester managed to get him to play for the Fosse, but four seasons since he returned to his old love, and at inside left he showed much cleverness with both feet and head. Towards the end of last season he had the misfortune to break his collarbone, but is now fit and well again. "Bert" is 31 years of age, stands 5ft. 9ins. and weighs 10st. 7lbs.

Bedfordshire Football Association.

SEASON 1911-12.

THE past Season—1910-11—was the seventeenth in the existence of the Beds. Football Association. The Association was formed in the year 1894, the inaugural meeting being held in January of that year in the old Cowper's Arms coffee tavern in Cheapside. The meeting was called by a gentleman whose name was at that time a synonym in local football circles, viz.: Mr. G. H. Barford, and the outcome of the gathering was that the Bedfordshire Football Association was started on its long journey. At the first meeting of the new body it was announced that nine clubs had become members of the Association, these nine being: Luton Town, Luton Gordon, Luton Excelsiors, Luton Falcon, Luton Victoria, Luton Montrose, Bedford Swifts, Markyate and Dunstable Town.

But this was only the starting point. Since that time the Association has steadily grown, until it now controls over 120 clubs and half-a-score of Leagues and Competitions. These words alone convey a tribute to the work of those gentlemen who have laboured long and hard for the general welfare of footballers and football lovers in our small county. The first President of the Association was Mr. G. H. Barford, and Mr. Frank Ebbs was the first gentleman to take over the reins of Secretaryship. He held this important post for over seven years. Mr. G. W. Walker took over the cares of office in 1901, and he served the Association for close upon nine years. Mr. A. E. Ansell is the present Secretary, and judging from present results it can be justly said that the Association has been happy and very fortunate in the election of its chief officers.

The past season was none the less successful than its predecessors. The clubs were as ever enthusiastic, and from a playing point of view we, in Bedfordshire, were well in the limelight of Southern amateur football, as our County players won their division in the Southern Counties Championship, and secured the honour of having to meet Essex in the semi-final. The fact that our players won divisional honours in their second year of competing, and the general enthusiasm which these County matches have aroused amongst the senior players of our County has quite justified the Council in entering this competition, notwithstanding that the financial experience of the experiment has not proved a very pleasant one. The matches do not attract that support from the public that they deserve, but in this respect we are in common with other Counties, as the general experience is that the matches do not pay their way. But the games wield a great influence for good in football circles, and notwithstanding their unfavourable influence o'er the exchequer, we cannot afford to drop them.

The prospects for the coming season look particularly promising. Season 1911-12 will witness the launching of the new Junior County Cup Competition. It is expected that this competition will arouse great interest amongst those clubs who have hitherto had little chance of shining in the Senior Cup Competition. The adopted rules will bar no club from entering a team in the competition. There will be no age limit for players, but the junior aspect of the competition has been safeguarded by certain regulations which will keep, what we may term, real senior players out of the running. One rule provides, "that no player who has played in a semi-final or a final round of the Senior Cup Competition will be eligible to take part in this competition." This and other similar rules which have been accepted will help to maintain the "junior" principles of the competition.

The officers of the Association are:—

President: Mr. E. Lyonel Finch, 8, Clarendon road, Bedford.

Vice-Presidents: Mr. C. J. Larkinson, Hitchin street, Biggleswade, and Mr. J. H. Scott, 121, Hitchin road, Luton.

Hon. Sec. and Treas.: Mr. Albert E. Ansell, 79, Havelock Road, Luton.

Auditors: Mr. R. E. Green and Mr. Stanley Kilby.

Executive Council: Mr. E. Wood, Biggleswade; Mr. M. A. Barber, 18, Ampthill road, Bedford; Mr. E. Humphreys, 35, Commercial road, Bedford; Mr. T. Bunker, Rosebery Avenue, Leighton Buzzard; Mr. E. Day, Avondale road, Luton; Mr. A. Tearle, Hazelbury Crescent, Luton; and Mr. C. Green, 1, Guildford street, Luton.

There may be changes in the personnel of the Council in the coming season as all the members have to seek re-election in September, those clubs having paid their affiliation fee by September 1st being entitled to vote in the election.
