We Start Anew.

* * *

Under somewhat different conditions, but with similar optimism we start the campaign of 1920-21. It would be absurd to attempt to disguise the disappointment we all felt as the weeks went by last season and game after game was lost. It should not be forgotten, however, that conditions then were in a disordered state all over the country, and for months many of the best clubs were badly hit. At one period it appeared as though Aston Villa would finish at the bottom of the League, but they were much nearer the top, and also carried off the English Cup. Clubs like the Villa have the means to recruit and make good early mistakes, but Luton Town's resources are limited, and with good players scarce we had to go on as best we could until the end of the season. The relegation rule did not operate, and even had it done so Luton would just have escaped. Now we have transferred to the control of the English League, and as members of the Third Division there is plenty to play for in the way of promotion. The directors have endeavoured to remedy the deficiencies of last season, and spent a considerable amount of money in collecting good men, and it is to be hoped that the support will justify their enterprise. Hopes are high, let loyalty be even higher, and who knows but that we may find ourselves candidates for admission to the Second Division of the League next season?

JAMES MARSHALL WATSON

(goalkeeper).
26 years, 5ft. 10in., 12st., native of Motherwell, Lanark. After local apprenticeship played for Hamilton Academicals, and later for Dundee. Luton's capture of him caused consternation in Scotland, where he has been mentioned as International candidate. Is wonderfully agile and of great judgment. Four years with Glasgow Highlanders in France.

PERCY HILL (inside forward).

Is 24, 5ft. 9½in., and weighs 11st. A Luton boy in every respect, he learned his football at Old Bedford-road School, and only an accident kept him out of the Luton Schoolboys' Shield team. After playing for Havelock, he served in France with the Beds Yeomen and the Hussars for nearly five years. He was scoring goals for Clarence when the Town secured him last season, and he made good.

25, 5ft. 7½in., 11st., native of Kirkintilloch, a place famous for footballers.
Was capped for Glasgow Junior League twice against Ireland, and three times for Dumbartonshire against Stirling-shire. Played for Ayr United all last season, and they were loth to part.
Comes South with a great reputation.

HARRY BAILEY (goalkeeper).
23, 5ft. 10in., 11st. 10lbs., born Macclesfield, Cheshire. While in Grenadier Guards came under the eye of Millwall after playing for Army F.A. v. R.A.F.
Then congratulated by Prince of Wales
for saving his side from heavy defeat.
Played in London Combination and Southern League for Millwall, but sprained ankle caused him two months' rest. Five years on active military service, wounded in 1916 on Somme, demobilised with rank of Sgt.-Instructor of Gym. Staff.

ALFRED TIRRELL (full back).

26, 5ft. 11in., 12st. 12lbs., was born at Desborough, Northants. Discovered by West Ham United some seasons ago, but preferred Luton this season for personal reasons. Did well when he was given a chance with West Ham League team last season.

LEONARD RICHARD BAYLISS

(centre-half). Just 21, 5ft. 9in., 11st. 8lbs., native of Alfreton, Derbyshire. Started in good local football at 15, last season played with Alfreton Rose Villa. Played for Town Reserves three or four times and did well. Strong as a horse and a rare tackler. Sought after by Sunderland. He also saw war service.

25. 5ft. 8½in., 12st., born at Kilwinning, Ayrshire. For three years played in front of Jamie Brownlie, Scottish International goalkeeper, with Third Lanark, who received £600 for him last year from St. Mirren. St. Mirren asked more than that from Luton. Regarded as one of Scotland's greatest backs, and whole country sorry Luton has got him. Served with Glasgow Highlanders in France for three years along with Watson.

23. 5ft. 10½in., 12st., native of Alfreton, and colleague of Bayliss in Alfreton Rose Villa. Clever, fearless forward, good shot, and can stand a lot of busting. Had successful trial with Norwich City last season, but preferred to come to Luton. Regarded as challenger for position in 1st XI.

FRANK HULL (full back).

24, 5ft. 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ in., 12st., Dunstable born; Luton football bred. Played for Gledale, Silver Stars, Albion, and Amateurs, but played for his school before any of these. Played for regiment in France, for Pick of Newcastle League v. R.F.A., 1918, partnering H. English, of Sheffield United. Joined Amateurs on discharge from Army after four years' service. Invited to play for South Shields, but wants to play for Luton Town—and will.

JAMES BRADLEY (inside forward).

24, 5ft. 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ in., 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ st., native of Lis-maghow, Lanark. Played for Dundee and Dundee "Hibs." Served 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ years in the Army. Is clever with his feet and a good shot. Disagreed with Dundee at beginning of last season, so played with the "Hibs." but is looking forward to happier time with Luton.

(Opposite General Post Office).

JOHN W. LAMB (centre-half).

Is 28, 5ft. 11½in., 12st., native of Clay Cross, Derbyshire. Played in Derbyshire League football till 1914, when Luton Town and Sheffield Wednesday sought him. Wednesday succeeded, but could not hold him this season. Served in France 1915-16, and was wounded. Injuries prevented him keeping place in Wednesday's 1st XI. last season, but is fully recovered now.

HARRY LESLIE COCKERILL
(right half-back).

23, 5ft. 9½in., 12st., native of Ryhope, Sunderland. Brought from Ryhope Villa to London by the Arsenal last year. Played centre-forward for Alder shot Command with Cock, of Chelsea, at inside-right, during his three and three-quarter years with the Colours. Recommended to Luton by our old friend McEwen. Very fast, has won many professional foot races in North.

26, 5ft. 5in., 10st., was born at Finsbury, therefore a Cockney. A dapper, compact little player with any amount of ginger. Played with Finchley, and for the Arsenal during war time, when he made a great impression and was sought by many clubs. He is an amateur, but is regarded as an almost certain candidate for first team. Served in the Army.

EUSTACE PERCY ATKINS (centre).
24, 5ft. 10in., 12½st., born at New Southgate, won reputation by winning Wood Green League and Cup medals with St. Michael Old Boys. Came to Harpenden after 5 years in Army, and helped Harpenden Town win two Cups. Vigorous pivot with considerable shooting ability.

Secretary, N. SHEPHERD.

ERNEST SIMMS (centre-forward).

27. 5ft. 9in., 11st., native of Newcastle district, played for Merton Colliery and then for Barnsley, coming to Luton in 1913-14 to help club out of Second Division, and succeeded. Holds season record for goal scoring in first-class football—40 goals in London Combination in 1916-17. Top goal scorer for Luton last year also, but did not reach his best, having to recover from severe wound received while serving in Italy.

WM. LAWSON (Trainer).

54 in years, but much younger in fitness. Height and weight of no concern, for he is good in all positions—at mending sprains and strains, of the sinew, and ruffled tempers. A wonderful experience as sprinter and pugilist, and is now a recognised expert in massage, recommended by doctors and patients. One of the very best.

H. DAY (Groundsman).

"Getting on" a bit, but gets on well with everybody. Has taken great pride in the ground, and made the turf nearly akin to a gentleman's lawn. Spick and span appearance of club premises testify to his industry and thoughtfulness.

Bedfordshire Football Association.

The first season of reconstruction—season 1919-20—was a great success. The number of affiliated clubs was 104; League and Competitions, 8; and 110 referees were registered. These results exceeded all expectations. The County Cup competitions again proved a good attraction. Nineteen clubs entered the Senior Competition, and 52 competed in the Junior. Luton Clarence by beating Arlesey in the final, win the Senior Cup for the 7th time. Sandy Albion defeated Leighton Ivy Leaf in the final of the Junior Cup. The most striking feature, however, was the great financial success which attended the finals of both competitions. The Senior Cup final "gate" was £187 2s. 5d. The Junior amounted to £51 5s. 2d. The previous best in the Senior Competition was £55 15s. 6d., and the Junior's previous best was only £7 10s. 8d. The advances, which are indeed exceptional, are partly accounted for by the fact that County Cup Competitions were allowed to play their final rounds off after the season proper had closed. There was, therefore, no other football counter-attraction in either case.

The prospects for season 1920-1921 are very promising. Bedfordshire will be competing in the Southern Counties Championship. They entertain Berks and Bucks and Oxfordshire and have to visit Hertfordshire. A trial match is to be played at Luton in September between teams representing the North and South of the County.

The Officers of the Association are:—

President: Mr. E. Lyonel Finch, Bedford.

Vice-Presidents: Mr. E. Humphreys, Bedford, and Mr. C. H. Ridgway, Leighton Buzzard.

Auditors: Mr. Herbert Eaton, Bedford, and Mr. G. Wistow Walker, Luton.
