OUR VISITORS

To-day we entertain Luton Town in their first visit to Ninian Park since September 13, 1919, a Southern League game which resulted in a draw, 2-2.

Founded in 1885, they were one of the pillars of the old Southern League, being runners-up in the First Division in 1894-95 and again in 1895-96.

Previous to yesterday's game they were eleventh in the League table, with 19 points from 19 games.

TO-DAY'S TEAMS

Owing to the necessity of having to go to press before the holidays, and the possibility of injuries to players in yesterday's game, there is a likelihood that the teams published may be liable to alteration, notification of which will be given in the usual way.

CUP-TIE EXCURSION

For the Third Round F.A. Cup-tie Bradford v. Cardiff City, to be played at Park Avenue on Saturday, 9th January, the Great Western Railway Company are running a day excursion, particulars of which will be found in their advert, in this issue of the programme.

RANDOM NOTES

To-day's games bring clubs to the half way stage of season 1931-32.

Darwen, the giant killers, who visit High-bury in the Third Round of the Cup, are members of the Lancashire Combination. In 1897-8, when they were in the Second Division of the League, they created the unenviable record of obtaining only 14 points, whilst in the following season they gathered only nine.

Arsenal just missed double figures in their London Combination game with Clapton Orient last Saturday.

Chesterfield, who had not won a game since their rather surprising win over Bury on Oct. 31, gained a refreshing victory over Port Vale on Saturday.

Villa fans must have been shocked to see their pets five down to Blackburn Rovers last Saturday. At Villa Park, too !

Southend are falling from grace very badly. After holding an unbeaten certificate longer than any club in all the Leagues they lose three games almost on top of one another. Their latest fall was against Torquay, whom they defeated in the First Round of the F.A. Cup.

Matson, the old City winger, was promoted from the Southampton Reserves to the first team in the game against Leeds United on Saturday. His elevation was justified according to reports of the match.

Griffiths, the Welsh International, had a big hand in Bolton's victory over his former club, Everton, on Saturday. It is stated that he completely blotted out Dean.

THE BAND'S GREETINGS

The St. Saviour's Band officials and players are desirous of thanking all those followers of the City who have assisted them by their contributions in the weekly collections, and to wish them all a brighter and more prosperous new year. They also trust to be favoured by their valued support in the future.

It is not too early for parties intending to visit the

It was Christmas Day, and the postman was hurrying on his round when he was accosted by a lady at the door of a large house.

"Are you the regular postman?"

"Yes, mum."

"Do you come in the morning?"

"Yes, mum."

"And in the afternoon?"

"Yes, mum," eagerly.

"Oh, then it must have been you who broke our bell."

Husband (toying with his Christmas pudding): "Of course, dear, it's only a fancy of mine, but I wonder if it is possible that there might be a printer's error in that cookery book of yours!"
